TO MAINTAIN OPEN DOOR

We Shall Endeavor to Secure Provision in Peking Treaty Guaranteeing the Principle.

NEW YORK, Jan. 3.—A special to the Herald from Washington says: In the commercial treaty to be negotiated by the powers with China, a provision will be inserted if this government can compass it, formally recognizing the principle of the "open door."

This important step will not be a surprise to the powers, all of which have expressed themselves as in favor of the preservation of the "open door," and it is believed that there will be no open opposition in the proposal when made. At the same time, it would not surprise the officials should some of the powers urge that each nation make an independent convention with the imperial government, thus securing opportunity to obtain special advantages. This danger has not been lost sight of by the administration, which will urge that but one treaty be made, and that in the nature of a reiteration of many important features of the old commercial conventions, with such additions, including the "open door" proposition, as may seem desirable.

In a dispatch received from Peking, Minister Conger expressed the opinion that the questions of the commercial relations of China and foreign powers and that of indemnity would be the most difficult to solve and most productive of delay. The Chinese envoys, he said, had stated that their government was able to guarantee compliance with the condition imposed in the preliminary agreement. Germany may raise the question whether the punishment of Boxer leaders is sufficiently severe, but this is not likely to interfere with the conclusion of the negotiations. Minister Conger takes a hopeful view of the situation, though he says he expects delay in the settlement of the indemnity and commercial treaty question.

Jews Will Not Buy Salmon.

NEW YORK, Jan. 3.—The Journal of Commerce says: It is stated in West Side canned-goods circles that the matter of discovering the author of the rumor or report recently published to the effect that coast packers of salmon were canning Louisiana catfish and branding it as salmon has been turned over for the consideration of the United States fish commission.

The rumor or report was taken seriously in certain East Side quarters, particularly among the Hebrews, who, because of their religion, which prohibits the eating of catfish, declined to buy salmon in many instances. This action resulted in some loss of trade to canned fish dealers here.

Catarrh Cannot Be Cured.

with local applications, as they cannot reach the seat of the disease. Catarrh is a blood or constitutional disease, and in order to cure it you must take internal remedies. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, and acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrh Cure is not a quack medicine. It was prescribed by one of the best physicians in this country for years, and is a regular prescription. It is composed of the best tonics known, combined with the best blood purifiers, acting directly on the mucous surfaces. The perfect combination of the two ingredients is what produces such wonderful results in curing Catarrh. Send for testimonials, free.

Would Stop Football. SANTA FE, N. M., Jan. 3.—Superintendent of Public Instruction M. C. DeBaca, in his annual report, makes a recommendation for the prohibition of the playing of football in the territorial institutions and the public schools. He regards the game as more brutal than prize-fighting. He has gathered statistics showing that last year fifteen boys were killed and 200 seriously injured in the United States while playing football.
