SIXTEEN DEAD-- OTHERS DYING.

Glass Factory Roof in San Francisco Collapsed While Crowded With Spectators Watching a Thanksgiving Day Football Game.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 30.—This city has never known an accident approaching in horrible details that of yesterday, when more than 100 men and boys who were viewing the Stanford-California football game from the roof of an adjoining glass manufactory were suddenly precipitated into the interior of the building, many of them on top of the white-hot furnaces. The ventilator annex to the roof on which they were perched, collapsed under the strain, and without warning 14 persons were hurled to their death. The injured now being cared for in hospitals or at their homes number 83, and of these several cannot survive.

Nearly all of the dead sustained fractures of the skull or fatal injuries to their spinal column. In only a few cases was contact with the furnaces the immediate cause of death, for ready hands quickly dragged into the open air those who were in danger of being burned alive.

Fred F. Lilly, who is among those believed to be fatally injured, came to San Francisco a few weeks ago from New York City. Among his effects were found a number of letters from his father, Henry Lilly, who is connected with the firm of J. Richards & Co., dealers in boots and shoes, 59 and 61 Read street, New York City.

Charles Yost, overseer of the glass works, was aken the fire when the crash came, and narrowly escaped being struck by the falling bodies. He says that those killed are those who struck the heavy bands that surrounded the glass oven or were crushed by those who fell on top of them. Many succeeded in staying their descent for a moment by holding on to the broken beams, but before they could be reached they were obliged to let go their hold and drop to the floor, a distance of 45 feet.

Clarence Jeter, a furnace tender, pulled eight people off the top of the retorts, where the heat was about 500 degrees. The oil drips were full and the fire did not go down until they were extinguished. Some of the men and boys were terribly burned. They were drawn away from the retorts with long iron pokers used in testing the glass.

While aiding in removing the dead and wounded, T. J. Parker, a fireman, found his own son among those injured. The lad will probably die. The managers of the glass works state that it was impossible for them to keep the people off their buildings. They disclaim all responsibility for the accident. It is estimated that over 300 people were on the ventilator when it collapsed for its entire length of 100 feet. Some were thrown to the main roof of the building and escaped unhurt, but of those who fell into the structure nearly all were either killed or seriously maimed.

A Night of Terror.

"Awful anxiety was felt for the widow of the brave General Burnham of Maelias, Me., when the doctors said she could not live till morning," writes Mrs. S. H. Lincoln, who attended her that fearful night. "All thought she must soon die from Pneumonia, but she begged for Dr. King's New Discovery, saying it had more than once saved her life, and had cured her of Consumption. After three small doses she slept easily all night, and its further use completely cured her." This marvelous medicine is guaranteed to cure all Throat, Chest and Lung Diseases. Only 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free at Blakeley's drug store.

Mormons Roughly Treated in Hungary.

VIENNA, Nov. 30.—Advice received from Temesvar, South Hungary, record the rough treatment received there by two Mormon elder emissaries from Salt Lake, Utah. The two elders had hardly commenced to enunciate their views on polygamy when the audience stormed the platform and ejected the pair from the hall. One of them was compelled to run the gauntlet of 300 irate citizens armed with sticks, straps and knotted cords, and shod with hob-nailed shoes. He was afterwards stripped to the waist and strapped by half a dozen matrons of Temesvar. The second Mormon was ducked in a horse pond. Finally the two elders were rescued by the police. The minister of the interior has prohibited further Mormon attempts to proselyte as being dangerous to the well being of the state.

Kruger Missed an Opportunity.

NEW YORK, Nov. 30.—A dispatch to the Journal and Advertiser from Paris says: Mr. Kruger has recently asked a number of questions regarding public and political sentiment in America so far as the Boers are concerned, but he will not go to the United States now. His plans for his future abode are unsettled, depending largely upon the success of his efforts at intervention.

Your correspondent is of the opinion that he has almost lost his opportunity of rousing French feeling. Had he followed up his Marseilles speech with specific charges of the barbarous conduct of the British and a vigorous appeal to the warm-hearted sympathies of the French and continental nations, something more favorable might have happened. But he allowed himself to be persuaded to remain silent, on the grounds of diplomatic fears of causing trouble.

The foes of mediation are the diplomats; its friends are the people and the press. The intense interest aroused by the visit of Kruger to Europe is subsiding with the inevitable result of a gradual waning enthusiasm as in all such events. The British parliament meets on Tuesday, and Kruger's indictment, including documents compromising prominent English statesmen in the Jameson conspiracy ought to have been launched on the President's arrival in Paris in order to create the maximum effect.

Oom Paul's timid misadvisers are to blame. Had he been left to follow his own plans the result would have been otherwise.

An Empty Honor For Grover Cleveland

NEW YORK, Nov. 30.—The World says: New Jersey democrats are interested in a suggestion that Grover Cleveland be given the complimentary nomination for United States Senator. Some hope the caucus to be held December 7 will name Mr. Cleveland. Before the caucus it is the purpose, it is said, to have a committee call upon Mr. Cleveland and ascertain where he stands regarding the proposition. There are 19 democrats in the Jersey Legislature, against 45 republicans.

That Affair With The Sultan.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Thursday, Nov. 29.—

The opinion is expressed in diplomatic circles that the American claims for building of a cruiser in the United States is officially promulgated.

The question of the consulate at Harpoot remains open, the Porte persisting in its refusal to grant an exequatur to Dr. Thomas H. Norton. The moral effect, however, created by the presence of the United States battleship Kentucky at Smyrna in support of the representative of the American legation, taken in conjunction with the settlement of the other claims, leads the legation to hope for an early arrangement of all outstanding differences.

LONDON, Nov. 30.—Nothing in regard to the United States battleship Kentucky is coming from Smyrna. The authorities there are evidently censoring all dispatches.

LONDON, Nov. 30.—A Renter dispatch from Constantinople says it is suggested that Russia is prompting the Porte to grant an exequatur to Dr. Norton. The dispatch adds: "It is an open secret that they dislike the foreign consuls in Asia Minor, especially the Americans, whom they suspect of aiding the American mission work in Armenia."

Bled Quarts at a Time

"I am a knife maker and worked for a number of years in the New York Knife Co.'s factory at Walden, N. Y. First thing I knew I commenced to bleed from the mouth. Sometimes as much as a quart of blood would come up from my lungs at a time. Every time I coughed the blood spurted out. It was in the fall I got so bad, and the church people told me I had better make my peace with the Lord and prepare to die, for I would not live till spring. My home doctor couldn't do me any good, but advised me to get to New York City for examination. They finally took me to a medical college, and a whole lot of physicians made what they called a diagnosis. There were several students looking on. One professor had a little ivory hammer, and with this he pounded my chest and held his ear close to listen. After a while the professor looked at me solemnly and declared: 'One of your lungs is about gone and the other is affected. There may be a slim chance for life if you quit working in that knife factory.' I went back home, but didn't improve. One day I saw an advertisement of free samples of Acker's English Remedy for Consumption, being given away by our home druggists, Walker & Eaton. I got one of these bottles, and it relieved me. Then I bought more of the regular size, and my improvement was continuous, although slow. My doctors were astonished and so was I. After dark I hated to spit, because I was afraid it might be blood, and I wanted to know for sure. I have no fear now, for at last I am a solid man again. Although one lung is gone, the other is as sound as a dollar, and answers as well as two lungs, so far as I can see. I want everyone to know the facts and that is why I tell them here." (Signed) A. H. SIMPSON.

Acker's English Remedy is sold by all druggists under a positive guarantee that your money will be refunded in case of failure, 50c, 50c, and $1 a bottle in United States and Canada.
