

Off to Frisco!

But before we go every article we possess, every Piano and Organ must go. Gilbert & Jones Co., who are to become our successors in Portland, have not bought a single Piano or Organ from us. They have paid us a big sum of money simply to become our successors, for our reputation, for our good will, and for our agencies, so as to control hereafter the sale of the Knabe, Hardman, Steek, Fisher, Ludwig and other Pianos, and under the contract with them we are obliged to get out of Portland in the very near future so as to let them operate in the field which we must relinquish. We have no time to waste, and have therefore instructed our Agent,

I. C. NICKELSEN, The Dalles, Oregon,

to close out all Pianos and Organs on hand at a great sacrifice. We are now closing up our business preparatory to our removal to San Francisco, where will be our headquarters hereafter. If you ever intend buying a Piano or Organ now is the time. Address,

I. C. NICKELSEN,

PEOPLE COMING AND GOING.

H. Taylor Hill, of Prineville, is in the city.

John Minto, special internal revenue officer, is in the city on business connected with his office.

Richard Philibert, a prominent business man of Geiser, Baker county, stopped over here today to visit his old-time friend, John H. Cradelbaugh.

"Pendleton must be an easy place for fairs," remarks the East Oregonian. "Scarcely a week goes by that some rough and tumble acrobat doesn't alight in the city and make a little easy money. Unless a stop is put to it, outside people will commence to think that all sharpers need to do is to come here to enrich their pockets. The excitement over the South African Salesman episode had scarcely died down until Jack Miller bobbed up with a proposition to make a balloon ascension on Sunday, December 2d, at 2 o'clock p. m. He banked on his prospects and led some of his newly-made friends to put up petty sums of money for him, but at the hour for the ascension he was not to be found. Neither was his balloon. Whether he had prematurely gone up in his balloon and got away, or whether the ascension, like the balloon itself, had exploded through surcharge of hot air, is not at present known. At any rate, the name of Mr. Miller has been added to a list kept by some of Pendleton's easy-going people, and he will be missed for small amounts. It is thought he has gone to The Dalles.

It is reported that a movement is on foot, said to be backed by Philadelphia coal men, to build at Summit Hill, near Mauch Chunk, Pa., a monument of coal to the memory of Philip Ginter, who discovered coal within a very short distance of Summit Hill. In September it was 109 years since Ginter made his great discovery. He lived in a rough cabin in the forests on the Mauch Chunk mountain. While in quest of game for his family, whom he had left at home without food of any kind, his foot struck a black stone. By the roadside not far from the town of Summit Hill he built a fire of wood and threw pieces of the supposed stone about it, so that the numbers might last longer while he was roasting a fowl. He was surprised after a little while to see the stones glow and retain their heat for a long time. He carried a lot of the coal home and burned it there. The few neighbors who learned of the discovery, but there was no mining to any extent in Carbon county until after the war of 1812 had begun.

"I have used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and find it to be a great medicine," says Mr. L. S. Phipps, of Palsau, Ark. "It cured me of bloody flux. I cannot speak too highly of it." This remedy always wins the good opinion, if not praise, of those who use it. The quick cures which it effects even in the most severe cases make it a favorite everywhere. For sale by Blakeley, the druggist.

Experience is the best Teacher. Use Acker's English Remedy in any case of coughs, colds or croup. Should it fail to give immediate relief money refunded, 25 cts. and 50 cts. Blakeley, the druggist.
