The Dalles Daily Chronicle. $\xrightarrow[\text { MONDAY • . . DEC. } 10,1900]{\text { SHIP SUBSIDY MENDACITY. }}$ If the ship subsidy bill is as bad as some of our democratic contemporaries are trying to make it, surely order to make it to lie about article in a Baker City paper credited to the Salt Lake Herald after characterising the bill as "the been masked in the guise of paternal legissation" adds that: the United States in the payment of subsidies during the life of the than $\$ 1,500,000,000$. like "Estimated" by whom, we should would have been just as correct if the right of it. The bill distinetly of the subsidy shall not, in any one year, exceed $\$ 9,000,000$, and as it provides that subsidized vessels shall earry the United States mails free of charge, as against a present annual and a half dollars, the net annual exceed $\$ 7,500,000$. The "estimate" the Salt Lake paper is therefore corbill, when it becomes a law, shall have an existance of exactly 200 years: The Herald estimates, presumably on its own book, that the standard Oil Company alone will reap a round million from the ship substdy "steal. Possibly, for it must be admitted that the Standard Oil Company generally gets there with both feet, but in that case the company will either vessels necessary to earn the million doliars of subsidy or change the present form of their vessels, which are simply hnge oil

$\qquad$ moment to glance once more at Kansns, says the sun. Here is Jerry farm in the southern part of the state, quitting the bucolic life of vote going into business, actual business, in Kausas City. And what is more, he has bought a three-fiftus interes the Enion Livestock Company, In ry hus become a curporation all by himself: Let him not be guilty of the awful crime of trying to make all the money he can, which, according to good populist doctrine, is all right for the farmer, but oppression for the middleman and the corporation. The next thing Kansas populists know Jerry may try to break into the republican party
If The Cmbovicle had any thought of supporting Mr. Corbett, of Port. land, for the Umted States senate, would hardly dare say so, under the "Why?" This paper has been liably informed, und firmly believes, that there bas beca a peneral canvas of this state by Mr. Corbett's agents, the principal purpose being the pur chase of newspaper thunder in the interest of Mr. Corbett. Tine Chios to be ahove suspicion by keeping clear of any sort of support of Mr Corbett. Besides, he is totally unfit tor the United States senate, but is an easy mark for the bosses, hence the opening of the boil.
