You will find a complete line of Xmas goods at the New York Cash Store. Dan Bower bought 140 head of beef cattle in the Mitchell and Hay Creek countries last week paying $3.25 for cows and $4.75 for steers, says the Antelope Republican. The young ladies of the Congregational church will have a sale of pies, cakes and candies at the store of Pease & Mays next Saturday from 10 in the morning till 6 in the evening. It being calendar day, Mrs. John Hudson, Mrs. Martin Z. Donnell, Mrs. A. J. Toimie and Mrs. William Shackelford entertained the Ladies' Aid Society yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Shackelford. Constable Olinger brought up from Hood River today one Joe Elmer who was bound over by the Hood River justice in the sum of $200 to answer to the charge of larceny in a dwelling, and in default of bonds was committed to the county jail. Elmer is charged with having stolen a lady's shirt waist, a handmirror, a photograph and some other small articles from the Commercial Lodging house.

Our toilet necessaries are of the latest importations; something unusually fine, and at a price that will convince you that we mean to give the people of The Dalles an opportunity to buy at metropolitan prices. See our east window. Geo. C. Blakeley.

The Fossil Journal says it is proposed to have a meeting of natives of Scotland on Saturday, Dec. 29th, in Fossil. Seats from Gilham and Wasco counties will be heartily welcome. A good time is promised, and it is probable that a Burns club will be organized at the meeting.

Superintendent Ormsby, of the Cascade reserve and Supervisor Dular recently made a tour of investigation through that part of the eastern slope of the reserve that is under Mr. Dufur's jurisdiction in order to obtain some special data for the information of the department. They found very little snow anywhere except upon the summit.

The last chapter in the history of Tacoma's shocking street car accident fourth of July last was written the other day when the street car company compromised with the victims and heirs of victims and took the cases out of court. One hundred thousand dollars is a pretty stiff figure to pay because of defects in rolling stock, but the lesson will not be wasted on other companies in the same business.

The football game between the high schools of Portland and The Dalles is "off." Portland claimed some of our boys belonged to the "first team" and refused to meet them. The Portland boys should have shown better nerve, even if they went down to defeat. Their refusal to play renders it more than likely that a game will be pulled off Christmas between The Dalles and Multnomah's second eleven.

The mason work of the water closet building for the Court street public school is finished and the carpenters are putting on the roof, while another force of men are at work laying the sewer. The closets, which have been ordered from the East, are duplicates of those which have given good satisfaction in the high school building. The school directors are to be congratulated for responding to the wishes of the people in having this very important and necessary improvement accomplished.

John Minto, of Salem, advocates the division of Oregon into two states. Mr. Minto is possibly not nearly as "previous" as might appear at first sight. The coming legislature can do much to advance or retard the movement. It is mighty little we get over this way in the line of state appropriations, for the western side of the state, whether constitutionally or not, "hogs" them all. The last legislature passed the scalp bounty law, a measure of very great importance to the people of Eastern Oregon and of no small importance to the people of Western Oregon. Let the valley counties nullify the law by refusing to pay their proportion of the tax, or the valley members insist on repealing the law as they threaten to do and the division question may advance with a bound to a very important place in our state politics.

The Dalles football team left for Heppner on the 12:45 p. m. train, and are due at Heppner at 5 p. m. The Heppner game, which comes off tomorrow, is for the championship of Eastern Oregon. The Dalles team will consist of Messrs. Earle, Frizzell, Zirka, Scott, Groehler, Rne, McKenzie, Cooper, Frank Starr, Ward, Murray, Hagan and Williams. Manager Patterson accompanied the boys, as the Heppner papers have it, to play center. That announcement ought to draw well, as the Heppner people know Mr. Patterson has more fat than muscle, and so it was well assured, will take due care that if his old townies must have a victim for a practical joke, they will have to make some other selection.

A number of Modern Woodmen of this city take exception to a paragraph that appeared in yesterday's Chronicle which drew a comparison between Modern Woodmen and Woodmen of the World that was quite unfavorable to the former. The paragraph was handed in for publication and the writer of it was assumed to be familiar with the facts, and so it was allowed to go to press without investigation. The truth appears to be that the order of Modern Woodmen is older than the Woodmen of the World by seven years. The Modern Woodmen organized January 5, 1883, while the Woodmen of the World, Pacific Jurisdiction, was organized January 28, 1890. Both have reserve funds. The order of Woodmen of the World has paid over two million dollars to widows and orphans during the ten years of its existence. The order of Modern Woodmen has paid to similar beneficiaries $17,359,499.30 during the seventeen years of its existence. Both are good orders. Both are doing good work and there ought to be no jealousy between them.

A Fine Lecture.

"Gumption" was the subject of an enthusiastically received lecture delivered in the Baptist church on Thursday evening last by Rev. Alexander Blackburn, of Lowell, Mass. The reverend gentleman being a McDonough-raised boy, the Journal may be accused somewhat of prejudice when it says the lecture ranks as one of the best ever delivered in this town.—Journal, Macomb, Ill. At the Calvary Baptist church December 19th.

A Plea for Lighted Streets.

To THE EDITOR:—Give me space to make the following suggestion: There is no question, and there can be none, that thieves and burglars and highway men thrive best in the darkness. The best policemen on earth could not prevent this class of gentry from operating in a town as large as The Dalles as long as they have that most effective auxiliary of crime, darkened streets. And lighted streets we cannot have, it would appear, notwithstanding that the city treasury is so full of money that the council recently invested $4500 of the surplus in Wheeler county warrants, and notwithstanding, further, that the city has a gross monthly income of some seventy or eighty dollars from monies similarly invested. In view of these things, and others that might be named, I move, Mr. Editor, that the city council be petitioned to fire the entire police force and devote the money saved thereby to furnishing public lights for the city. I shall sign the petition and guarantee to procure a score of other names.

BUSINESS. Names of some of the prominent pianists, musicians and composers of America and Europe who have used and endorsed the Knabe pianos: Eugen D'Albert, Dr. Hans Von Bulow, Alfred Grunfeld, P. Tchaikovsky, Teresa Carreno, Sir Julius Benedict, Ovide Musin, Bernhard Scholz, Minnie Hauk, Marmontel, Pauline Lucas, Xavier Scharwenka, Lillian Russell, Anton Schott, P. S. Gilmore, Gustav Satter, Neally Stevens, Helen Hopekirke, Asger Hamerik, Max Strakosch, Henri Viextemps.

Adolph Carpe, Ilma DeMurska, Nanette Falk-Aerbach, Clara Louise Kellogg, Bernhard Stavenhagen, Fannie Bloomfield-Zeistler, Chevalier DeKontski, L. M. Gottschalk, Dr. Leopold Damrosch, Constantin Sternberg. For sale at I. C. Nickelsen's music store.

Took the Prize at Paris.

The Ludwig pianos took the world's fair prize medal at Paris. Also note what the prima donna of the Royal Italian Opera Company says: I have used one of your Ludwig pianos for some time and have been very much pleased with its tone. I find your piano particularly adapted for vocal studies, and at present—while practicing several new operas—your piano is my choice again. I will always have a good word for your charming instruments. Respectfully, ELOISE VITTI.

A large assortment of pianos, like Ludwig, Knabe, Martin, Kingsbury, Irvin and Franklin, can be found at Nickelsen's music store. Great sacrifice sale going on now. Select your Christmas piano early.
