The funeral of Maurice Cushing, who died at Sumpter Monday, will take place at the Catholic church in this city Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Friends of the family invited.
A great event among the local Woodmen of the World will be the visit of the fraternal evangelist of the order, Professor John P. Makin, of Salt Lake City, next Monday night at the Baldwin.
It may interest somebody who lost a gate last Halloween to know that there is one lying in a hollow at the northwest corner of the old box building on Washington street, north of the M. E. church.
It is officially announced in Berlin that President Kruger will be received there with all honors due the chief of a state. The emperor, however, will stay away from Berlin during the time of the Boer president's visit.
A large number of those who will take part in the "Temple of Fame" were present at the preliminary meeting last night. The first rehearsal will be held in the basement of the M. E. church Thursday evening at 8:30. It is important that all characters be present.
Those ladies' patent leather shoes in A. M. Williams & Co's. show window, have you noticed them? They're worth

$3.50 a pair regularly, but next Thursday, Friday and Saturday they will be sold at $2.00 a pair. A rare chance to get a fine dress shoe for next to nothing.
Mrs. Pearl Burford, who has been here for a short time undergoing medical treatment, died this morning, December 4th, aged 24 years. She leaves a husband, who is a resident of the Hartland country, Klickitat county. Mrs. Burford had been ill for a long time, and her death was not unexpected.
Mrs. Mary E. Huntington has perfected arrangements whereby the fire insurance business of the late firm of J. M. Huntington & Co. will be continued by her. She will be pleased to renew all expiring policies issued by J. M. Huntington & Co. and to write such further insurance as may be entrusted to her. Office at Huntington & Wilson's law office. n30-1w
Fifteen municipalities in Southern California have banished the saloon, and 60,000 people are under local option laws. The towns are Pasadena, Riverside, Monrovia, South Pasadena, Long Beach, Orange, San Jacinto, Elsinore, Compton, Escondido, Pomona Redlands, Whittier, Santa Monica and Ontario. Riverside county has a prohibitory law and Ventura and Orange are trying for one.
Superintendent Gardner of the Boys' and Girls' Aid Society telephoned the sheriff last night that Alva Simmons, who was sent from here to the home about three weeks ago, had escaped and would probably beat his way back to The Dalles. Simmons was accompanied by Wilbur Allen, a lad of his own age, who was committed from Pendleton. The authorities here are on the lookout for the truants.
Owing to a misunderstanding in dates the Circle social will be Thursday evening instead of Friday evening. Remember it is only 10 cents admission, and a novel program has been prepared. There will be home-made candies, and refreshments, if you wish them; there will be music for dancing, if you care to dance, in addition to program, and there will be a midway at this fair worth seeing. Admission 10 cents.
Last Saturday Nathan Cooper arrived in the city from Billings, Mont., accompanied by his bride, he having been united in marriage with Miss Love Crampton at Billings on November 28th. They will spend a short time with the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Cooper. Mr. Cooper is a worthy young man, who by his energy has succeeded in business, as well as in other respects. His friends in The Dalles will extend to them the heartiest congratulations and best wishes.
A very successful school entertainment was given at Ten Mile last Friday night in connection with the close of a term taught by Miss Catherine Martin, of this city. The entertainment was for the benefit of the school library. The people of the district considered that Miss Martin's term was the most satisfactory and successful ever taught in the district. The program was engineered by Miss Martin and the pupils and patrons of the school showed their appreciation of the lady by turning out in such numbers that the school room didn't near hold the crowd. The admission to the entertainment was free but so lively was the bidding that the proceeds from the sale of a lot of baskets filled with fruits and candy netted the library the snug sum of $14.75.

At a late hour a game of football was arranged between Heppner and The Dalles at the former's grounds on the afternoon of December 14th. This game is for the championship of Eastern Oregon, and the Dalles team should spare no effort to get in readiness for the game. All members of the association, and especially players, are requested to meet at the opera house to-night at 8:30. The captain of the team will expect hard work from all until the game is pulled off.
It may be of interest to the Dalles boys to learn that the football game recently played at Heppner between the big team of that place and the high school team of La Grande, was won by the former by the score of 64 to 0. The Times states that Heppner scored 35 points in the first half and 29 in the second: "The visitors only had the ball three or four times during the whole time and Heppner's skilled heavyweights walked through, over and under them and made touch-downs whenever they felt like it."
Mr. Louis M. Bunnell, of Centerville, and Miss Nellie M. John, of this city, were united in marriage Thanksgiving day at the residence of the bridegroom's brother, Mr. M. D. Bunnell, ten miles south of Centerville, Rev. N. Evans, of Goldendale, officiating. The ceremony was performed in the presence of a large number of friends and relatives, after which the company sat down to an elegant dinner. The wedding presents were numerous and valuable. The young couple will make their home for the present at the M. D. Bunnell farm.
Notice of Dissolution of Partnership.

Common Council Proceedings.
The regular monthly meeting of the city council was held last night with all the members present except Councilman H. C. Liebe and the mayor, who was out of town. In the mayor's absence Councilman Gunning was called to the chair.
John Bunn and George Krause appeared before the council and complained of a dead cow and a dead horse that had been dragged by a neighbor into the vicinity of the complainants' property and left there to rot. On motion the marshal was ordered to have the nuisance abated.
The following petition for a sewer on Court street, from the river to the bluff, was read and on motion was referred to the committee on streets and public property:
To the Mayor and Common Council of Dalles City:
We, the undersigned, property holders adjacent to Court street, would ask your honorable body to lay a terra cotta sewer from the river to the bluff, on Court street. Said sewer to be laid sufficiently deep so as to drain all the property adjacent to said Court street; said property, on each side of said Court street on half of the block to be assessed to pay for said expense; said work to be done according to law and let to the lowest bidder.

Councilman Kelly suggested that something ought to be done with the idle money in the city treasury so that it might be earning interest. He was in favor of investing it in county warrants. As some doubt was expressed as to whether or not under existing revenue laws, the city could buy county warrants without taking out a broker's license, it was finally agreed that the finance committee should confer with the local and Portland banks and see what interest, if any, they would be willing to allow on a time deposit.
