

Who will be senator is a question oftener asked, and as often unanswered. We do not know who will be the successful man, but this we do know, that several gentlemen in this state would not object to the honor, and amongst others is H. W. Corbett, who is working like a beaver for it. We do not see why he should want it, nor do we see any good reason why the people should want him. We want a man with some vigor of youth about him and not one who is to a great extent old and physically incapacitated. If we want an aged gentleman, let us have Hon. Geo. H. Williams, the peer of any man in Oregon.—Shaniko Leader.

The Enterprise Chieftain has made the important discovery that John H. Mitchell is the man that is responsible for the Multnomah county law assessment and all the troubles that have flowed from it. Leastwise the Wallowa paper insists that the "Mitchell republicans" are the cuprits and Mitchell is their father. And the Oregonian stoops so low as to publish this silly rot! We should like to know how much the Corbett gang are paying the Chieftain idiot for giving him an opportunity of making an ass of himself.

Of the manufacturing world there is nothing to say except that the manufacturing world is busy. As this is all the manufacturing world cares to have said about itself, there is nothing further to say. All under protection and sound money, too.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

Jim Hill is mildly opposed to the ship subsidy bill, and Jim, as every body knows, is a philanthropist. Before taking Jim at his word, however, we should like to know what card he has up his sleeve.

Explanation.

The paragraph in last Wednesday's CHRONICLE regarding the two Woodmen orders in this city was in answer to several questions given by different people. Some thought the two orders were the same, while they are not. The question was asked a member of the M. W. A. if they had the reserve fund plan and he answered that he thought not. He evidently did not know much about his order. No offense was intended by the writer, nor by any member of Woodcraft of the Woodmen of the World. They are not "jealous" of any order under the shining heavens, nor are they unfraternal enough to misrepresent things to an applicant in order to increase their membership.

Woodcraft, perfected Woodcraft, Woodmen of the World, endeavors to practice as well as teach that life is worth the living and the motto of "love thy neighbor as thyself" is used and practiced by all true fraternal. Now this will again be stated: There is no feeling of jealousy between the Woodmen of the World and the Modern Woodmen, as was hinted at in yesterday's CHRONICLE. The Woodmen of the World will welcome any man who makes proper application, and ask him to study their plan of fraternal protection. Then if he chooses to go elsewhere well and good. They have a most excellent order and invite any one having the future welfare of his family at heart to investigate the order for himself and not depend on hearsay. There is no need to "scrap" with any order that is doing good in the world and is bettering humanity by alleviating want and distress, and who has as the object the protection of the home. The W. O. W. extends a fraternal hand to all such orders.

Took the Prize at Paris. The Ludwig pianos took the world's fair prize medal at Paris. Also note what the prima donna of the Royal Italian Opera Company says: I have used one of your Ludwig pianos for some time and have been very much pleased with its tone. I find your piano particularly adapted for vocal studies, and at present—while practicing several new operas—your piano is my choice again. I will always have a good word for your charming instruments. Respectfully,

ELOISE VIETI.

A large assortment of pianos, like Ludwig, Knabe, Martin, Kingsbury, Irvin and Franklin, can be found at Nickelson's music store. Great sacrifice sale going on now. Select your Christmas piano early.

The Glacier says that the reported hold-ups that were said to have occurred in Hood River a few nights ago, upon investigation turned out to be fakes. The saloons were not robbed, but the saloon men feared they were going to be, owing to the presence of a number of toughs on the streets all night. Two drunken Swedes reported that they had been held up, but it was known they had no money, and after the alleged hold-up they caroused with the alleged robbers as lovingly as Tam O'Shanter and Sauter Johnnie. One arrest was made and an unloaded pistol was found on him, but no cartridges. He was sentenced to four days in jail in default of an eight-dollar fine. There was no hold-up, the Glacier insists, just a big drunk by some of Hood River's objectionable floating population. Only that and nothing more.

Drying preparations simply develop dry catarrh; they dry up the secretions, which adhere to the membrane and decompose, causing a far more serious trouble than the ordinary form of catarrh. Avoid all drying inhalants, fumes, smokes and snuffs and use that which cleanses, soothes and heals. Ely's Cream Balm is such a remedy and will cure catarrh or cold in the head easily and pleasantly. A trial size will be mailed for 10 cents. All druggists sell the 50c. size, Ely Brothers, 56 Warren St., N. Y.

A Village Blacksmith Saved His Little Son's Life.
Mr. H. H. Black, the well-known blacksmith at Grahamsville, Sullivan Co., N. Y., says: "Our little son, five years old, has always been subject to croup, and so bad have the attacks been that we have feared many times that he would die. We have had the doctor and used many medicines, but Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is now our sole reliance. It seems to dissolve the tough mucus and by giving frequent doses when the croupy symptoms appear we have found that the dreaded croup is cured before it gets settled." There is no danger in giving this remedy for it contains no opium or other injurious drug and may be given as confidently to a babe as to an adult. For sale by Blakeley, the druggist.
