

Our esteemed contemporary, the Baker City Republican, has dropped into the habit lately of viewing the necessities of this great commonwealth of ours from various points of view and urging the necessity of liberal appropriations from congress for measures that are absolutely necessary for the development of our resources. Then, as if by natural sequence, the coming senatorial contest is introduced and a pen picture is given of the only kind of senator that will be able to urge these necessary appropriations from a reluctant congress and then by a dexterous twist of the pen the living image of Ex-Senator Corbett stands revealed.

After performing one of these feats of editorial legerdemain last Thursday the Republican seems to have realized for a moment that somebody in the crowd was making faces at the image it had conjured up and it gave vent to the following little side-speech:

"There are those who oppose this election because he (Mr. Corbett) is a man of wealth. In fact that is the only objection we have heard raised," and then the Republican very justly roasted the Bryanites and populists for their "silly mania that the successful men shall not be eligible for office."

But where has the Republican been all these years if it never heard an objection against Mr. Corbett save that he is a man of wealth? Has the Republican never heard of the legislative hold-up of 1897? Is it not a matter of common report, we had almost said of common knowledge and belief, that this "man of wealth" furnished the sack that Jonathan Bourne used to such advantage for defeating the will of the majority of the legislature and accomplishing a most revolutionary and unrepugnant proceeding? Does the Republican not know that Mr. Corbett was himself a candidate for the senatorship, a candidate, by the way, who would not be thought of in a thousand years were it not that he is a man of wealth, and that to defeat Mitchell every populist in the lower house, by the open, twice-published confession of U'Ren of Clackamas, who was one of them, was bought off from taking the oath of office and assisting in organizing the house, and that the active agent in accomplishing this work was a man who was, at the time, practically a pauper? Is it not a fact that the headquarters of this practical pauper was an extensive building filled with every luxury that could tickle the palate and debauch the senses, as well as with a harem of cyprians from the purlieus of Portland for the gratification of the grosser beasts?

Does the Republican believe that it could find a score of men in Oregon who are in any measure acquainted with the history of the legislative hold-up who could be got to testify that they do not believe that it was Corbett's money that was used in this and other ways to debauch the legislature? It is the solemn and honest belief of the editor of THE CHRONICLE that this man Corbett has done more to corrupt the politics of this state than any man living, save, possibly and always, Senator Simon. And this is the man a clamorous republican faction would fust on the people of Oregon for senator. May a merciful heaven forbid!

Drying preparations simply developed by catarrh; they dry up the secretions, which adhere to the membrane and decompose, causing a far more serious trouble than the ordinary form of catarrh. Avoid all drying inhalants, fumes, smokes and snuffs and use that which cleanses, soothes and heals. Ely's Cream Balm is such a remedy and will cure catarrh or cold in the head easily and pleasantly. A trial size will be mailed for 10 cents. All druggists sell the 50c size. Ely Brothers, 60 Warren St., N.Y. The Balm cures without pain, does not irritate or cause sneezing. It spreads itself over an irritated and angry surface, relieving immediately the painful inflammation. With Ely's Cream Balm you are armed against Nasal Catarrh and Hay Fever.

If you have ever seen a child in the agony of croup you can realize how grateful mothers are for One Minute Cough Cure which gives relief as soon as it is administered. It quickly cures coughs, colds and all throat and lung troubles. Sold by Clarke & Falk's P. O. Pharmacy.

Catarrh Cannot Be Cured. with local applications, as they cannot reach the seat of the disease. Catarrh is a blood or constitutional disease, and in order to cure it you must take internal remedies. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, and acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrh Cure is not a quack medicine. It was prescribed by one of the best physicians in this country for years, and is a regular prescription. It is composed of the best tonic known, combined with the best blood purifiers, acting directly on the mucous surfaces. The perfect combination of the two ingredients is what produces such wonderful results in curing Catarrh. Send for testimonials, free.
