Prevented by

CUTICURA SOAP.

MILLIONS use CUTICURA SOAP exclusively for preserving, purifying, and beautifying the skin, for cleansing the scalp of crusts, scales, and dandruff, and the stopping of falling hair, for softening, whitening, and soothing red, rough, and sore hands, in the form of baths for annoying irritations, inflammations, and chafings, or too free or offensive perspiration, in the form of washes, for ulcerative weaknesses, and for many sanative antiseptic purposes which readily suggest themselves to women, and especially to mothers, and for all the purposes of the toilet, bath, and nursery. No amount of persuasion can induce those who have once used it to use any other, especially for preserving and purifying the skin, scalp, and hair of infants and children. CUTICURA SOAP combines delicate emollient properties derived from CUTICURA, the great skin cure, with the purest of cleansing ingredients and the most refreshing of flower odors. No other medicated soap ever compounded is to be compared with it for preserving, purifying, and beautifying the skin, scalp, hair, and hands. No other foreign or domestic toilet soap, however expensive, is to be compared with it for all the purposes of the toilet, bath, and nursery. Thus it combines in ONE SOAP AT ONE PRICE, VIZ., TWENTY-FIVE CENTS, the BEST skin and complexion soap, BEST toilet and BEST baby soap in the world.

Complete External and Internal Treatment for Every Humor. Suppression of Vice.

CHICAGO, Dec. 28.—Keepers of 14 drives and gambling-houses were indicted by the grand jury today, as the result of the inquiry into crime and vice in Chicago. The work will be continued tomorrow. Of the 14 indictments, four were against alleged keepers of gambling-houses and 10 against proprietors basement and other resorts on the charge of conducting disorderly houses. One state senator and David Lewinson, ex city detective, were among those held by the first batch of indictments. Those indicted on the charge of keeping common gambling-houses are: State Senator John Broderick, Louis Frank and Julius Frank, Dennis Foley and A. Bernstein. It was asserted tonight that the voting of indictments against divekeepers is but the preliminary action toward returning true bills against a number of prominent municipal officers who are responsible for the enforcement of all laws and ordinances. Foreman McCoy, of the jury, had only this to say tonight: "The question of the liability of the police and other municipal officers was put over until tomorrow."

Want Protective Tariff.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 28.—The vast industrial forces of Germany are organizing for a tremendous struggle with the A. R. plan and coal interests, according to a report to the state department from United States Consul Schumann at Mainz. He says that the manufacturing interests of Germany surely will demand the passage of a protective tariff during the present session of the Reichstag. Three of the strongest industrial societies of Germany recently convened to organize a national council. The Imperial government apparently was in sympathy with the movement, and while the efforts so far have failed, they are not to be abandoned.

Maritime Congress Delegates.

SALEM, Or., Dec. 28.—Governor Geer has been invited to attend in person and appoint three delegates to represent this state at a National Maritime Congress to be held at Brunswick, Ga., January 30, 1901. The call for this congress was issued by Governor Chandler, of Georgia, who says: "Impressed with the importance of creating an interest in the maritime business of the United States, and a sentiment that may tend to restore its former prestige as a great carrying power, I have deemed it proper to issue a call for a National Maritime Congress, to assemble at Brunswick, Ga., January 30, 1901. In the interest, therefore, of patriotism and the commercial welfare of the citizens of the United States I trust the object of this call will receive that consideration from those who feel an interest in the promotion of the maritime greatness of our country, to which its importance entitles it."
