

NEW ATTRACTIONS

AT OUR GREAT REDUCTION SALE.

This sale has proven to be one of the most successful ever undertaken by the house. The people that have crowded into our store the last few days goes to show that they appreciate real bargains. A good many customers have been disappointed on account of not having been waited upon promptly. The rush was beyond our expectations—our help did the best they could—we have employed more for our Dry Goods Department and are now in a better position than ever to look after your wants. There will be new attractions daily—come and see them. The store seems biggest in the mornings. Can you come then? But come when you can, we will see that your wants are attended to.

The Triumphant Success of the first few days of our CLEARANCE SALE speaks wonders for the quality of our offerings. We start again today with increased energy, bound to make January, 1901, the greatest selling month in the history of our Clothing Department.

Eiderdown Jackets.

You know of the warmth and coziness of these Jackets; we still have a few left at 75c worth double.

HOSIERY.

These cold mornings there is nothing nicer than to slip ones' feet into a pair of wool or fleec-lined hose. Our values in a good many instances are less than half the regular price. Look at them when you enter our corner door. There are six or seven lots, all makes, some at 11c, 14c, 19c, 21c, 27c, 31c, worth up to 75c.

CORSETS.

A lady does not buy a corset every month in the year, but here is one she can afford to buy and throw it away and then have the best end of the bargain. Only small and large sizes left.

25c per pair.

Just think! steels are worth 15c.

TREASURER'S NOTICE.

All Wasco County warrants registered prior to September 1, 1897, will be paid on presentation at my office. Interest ceases after November 29, 1900.

JOHN F. HAMPSHIRE, County Treasurer.

WAYSIDE GLEANINGS.

The Fortnightly Club will meet with Mrs. George Blakeley tomorrow afternoon.

Saw Thurman is running the shooting gallery in the Schanno building, immediately east of A. M. Williams & Co.

County court met in regular session this morning. All the members are present and the docket is a very large one.

All officers-elect and members of Fern lodge, Degree of Honor, are requested to attend regular meeting tonight to prepare for joint installation of officers with Temple No. 3, A. O. U. W., tomorrow evening. By order of committee.

James Kelly, the tramp who was arrested Sunday night for stealing a valise from a Japanese lodger at the Cosmopolitan lodging house, and whose case was postponed by Justice Brownhill yesterday morning for lack of a Japanese interpreter, subsequently asked the sheriff to take him back to court, when he pleaded guilty and was fined $25, in default of which he will spend twelve and a half days in the county jail.

Night before last as a wagon load of young people of both sexes was on the way from this city to a dance at a farm house on Mill creek, and while crossing a lot in the neighborhood of West Tenth street the wagon was upset and the load of human freight hurled into an open ditch, injuring four of the young women, one of them quite seriously. The ditch and the road are both on private property, else probably somebody would be asked to pay a doctor's bill.

The local lodge of Modern Woodmen of America initiated ten new members last night. The little K. of P. hall was filled to the door with members, and the ceremonies did not end till midnight. At their close the wives and lady friends of the Woodmen broke into the room and did yeoman service in helping the brethren to dispose of an excellent supper. Dancing followed for an hour or two, during which the twinkling feet of the dancers kept time to the music of Louis Comin's "sweet potato."

Hon. T. H. McGreer, of Antelope, left this afternoon for Salem, after spending a couple of days in The Dalles. Mr. McGreer thinks it quite likely that a movement will be started before long to attach to Sherman county all that part of Wasco county lying south of Sherman and east of the Desolutes. He says a number of the taxpayers around Antelope are in favor of the movement. They say they don't see the necessity of having to travel all through Sherman county to get to the county seat. However, all that has been done in the matter as yet is a little talk among a few taxpayers which may all end in smoke.

James Ross and Barney Shultz, while prospecting on the north fork of the John Day a few weeks ago, discovered a large cave in the side of a mountain, about twenty-five miles above Dale, says the Ukiah Sentinel. They explored the cave a short distance, and it grew rapidly larger, with many side passages leading off from it. Owing to lack of torches they were unable to penetrate its dark recesses very far, but saw enough to convince them that the cave is something wonderful. The opening of the cave is almost large enough to admit a man on horseback. Who knows but the John Day country may have a rival to the world-renowned Mammoth Cave in Kentucky?

A great change has been noticed in Wasco county in the saving of the number of lambs and sheep from destruction by coyotes since two years ago, and since the bounty on coyote scalps has been increased, says The Dalles correspondent of the Telegram, through whose hands pass, probably, three-fourths of all the scalps handed in Wasco county. Not many sheep are now killed by the animals, and the result has been a great saving to sheepowners. The coyotes are about destroyed, and two more years of bounty would rid the county of the destructive animals. The first few months after the law went into effect many hundreds of scalps were presented at every term of the county court, but the number each time gradually decreased until now one-tenth as many are presented as before. The bounty has had a beneficial effect, and thousands of dollars' worth of property has been saved.

The funeral of Minnie Grosbier, which was to have taken place today at 2 p. m., has been postponed till tomorrow, Thursday, at the same hour. The friends of the dead girl were surprised this morning to find very little of the rigor mortis that is characteristic of dead bodies, while the fingers of the hand held in front of a lamp appeared red as the hand of a living person. It was concluded to postpone the funeral and await developments. Dr. Gensendorfer was called to examine the body this afternoon and he at once pronounced the girl to be dead beyond any manner of doubt. The flesh along the spine and the lower part of the body had already turned quite black. The funeral services will be held as previously announced, at the Lutheran church, and the procession will leave the house for the church at 2 o'clock p. m.

W. W. Little brought suit against John and Sadie Doyens yesterday in Justice Brownhill's court for the sum of $122 for damages which the plaintiff alleged he had sustained by reason of the unlawful detention of a lot of carpenter tools by the defendant. The parties to the suit are from the Wapinitia country and the testimony showed that the suit was the culmination of a sort of a family row. The plaintiff was represented by Moore & Gavin and the defendants by Condon & Condon and Ned Gates. A jury was demanded and a verdict of one dollar damages was returned about midnight. This leaves the defendants liable for the costs of court, which will amount to about $50. Other costs and expenses will foot up a total of about $150. The defendants could have settled without going into court for $70. Now they are out more than twice that sum and have nothing to show for it. Rather, perhaps, it should be said they have had the fun and the lawyers have got the money.

Apportionment of School Funds.

On the first Monday in January, 1901, the amount on hand was $9109.41; amount distributed $9011.90; surplus $97.51. Each district received $50 and the remainder was divided per capita.
