

Wherewithal

SHALL WE

be Clothed?

As the icy breath of old Boreas sweeps around the corner it carries that question right home to us. Humanity can no more stand such weather unprotected than can the lilies of the field. Remember right now that underwear is cheaper than funerals and overcoats cost less than undertakers. Therefore we say "come unto us all ye who shiver and are lightly muffled and we will warm you up."

PEASE & MAYS

To Prevent Spread of Infectious Disease

As the city has still numerous cases of scarlet fever, although in a very mild form, a local physician desires us to publish, for the information of the public, sections 4 and 9 of ordinance 263, of Dalles City, which are still in force and which read as follows:

Sec. 4. It shall be the duty of every practicing physician in the city to notify the marshal, in writing, of every case of contagious or infectious disease within the city limits, within twelve hours after the existence of such disease shall come to his knowledge; and should any such physician refuse or neglect to comply with the requirements of this section, he shall, upon conviction thereof before the recorder's court, be fined not less than $50 nor more than $100.

Sec. 9. Any physician or nurse attending upon any person or persons having any infectious or contagious disease who shall enter any public building or private dwelling within the city limits in the same clothing worn when visiting patients afflicted with such disease shall, upon conviction thereof before the recorder's court, be fined not less than $20 nor more than $100.

Bert Rogers, who shot M. J. Finlayson yesterday afternoon at Antelope, was today examined before Justice Gilman and bound over to the grand jury in the sum of $1000. Rogers secured bonds and was released from custody.

Born, this morning, Nov. 27th, at the Umatilla House, to Mrs. J. E. Durham, of McMinnville, a son. The lady is a stranger here and was taken ill on the train last night, while on her way from her home at Roslyn, Wash., to her mother's at McMinnville. She and the baby are doing well.

There is no reason in tiring yourselves out cooking tomorrow, when you can buy the best of mince, pumpkin and other kind of pies, cakes, doughnuts, salt rising and yeast bread; in fact everything in the pastry line for Thanksgiving dinner from the ladies of the Good Intent Society at Cross' store.

In an appeal from Washington county State Superintendent Ackerman has decided that reading a chapter of the Bible without comment and repeating the Lord's Prayer in a public school is not sectarian, and the board of directors are authorized to make that a part of the school program and suspend pupils who refuse to participate.

The Degree of Honor will give a social and dance tomorrow (Wednesday) evening in Fraternity hall, as previously announced. A good program will be rendered and refreshments served, followed by dancing, with Miss Georgia Sampson as pianist. Come and spend a pleasant evening. Doors open at 8:15. Admission, gents 25 cents; ladies 15 cents.

An adjourned meeting of the Portland Chamber of Commerce was held this afternoon to consider the subject of opening the Columbia river to free navigation. E. H. Libbey, president of the Lewiston (Idaho) Commercial Club, was expected to be present and present his views. The project of a canal at the dalles was expected to engage the attention of the meeting.

The ladies of the Lutheran church will have a sale of pies and cakes and cut flowers at the store of I. C. Nickelsen next Wednesday. It is admitted that the German ladies are second to none as pastry cooks. Buy your Thanksgiving pies and cakes from these good ladies and have the double satisfaction of getting the full worth of your money and helping a good cause.

M. J. Finlayson, who was shot at Antelope last night, arrived in town today and placed himself under the care of Dr. Geisendorfer. Mr. Finlayson says that Bert Rogers, his assailant, fired four times at him, only one shot taking effect. The shooting was done on the public street of Antelope and Mr. Finlayson had no warning whatever that Rogers intended to do him harm.

One of our subscribers, says an exchange, wishes to know the difference between a salary and wages. It is this: If a man is getting $1 a day for running a machine of some kind, or laying brick on a wall, or doing something that makes a white collar and cuffs uncomfortable, he is getting wages. If he sits at a desk and gets $6 a week, has soft hands, wears white cuffs, collar and tie, he gets a salary.

Don't overlook this: Hudson & Brownhill have a residence property for sale, situated in one of the most desirable locations in the city. It is a modern house with seven rooms, bath room, pantry and closets. There is also a good barn and other outbuildings, seven and a half lots, and faces two streets. You cannot duplicate it for twice the money asked for it. If you are looking for a home don't fail to investigate. "A word to the wise is sufficient." Offices, 66 and 68 Washington street.

The Pute push gathered at the tepee of G. Hole-in-his-shoes last Monday evening, says the Harney County News, and indulged in a champagne supper consisting of jack-rabbit and compound extract of dried apples. Quite a social time was had until No. Taken made a sign which indicated that Bear-faced Charley had rubbed his face against a wire fence to acquire notoriety. Then the scene changed and only the timely arrival of interference prevented the meeting from breaking up in a row.

J. M. Garrison, of Forest Grove, the oldest poultry fancier in the state, who has been laboring in the interests of the poultry business for the past twenty-three years, organized the Hood River Poultry Club at Hood River Saturday. It started with twenty members, many of whom are women, and comprises in its membership some of the most enterprising and public-spirited citizens of Hood River valley, such as Hon. E. L. Smith, S. F. Blythe, E. D. Caulkins, J. L. Gordon and D. N. Byerlee. They expect to double the number of members at the next meeting, two weeks hence. It is the intention of the club to raise the better variety of poultry only, and it will have a poultry exhibition at the fruit fair next fall. Mr. Garrison says Hood River valley is well adapted to poultry raising, and in a few years may be expected to rank as high as a producer of eggs and poultry as it does now for its apples.

Another continuation of the mandamus suit of Drake C. O'Reilly against the Columbia Southern and E. E. Lytle for an examination of the books of the corporation has been granted, says the Telegram. C. E. S. Wood, one of the attorneys for the plaintiff, stated that the defendant had agreed to allow them to examine the books, not because they had a legal right, but out of a desire to accommodate them, and as he did not care what the feeling was so long as his client could see the books, he asked for the continuance.

President McKinley probably has broken the record for popular majorities. His plurality will be, it is estimated, about 800,000. The greatest before was 702,901, received by Grant in 1872. The next to that was McKinley's in 1896, which was 601,854. Cleveland's plurality in 1892 was 380,810, and the next was Grant's in 1868, which was 305,456. Only Grant in 1872 received a larger majority of votes in the electoral college than did McKinley this year. Grant, in 1872, had a majority of 223. McKinley has 137 this year; Cleveland, in 1892, had 116, and McKinley in 1896 had 93.

Phil Hunt, advance manager of "Tennessee's Pardner," arrived in town today. This attraction is booked at the Vagt opera house next Tuesday evening, Dec. 4th, and is one of the best companies on tour. It is now filling an engagement at Cordray's theater, Portland, as the special Thanksgiving week's attraction, and is the fourth time it has played in that city. "Tennessee's Pardner" is under the direction of Arthur C. Aiston, who has retained the original company for this season's tour. The attraction has the personal endorsement of Manager Clarke and our most prominent citizens.

Sheriff Kelly this morning received a telephone message from Justice E. J. Gilman, of Antelope, announcing that Bert Rogers of that place had, last evening, shot and dangerously wounded M. J. Finlayson in a dispute arising out of "family troubles." No particulars were given further than that the ball entered Finlayson's body a little above the left nipple and lodged in the collar bone. The sheriff instructed the justice to have Rogers arrested and examined and if believed to be in fault brought here. Justice Gilman informed the sheriff that the local physician did not consider Finlayson's wound as necessarily fatal.

Population of Wasco County.

The following special dispatch to THE CHRONICLE has just been received: WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 27, 1900. CHRONICLE, The Dalles, Or.: The population of Wasco county is 13,177.

A. W. PATTERSON.

PEOPLE COMING AND GOING.

L. E. Morse was in town today from Hood River.

Mavor M. J. Anderson, of Dufur, was in town last night the guest of the Umatilla House.

State Senator T. H. Johnston, of Dufur, was in town last night and left for home this afternoon.

Representative Moody left this morning on the No. 3 passenger for Washington, D. C. He goes east by way of the Northern Pacific.

Attorney Bert Phelps, of Heppner, is in the city on his way to Portland. Bert claims that Morrow county is the banner republican county of the state. Every precinct in the county gave a majority for the republican ticket.

W. A. C. vs. The Dalles.

THE CHRONICLE is pleased to state that at a very late hour a Thanksgiving game of foot-ball has been arranged between the Washington Agricultural College and The Dalles team, to be called on Thanksgiving afternoon at 3 o'clock. This college has the banner team of Washington, and The Dalles has a good strong local team, so a warm game may be expected.

Children and ladies will not be charged to see the game, but men are expected to donate 50 cents each to assist in defraying the expenses, which are $100, and no gentleman will insist upon beating his way in upon the grounds, or in viewing the game from a high eminence just to save 50 cents. It costs labor, and money as well, to get these athletic amusements, and the loyal support of the Dalles people is assured.

Tickets can be procured before the game at any of the drug stores, or from the numerous ticket-sellers, who will call upon you.
