

LOST CREEK LYRETS.

A bunch of bright fireflies from the columns of that bustling Journal.

Billy Byers has returned from his trip to Denver and hopes to be able to leave his bed in a day or two.

In the society department of a Denver paper we note that bustles are again coming in fashion. Old papers for sale at this office in bunches of any size.

Old Simon Buckley, who lost one eye from a blast in the Holy Moses mine a few weeks ago, came nightly near losing the other one in the Home hotel last Monday night. A woman, a hatpin and a keyhole figured in the incident.

At the marriage of Hank Cates and Ella Harding on Goose creek the other day the blushing bride passed a subscription paper to raise funds to erect a tombstone over the remains of her late husband. A good round sum was subscribed, and she hopes to now be able to pay due tribute to the memory of her recent loved one.

Cyrus Hand and Mary Somer came over from Methodist Mountain yesterday to be married, and Judge Jenkins tied the knot in the latest approved style. In the spirit of jealousy for which he is noted his honor whispered in the ear of the bride, just after bestowing the judicial kiss, that he had never spliced a Hand-Somer couple.

In the trial of a mining case in our justice's court last Wednesday a young sprig of the law from Denver, with enlarged ideas of the latitude to which attorneys are entitled in court, called Judge Jenkins a "pettifogging liar." A moment later he left the temple of justice with a head enlarged to more comfortably accommodate said ideas.

At the swa-ree given by Mrs. Jack Millet last Thursday evening in honor of her reconciliation with her divorced husband the hostess wore a mustard-colored gown that was pronounced to be the smartest thing in the frock line ever seen in this camp. Jack was not present, having been detained up-town celebrating the event with the boys.

Daisy Black, who ran away with a Denver drummer a few weeks ago, returned home last evening with nothing to show for her escapade but a tear-stained marriage certificate and a black eye. She will go to Cripple Creek next week and file an application for divorce, and expresses the sincere hope that the next fellow that gets the matrimonial drop on her may be a gentleman.

Hank Devlin, of Methodist Mountain, who was married last week to that dashing young widow from Denver, came over yesterday to see if he couldn't have Mrs. Devlin arrested for obtaining a husband under false pretenses. When ye Lyre man asked him for particulars of the crime he shut up like a startled clam and refused to talk, further than to throw out a vague hint that a woman should never be judged by the shape of the clothes she wears.—Denver Post.

"I have used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and find it to be a great medicine," says Mr. E. S. Phipps, of Poteau, Ark. "It cured me of bloody flux. I cannot speak too highly of it." This remedy always wins the good opinion, if not praise, of those who use it. The quick cures which it effects even in the most severe cases make it a favorite everywhere. For sale by Blakeley, the druggist.

To Whom It May Concern, It having come to my knowledge that parties, presumably interested, are claiming that when I sold out my retail interest at 173, Second street, French's block, I contracted to not open any retail business in the city of The Dalles, I beg to say that I sold my right not to open any retail business between Federal and Washington streets, on Second street, and have and intend to conform to my contract. My place at the Bank Cafe is in no sense in violation of the contract. C. J. STEBLING, dl-tf

Symptoms Caused by Anger.

A study of anger from experience in about 2,000 cases, collected from reliable observers, has been made by G. Stanley Hall. The causes were many and various, often being very trivial, and the physical sensations accompanying it differed greatly with the individual. Flushing was very general, although pallor was a characteristic in 27 per cent. of the cases. The heart beats were violent, several cases of death from rupture of this organ being reported, and there were sometimes peculiar sensations in mouth and throat, sometimes dizziness or faintness, frequently tears, and generally copious salivation, which might produce "frothing at the mouth." Common sounds were animal-like cries in children, oaths and threats in adults, while in many cases the throat was paralyzed, and there was inability to speak above a whisper, or without crying or trembling. Butting with the head, biting and scratching are noticeable in childish anger.—Stray Stories.

Cure for Morphine Habit.

Great interest has been aroused in medical circles in Germany, says a Berlin dispatch to the London Chronicle, by the discovery by Dr. Otto Emmerich, of Baden-Baden, of a specific against morphia poisoning and that peculiar form of disorder known in Germany as "morphinismus." The increasing use of morphia among a considerable section of society has been lately exciting much attention, and medical men have been unable to prescribe any efficient remedy. It is claimed for Dr. Emmerich's discovery that it has proved infallible in the numerous cases in which it has been applied. It is distilled vegetable oil of intense acidity, two or three drops of which are taken internally daily. After a cure, extending from three to six weeks, patients acquire an intense loathing for the use of the morphia needle.

For Nearly Two Years Unable to Lay in Bed

"In my capacity as druggist, in Buffalo, N. Y., I have the best opportunity to judge of the merits of many different remedies. I am in close touch with the sick, who come into my store for medicines, and most of them tell me how they are getting along. Of all the hundreds of preparations which I sell, not a single one begins to give as much satisfaction as Acker's English Remedy for Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Asthma, Pleurisy and Consumption. I sell it on a distinct guarantee that it will cure, or the purchaser's money will be returned. This is a perfectly safe guarantee, because the remedy does cure. Nobody wants his money returned. Its cures are nothing short of marvelous. Take the case of Mr. A. H. Gilbert, for instance. He lives at No. 5 Carey street, Buffalo, N. Y. For more than three years he had a bad case of asthma, and had been unable to lie down in bed for nearly two years. He came to my store and asked me what to do. I said: 'Take Acker's English Remedy.' He said he had tried other remedies and didn't think this would help him. But he thinks differently now. Three bottles fixed his asthma all right. He could sleep and eat after taking them, as well as when a boy. He was cured several months ago, and is well yet, so I am certain his trouble is gone for good. You can write to Mr. Gilbert himself, if you doubt my word. He will go further than me in praising Acker's English Remedy." (Signed) S. B. THORNE, druggist, Buffalo, N. Y.

Sold at 25c, 50c, and $1 a bottle, throughout the United States and Canada; and in England, at 1s, 2s, 3d, 4s, 6d. If you are not satisfied after buying, return the bottle to your druggist, and get your money back.

We authorize the above guarantee. W. H. HOOKER & CO., Proprietors, New York.
