

PEOPLE COMING AND GOING.

Sheriff Kelly went to Mosier this afternoon on business.

W. H. Moore, the Moro banker, was in town last night, the guest of the Umatilla House.

D. S. Dufur went to Moro today to superintend the placing of two of his patent closets in one of the hotels at that place.

Mavor E. B. Dufur left Saturday to look after his mining interests in Southern Oregon. He does not expect to come back here until February.

Acting Postmaster F. S. Fisher, Miss Dawson, delivery clerk, Judge R. Mays and Attorney W. H. Wilson have gone to Portland as witnesses in the H. H. Riddell case, which was to come up for hearing in the federal court at that place today.

GREAT FAIR IN 1905.

Oregon Historical Society Starts the Movement—Meeting of the Society in Portland.

At the annual meeting of the Oregon Historical Society, which convened in Portland last Saturday, a resolution was adopted pledging the society to erect during the year 1905, on the site of Fort Clatsop, an imposing and enduring monument in memory of the Lewis and Clark expedition and of the brave men who accompanied it. In connection with the erection and dedication of this monument the society recommends the holding of a Northwest Industrial Exposition at Portland. Governor Geer is asked to submit to the approaching session of the legislature this action on the part of the society, and to urge upon that body a cordial and effective support of the movement contemplated. The governor is also requested to transmit to the governors of the states of Washington, Idaho, Montana and Wyoming, which were comprised in whole or in part in the "Oregon Country," a copy of the resolution with an invitation to the people of these states to participate in the objects set forth in the resolutions.

The secretary of the society is asked to communicate to the senators and representatives in congress from Oregon and the other states above-named this action of the society and solicit their advocacy of such congressional aid in the accomplishment of the purposes above set forth as may be available.

Not the least interesting part of the exercises of the day seems to have been the reading of a paper by Mrs. E. M. Wilson, of this city, of which the following is the account given in the Oregonian:

"Mrs. Elizabeth M. Wilson, of The Dalles, presented a narrative of her personal experiences in coming to Oregon. She told of the great interest of her father and herself in the Oregon country, and how they had read everything that had been published on the subject, and were ready, eager to come here when the opportunity arrived. Mrs. Wilson's paper was largely composed of notes of her trip from New York to Oregon by way of the Isthmus in 1851. She came out as one of a company of teachers. She told her story charmingly, illuminating it with an occasional comment and making it a vivid but not overcolored story. It was not loaded down with details mechanically told, but was sketched and displayed discriminating judgment as well as good memory."

The following list of the Wasco county members of this society may be of interest to readers of THE OREGONIAN:

Took the Prize at Paris.

The Ludwig pianos took the world's fair prize medal at Paris. Also note what the prima donna of the Royal Italian Opera Company says:

I have used one of your Ludwig pianos for some time and have been very much pleased with its tone. I find your piano particularly adapted for vocal studies, and at present—while practicing several new operas—your piano is my choice again. I will always have a good word for your charming instruments.

Respectfully,
Eloise Verdi.

To remove a troublesome corn or bunion: First soak the corn or bunion in warm water to soften it, then pare it down as closely as possible without drawing blood and apply Chamberlain's Pain Balm twice daily; rubbing it vigorously for five minutes at each application. A corn plaster should be worn for a few days, to protect it from the shoe. As a general liniment for sprains, bruises, lameness and rheumatism, Pain Balm is unequalled. For sale by Blakeley, the druggist.

"I have used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and find it to be a great medicine," says Mr. E. S. Phipps, of Poteau, Ark. "It cured me of bloody flux. I cannot speak too highly of it." This remedy always wins the good opinion, if not praise, of those who use it. The quick cures which it effects even in the most severe cases make it a favorite everywhere. For sale by Blakeley, the druggist.

Elements of Chinese Disturbance.

Long travel through many countries has made it clear to my mind that there are three things which have wrought ruin in those foreign lands wherein honest trade could be built up by honest men. These are whisky, an enforced civilization, and a false use of the Bible. By whisky, I mean the introduction into such countries as China, Japan and the South Sea Islands, of the manufacture of rum and its insidious, fascinating and ruinous effects on the natives. By civilization, I mean the introduction of such methods as are wholly unnecessary to an already civilized people, such as a change in dress, fashions, and other hybrid social customs. By the Bible—and I would say nothing against the good book—I mean the introduction of cant by unprincipled hypocrites, whose only aim in attempting to spread the Gospel has been their personal gain.—Robert Mackay, in Success.

Dawgler's Name Has Many Syllables.

Tou-Hsi, the name of the Chinese empress dawgler, is not her full name, but merely an abbreviation. Among the numerous distinctions enjoyed by the extraordinary lady is that of possessor of the most lengthy nomenclature of any Chinese woman, as her true name runs to no less than 14 syllables. When she signs it in full, as she does on exceptional occasions, it reads: Tsou-Hsiyu - k'ang - yi - ch'ou - yn - ch'ung - ch'eng - shou - kun - ching - hsi - ch'ung.
