

The Dalles Daily Chronicle.

WEDNESDAY - - - DEC. 10, 1900

The tariff measure which the republicans adopted last winter for Porto Rico has so justified itself in practical operation that the Porto Ricans are eager to retain it. Scarcely any measure that was ever brought before congress was so bitterly assailed as this, not simply by democrats, whose opposition was to be expected, but by numerous influential republicans and leading republican papers. The Oregonian exhausted its vocabulary of invective in condemning it, and even the truly good Senator Simon deserted his party so far as to vote against it. What changes time brings! And how much better is some people's kind sight than their foresight! Now when the Taft commission is drafting a tariff law for the Philippines, on precisely similar lines, not a word of objection has been so much as breathed against it.

There is more truth than poetry in the following which we copy from the Baker City Democrat: There need be no complaint over the fact that Senator Simon is in Oregon attending to the job of electing a senator to succeed McBride instead of attending to his official duties in the senate. Mr. Simon, as senator, is a creature of his own creation; he is a self-made senator, having wrested the election at the close of the last legislature. He owes nothing to the people of the state, who would quickly turn him down if senators were elected by a direct vote of the people. His official conduct, therefore, becomes a matter of his own personal choice. To be in Washington if he so inclines, or to be in Oregon to help create another senator if his inclination runs otherwise. He is the Allah of all that goes on in republican politics in this state, and what he does is nobody's business.

The Oregonian pays The Dalles the following just and handsome compliment. Of course nothing is said about the city being as dark as hades the year round, nor that if we had more light we would probably have less money: "They have a kind of politics at The Dalles which is worth labeling. That enterprising city by some mysterious means has accumulated a sinking fund of several thousand dollars on which it gets higher interest than it pays for city bonds. Thus its debt helps to run the city government. The secret of the mystery is said not to be unattainable. If Portland has any embryo financiers, they might go to The Dalles for a course of development.

A Year Book announces that the United States has no men of conspicuous merit but has many able men. The able men, the plodders and well balanced individuals, appear to run the country about as well as some of the overmastering geniuses that set the old world on fire and call for help to extinguish the blaze.

Glorious News.
Comes from Dr. D. B. Cargile, of Washita, I. T. He writes: "Four bottles of Electric Bitters has cured Mrs. Brewer of scrofula, which had caused her great suffering for years. Terrible sores would break out on her head and face, and the best doctors could give no help; but her cure is complete and her health is excellent." This shows what thousands have proved,—that Electric Bitters is the best blood purifier known. It's the supreme remedy for eczema, tetter, salt rheum, ulcers, boils and running sores. It stimulates liver, kidneys and bowels, expels poisons, helps digestion and builds up the strength. Only 50 cents. Sold by Blakeley Druggist. Guaranteed.

NOTICE.
In future any and all inquiries relative to delinquent taxes must be made to the county clerk, as he is custodian of delinquent tax sale record and rolls. The sheriff having complied with the law in making sale of delinquent taxes, he is completely out of the tax-collecting business till March next. d10-1m*

Now is the time when croup and lung troubles prove rapidly fatal. The only harmless remedy that produces immediate results is one Minute Cough Cure. It is very pleasant to take and can be relied upon to quickly cure coughs, colds and all lung diseases. It will prevent consumption. Sold by Clarke & Falk's P. O. Pharmacy.

Dissolution of Partnership.
The partnership heretofore existing between A. M. Stringer and T. S. Kennerly, under the style of The Dalles Distillery Company, has this day been dissolved by mutual consent, A. M. Stringer retiring and T. S. Kennerly continuing the business and paying all debts and collecting all bills.

A Village Blacksmith Saved His Little Son's Life.

Mr. H. H. Black, the well-known blacksmith at Grahamsville, Sullivan Co., N. Y., says: "Our little son, five years old, has always been subject to croup, and so bad have the attacks been that we have feared many times that he would die. We have had the doctor and used many medicines, but Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is now our sole reliance. It seems to dissolve the tough mucus and by giving frequent doses when the croupy symptoms appear we have found that the dreaded croup is cured before it gets settled." There is no danger in giving this remedy for it contains no opium or other injurious drug and may be given as confidently to a babe as to an adult. For sale by Blakeley, the druggist.

Drying preparations simply develop dry catarrh; they dry up the secretions, which adhere to the membrane and decompose, causing a far more serious trouble than the ordinary form of catarrh. Avoid all drying inhalants, fumes, smokes and snuffs and use that which cleanses, soothes and heals. Ely's Cream Balm is such a remedy and will cure catarrh or cold in the head easily and pleasantly. A trial size will be mailed for 10 cents. All druggists sell the 50c. size, Ely Brothers, 56 Warren St., N. Y.

The Balm cures without pain, does not irritate or cause sneezing. It spreads itself over an irritated and angry surface, relieving immediately the painful inflammation. With Ely's Cream Balm you are armed against Nasal Catarrh and Hay Fever.

Many persons have had the experience of Mr. Peter Sherman, of North Stratford, N. H., who says, "For years I suffered torture from chronic indigestion, but Kodol Dyspepsia Cure made a well man of me." It digests what you eat, and is a certain cure for dyspepsia and every form of stomach trouble. It gives relief at once even in the worst cases, and can't help but do you good. Sold by Clarke & Falk's P. O. Pharmacy.

Of the product of this well-known brewery the United States Health Reports for June 28, 1900, says: "A more superior brew never entered the laboratory of the United States Health reports. It is absolutely devoid of the slightest trace of adulteration, but on the other hand is composed of the best of malt and choicest of hops. Its tonic qualities are of the highest and it can be used with the greatest benefit and satisfaction by old and young. Its use can conscientiously be prescribed by the physicians with the certainty that a better, purer or more wholesome beverage could not possibly be found."
