

NEW ATTRACTIONS AT OUR GREAT REDUCTION SALE.

This sale has proven to be one of the most successful ever undertaken by the house. The people that have crowded into our store the last few days goes to show that they appreciate real bargains. A good many customers have been disappointed on account of not having been waited upon promptly. The rush was beyond our expectations—our help did the best they could—we have employed more for our Dry Goods Department and are now in a better position than ever to look after your wants. There will be new attractions daily—come and see them. The store seems biggest in the mornings. Can you come then? But come when you can, we will see that your wants are attended to.

The Triumphant Success

of the first few days of our CLEARANCE SALE speaks wonders for the quality of our offerings. We start again today with increased energy, bound to make January, 1901, the greatest selling month in the history of our Clothing Department.

Dr. O. D. Doane moved his office today from the Chapman block to the rooms lately occupied by Dr. John Hudson in the Vogt block.

Be sure and purchase a pair of the lamb-knit saxony gloves. Just the thing for cold weather. For sale only by The New York Cash Store.

Phillip D. Armour, the great Chicago pork packer, died at his home in Chicago Sunday, January 6th. He had been in failing health for two years.

Men's lamb-knit saxony gloves, 50 and 88 cents at The New York Cash Store. These gloves are the correct thing for looks and comfort, and should be worn by every gentleman in the city.

In view of the announcement that the people of Seattle are going to take steps to purify the city, the Astoria News suggests that as a starter it might not be a bad idea to buy $4 worth of catechisms and distribute them among the enterprising liars who compile statistics for the sound city.

Tonight the regular installation of the officers of Friendship Lodge, No. 9, K. of P., will take place, Grand Chancellor W. L. Bradshaw installing officer. A full attendance of members is requested.

The newspapers will now, please, give Mrs. Mary Ellen Lease a rest. She has decided not to sue her husband for a divorce, to return to the bosom of her family, abandon politics and settle down to domestic life. The conciliation and reformation have been brought about by the efforts of her children.

Mrs. Olive F. Stephens, Grand Chief of Honor, has just returned from Wasco, where she organized a Degree of Honor lodge with 33 charter names. The members christened their new lodge the "Twentieth Century" D. of H. They have a fine corps of officers and are up to date in that thriving little city.

The oldest woman in Oregon is Mrs. Mary Ramsey-Wood, of Hillsboro. She was born in Knoxville, Tenn., May 29, 1789, and is therefore in her 112th year. Despite her advanced age, the old lady walks about the house spryly, sleeps well and says she is going to live until after another presidential election.

Hugh Jackson today closed a deal for the subcontract of the stage line connecting Mitchell with Canyon City, the one that bankrupted the last man that had it. Mr. Jackson, however, has got the line at a figure that he thinks will pay him to run it. He leaves for Mitchell tonight and will take charge of the line on the 15th.

A Washington dispatch says that Forest Fisher, late acting postmaster of The Dalles, has been placed on the rolls and assigned to the manufacturers' division, one of the most desirable divisions of the census office. Mr. Fisher is Representative Moody's second permanent census appointee.

Another being John F. Pipes, son of Justice Pipes, of Portland. Sheriff Kelly returned yesterday from Eugene bringing with him Fred W. Mathias, who was arrested there under a warrant issued out of Justice Brownhill's court charging him with cattle stealing. On being arraigned before Justice Brownhill this morning a plea of not guilty was entered and the prisoner was placed under bonds of $500. Mathias' father, who lives near Moro, has been sent for and the examination will not take place till his arrival.

The father of Edward Cudahy, while the son and his brothers were growing up, was an Irish common laborer in Milwaukee. Now this laborer's four sons, Michael, John, Patrick and Edward, are all millionaires and employ 6000 men in their business enterprises. This circumstance illustrates the opportunities this country affords to youth of thrift, enterprise, industry and brains.

A colony of Dunkards have purchased the townsite of Sunnyside in the Yakima valley and will settle there in the same manner as they have in North Dakota and other western states. The purpose, according to those who are the advance agents of the colony, is to found a settlement that will be noted in all parts of the West for its temperance, Christianity and educational institutions. In the beginning it is the intention to give homes to about one hundred, but within a year it is said the colony will increase to be one of the largest of its kind in the West.

The Dalles Chronicle does not like the senatorial and legislative apportionment of the state made by the last legislature, notwithstanding the fact that it created several districts extending clear to the California line and made them subject to the influence of the Chronicle's home county. Every senator and representative from the Columbia river to California and Nevada lines depends for his election on the vote of Wasco county. It is a great snap for The Dalles' interest, but the Chronicle's sense of justice does not allow it to be happy under such arrangement.—Salem Statesman.

Perhaps few of our people know, says the Agriculturist, that in Franklin county there is but one postoffice—Pasco—yet such is the fact. And the last census shows a population of but 485 people—a decrease in ten years of over 100. And, too, it is supposed that a portion of this 1900 enumeration, however, consists of transients who were stationed at Pasco as railroad men at the time the enumeration was made. In former days, when Pasco was aspiring for the state capital and real estate men were selling town lots at fabulous prices to the New York bankers, no one supposed that the census of 1900 would show a population of less than 100,000, but the wheels of fate turned the tide.

Columbia Lodge No. 5, I. O. O. F., held its semi-annual installation last Friday night, when F. H. Van Norden was installed N. G., O. L. Walther, V. G.; Paul K. Paulsen, sec'y; Simeon Bolton, treasurer; A. E. Lake, warden; Chas. E. McIntosh, conductor; G. O. Allen, I. G.; A. Burgeson, O. G.; E. Hostetter, R. S. N. G.; F. C. Sexton, L. S. N. G.; J. R. Rees, R. S. V. G.; T. E. Ward, L. S. V. G.; John E. Ferguson, R. S. S.; Chas. E. Hayward, L. S. S. The secretary's report showed that there had been 22 additions to the membership of the lodge during the past year. The lodge is in a most prosperous condition.

One of our principal sheep raisers tells a reporter of the News that several years ago the coyotes killed 1000 lambs in his band alone in one season. Last year a loss of twenty out of the same number was all they missed. This condition of affairs is due entirely to the scalp bounty law. Our legislators should make a note of this and act accordingly. The benefits Grant county derives in return for the thousands of dollars contributed to the state's revenue are very meager as compared with the western section, and we should demand, through our representatives, a continuation of the scalp bounty law which is being so bitterly opposed by some of the Multnomah legislators.—Grant County News.
