PEASE & MAYS

To Whom It May Concern.

It having come to my knowledge that parties, presumably interested, are claiming that when I sold out my retail interest at 173, Second street, French's block, I contracted to not open any retail business in the city of The Dalles. I beg to say that I sold my right not to open any retail business between Federal and Washington streets, on Second street, and have and intend to conform to my contract. My place at the Bank Cafe is in no sense in violation of the contract.

The day after tomorrow may be too late to get your size in those $3.50 shoes Williams & Co. are putting on sale at $2 tomorrow. You had better be early in this case.

The number of prisoners in the Oregon penitentiary grows less every year. The number of convicts is now less than it has been at any time in two years, and is about seventy less than at this time four years ago.

The Dalles football team has been challenged for a game each by second Multnomah and Walla Walla. It is not known what arrangements will be made in reference to these games, all depending upon the interest manifested by the public and the players.

A fine ladies' dress boot will go on sale at about half the regular price at A. M. Williams & Co.'s tomorrow. Needless to say that this popular offering will draw a crowd and that it may be advisable to be there ahead of the crowd to get your proper size.

Chicago is not only the greatest cattle, sheep and hog market in the world, but it now leads all creation as a horse market. During the nine full months of the present calendar year 147,000 horses were received and sold there, breaking all former records by nearly 30,000.

According to the present outlook Malheur will be the banner county in the state in the matter of court houses. The building of a new one in Vale stirred Ontario up and now she will build one also. That will be three in the county. What will be the next place to invest in a court house? asks the Malheur Gazette.

The La Grande Chronicle says that John E. Hough, of that town, shipped a carload of onions to Seattle Monday morning for shipment from thence to the Philippines for use of the U. S. troops now sojourning there, and that he was getting ready to ship a carload of apples to Chicago for export to Liverpool.

In the circuit court at Moro yesterday Judge Bradshaw denied a petition for a rehearing in the case of D. C. O'Reilly vs. The Columbia Southern Railway, E. F. Lytle and others. A demurrer to the complaint was sustained some time ago. Under yesterday's ruling the plaintiff is said to have abandoned and dismissed the suit.

Buyers of horses at Goldendale say that the 1600-pound animal, broken to harness, is getting to be very scarce. Before the war these horses could be bought for about from $60 to $100, but they are now commanding as high as $200. Cavalry horses from 900 to 1200 pounds cost the government from $90 to $120 each.

W. J. Harriman, administrator of the estate of the late Ed Doyle, of Enderby, will sell at public auction, Tuesday, December 18th, commencing at 10 o'clock a. m., the personal property of the estate, consisting of farming mill, grain drill, header, gang and walking plows, 3 sets of harrows, 6 head of horses, 4 head of cattle, a wagon and harness, blacksmith tools, etc. Terms cash at time of sale.

A large audience greeted Arthur C. Aiston's company in "Tennessee's Partner" at the Vogt last night. The company is an exceptionally strong one, honors being very evenly divided among its members. The most pleasing feature of the performance, however, was the splendid singing by the male quartet, Messrs. Pilling, Lindeman, Young and Rex. The entire performance was very acceptable, and we trust the Aiston company will play a return engagement in the near future.

At the Salem city election Monday the republicans were beaten by the citizens by a majority of 86. The council will stand four republicans to four democrats and populists and a republican mayor. A dispatch says that all the saloons and the cigar store gambling places all "stood in" with the citizens' reform ticket, and in one ward Jack Rogers, who owns three saloons there, was the boss challenger for them, the first time in ten years a saloon-keeper has been seen as a poll worker.

Lake county has paid into the state treasury $1077.10 on account of the scalp bounty tax.

Seattle barbers will ask the Washington legislature to make Sunday opening of barber shops a misdemeanor.

Every football player is expected at the armory tonight for practice. A good game of ball is ahead of our boys and hard work must be had.

C. S. Smith today purchased the dry goods stock of S. L. Brooks, in the East End, and will continue that part of the business at the old stand.

John Hendricks, a boy of 20 or so, who was brought up from Mosier the other day under a charge of larceny, was turned loose this morning and immediately left for the Willamette valley. Judge Blakeley considered the youth was more of a natural born fool than a dangerous lunatic, and very properly thought it best to let him go his way.

The McKinley and Roosevelt club, of Windom precinct, Lewis county, Wash., after carrying their county by a handsome majority, concluded to continue their work of doing good by transforming themselves into a Good Roads Club. As a starter they ask that a half-mile of good road be built near the county as a working model for the rest of the county.

"How do you like Oregon?" was asked the other day by Mrs. Eliza Vickers of the five-year-old daughter of George Denton who, with his wife and little one, arrived here a few days ago from Iowa and are stopping with Mrs. Vickers while the head of the house looks out for a location. "How do I like Oregon?" answered the five-year old, to whom Oregon was apparently not yet familiar. "Yes, yes, how do you like it?" "I don't like it at all," was the reply. "I like a piano lots better."

On the 24th instant County Clerk Butler, of Wheeler county, recorded a satisfaction of mortgage from Eugene Looney to E. E. Allen and wife for $54,274, says the Fossil Journal. The mortgage was given by Mr. Allen to Mr. Looney in June, 1898, when he purchased 8759 sheep and Mr. Looney's fine sheep plant and range near Mitchell. It was a time sale, and few people thought Mr. Allen could ever pay out, with such a load of debt; but the sheep business, rightly managed, in republican times, is a profitable one, and Mr. Allen was prepared to make every payment before it became due, and now, through selling a half interest in the property to J. H. Oakes, of Mitchell, is enabled to take up the last note, which was not due until July, 1900.

The county clerk spoiled a fine item this morning. Mr. I. N. Sargent had called on the county treasurer to have some warrants redeemed, among which was one for $15, issued July 16, 1896. Mr. Hampshire at once detected that this particular warrant had been raised from $5 to $15, and in an apparently clumsy manner at that. There was no mistake about it. A figure 1 had been written before the figure 5, while the written "Five" had been scratched and the necessary letters inserted to make it "Fifteen." The one unaccountable feature of the warrant was that it was indorsed by a prominent sheepman of the county whom no one could suspect of fraud. The treasurer rushed with it to the clerk's office, accompanied by the inevitable and ubiquitous newspaper fiend, only to find that the warrant was entered on the register for $15 and had evidently been raised by the drawer at the time it was issued. So the indictment for forgery, that for a moment loomed up portentously, was summarily dismissed.

Tomorrow, Thursday night, the people of The Dalles will have the rare opportunity of listening to the Original Royal Marine Band of Italy, under the management of the famous operatic tenor, Signor Ferruccio Giannini. In the rendering of Italian compositions this band is said to be unapproachable by any band in America. It played with great success for two weeks at the late Spokane exposition and is now on its way East after giving nine concerts in Portland, five at the Marquam Grand and four at the Exposition building. These followed in turn a series of remarkably successful concerts in San Francisco. As this may be the opportunity of a lifetime for Dalles lovers of music the Vogt opera house ought to be filled to its fullest capacity.

Grand Masquerade Ball.

In response to repeated requests that have been made of Professor Sandvig during the past six weeks that gentleman has announced his consent to give a grand masquerade ball at the Baldwin opera house, New Year's night. The professor wants the public to understand that every measure will be taken to make the ball in every respect first class. Before entering the hall all masquers, without distinction of sex, will be required to remove their masks in presence of a committee who will in no instance allow objectionable characters to enter. Further particulars will be announced later. dl-7f
