

Treaty and Amendment.

The provisions of the Hay-Pauncefote treaty affected by the Davis amendment are as follows:

Section 1. The canal shall be free and open in time of war, as in time of peace, to the vessels of commerce and of war of all nations, on terms of entire equality.

Section 2. The canal shall never be blockaded, nor shall any right of war be exercised, nor any act of hostility be committed within it.

Section 3. Vessels of war of a belligerent shall not revictual nor take any stores in the canal, except so far as may be strictly necessary, and the transit of such vessels through the canal be effected with the least possible delay.

Section 4.—No belligerents shall embark or disembark troops, munitions of war or warlike materials in the canal, except in case of accidental hindrance of the transit and in such case the transit shall be resumed with all possible dispatch.

Section 5. Vessels of war of a belligerent shall not remain in waters within three marine miles of either end of the canal longer than twenty-four hours.

The Davis amendment, adopted by the senate, is as follows: "Insert at the end of section 5 of article 2 the following: 'It is agreed, however, that none of the immediately foregoing conditions and stipulations in sections numbered 1, 2, 3, 4 and 5 of this article shall apply to measures which the United States may find it necessary to take for securing by its own forces the defense of the United States and the maintenance of public order.'"

This statement will make the matter plain to interested readers.

Glorious News.

Comes from Dr. D. B. Cargile, of Washita, I. T. He writes: "Four bottles of Electric Bitters has cured Mrs. Brewer of scrofula, which had caused her great suffering for years. Terrible sores would break out on her head and face, and the best doctors could give no help; but her cure is complete and her health is excellent."

This shows that thousands have proved,—that Electric Bitters is the best blood purifier known. It's the supreme remedy for eczema, tetter, salt rheum, ulcers, boils and running sores.
