

HOW CHARLES W. BABCOCK

Proprietor Lyceum Shell Oyster Parlor, of Rochester, N. Y.
Obtained $2,000 Life Insurance Policy.

"My business as proprietor of the Lyceum Shell Oyster Parlor, 245 Main street, Rochester, N. Y.," writes Mr. Charles W. Babcock, "was so confining that my lungs became affected. My doctor told me I'd have to leave the store and go to work at something outdoors. He said my lungs were in bad shape, and I knew it just as well as he did. The trouble had been growing on me for a long time. Like most other people, I tried to make myself believe the trouble was not in the lungs. I called it stomach trouble or nervous disorder, but I kept coughing, spitting and wasting away right along. I lost in weight, falling from 140 to 115 pounds. Somehow or other, I got hold of Acker's English Remedy for Throat and Lung Troubles, and after taking it according to directions, I was as well as any man in New York State. I was healthier and stronger than before I took the cold which came so near killing me. I now weigh 150 pounds—ten pounds more than ever. After recovering, I applied for a life insurance policy. When the doctor began examining me, I was afraid he would discover that my lungs had once been affected, but he didn't. I passed all right, and was pronounced in a first-class condition. If that isn't proof of the most positive kind that Acker's English Remedy is a great medicine, I don't know what you call proof. I give it my warmest endorsement. My address is given above. Anyone who wishes may write me personally about my case."

Sold at 25c., 50c. and $1 a bottle, throughout the United States and Canada; and in England, at 1s. 2d., 2s. 3d., 4s. 6d. If you are not satisfied after buying, return the bottle to your druggist, and get your money back.

The Youth's Companion in 1901.

The ends of the earth have been laid under tribute for the 1901 volume of The Youth's Companion. Statesmen, diplomats, travelers, trappers, Indian fighters, cow-punchers and self-made men and women of many vocations are contributing every week to the entertainment of young and old in Companion homes. Among them are Theodore Roosevelt, who has written an article on "The Essence of Heroism." The secretary of the treasury has endeavored to answer the question "What is Money?" Frank T. Bullen, the old sailor who spins fascinating yarns of life at sea, has contributed a story. W. D. Howells has described the relations between "Young Contributors and Editors." Paul Leicester Ford has written about "The Man of the Dictionary"—Noah Webster. There is not space here to begin to tell of the good things already provided for readers of the new volume of The Youth's Companion—interesting, instructive, inspiring—from the pens of famous men and women. Illustrated Announcement of the current volume and sample copies of the paper sent free to any address.

THE YOUTH'S COMPANION, Boston, Mass.

G. A. R. and W. R. C. Installation.

The joint installation of the officers of the local G. A. R. post and W. R. C. at the K. of P. hall Saturday night had an attendance, notwithstanding the inclemency of the night, of nearly 150 persons. The proceedings commenced with a short program of song and recitation, at the close of which J. M. Patterson, on behalf of the G. A. R., and Mrs. Mary Myers, on behalf of the W. R. C., conducted the ceremonies of installation. The new officers of the post are R. L. Akin, Commander; W. R. Hopkins, S. V. Com.; Matthew Flock, J. V. Com.; H. C. Hansen, chaplain; J. J. Paddock, Q. M.; Lewis Johnson, O. of D.; John Fender, O. of G.; C. H. Brown, Adj.; T. P. Crum, S. M.

The new officers of the W. R. C. are: Ella Grimes, President; Ella Paddock, Sen. Vice; Josephine Forward, Jun. Vice; Eunice Johnson, Chaplain; Annie Nichols, Conductor; Belle Burger, Asst.; Jennie Akin, Guard; Livina Lemison, Asst.; Emma Ulrich, Second Color Bearer; Jessie McArthur, Third Color Bearer, and Florence Morton, Fourth Color Bearer.

At the close of the installation ceremonies the company sat down to a bountiful repast that was generously furnished by the ladies of the W. R. C.

The net proceeds of the evening, which goes to the relief of indigent old soldiers and their families, amounted to a little over $20.

Our Constant Growth.

The accuracy of a recent statement that Astoria people are dissatisfied with P. S. Tel. & Tel. Co.'s service is disproved by the fact that the company now holds forty-seven new contracts for which it cannot immediately furnish sets of instruments, so great is the demand for its service. The number of distinct stations within this company's net work of wires on the coast has grown from 69,170 in January, 1899, to 100,204 in January, 1901. This splendid growth is the net result of facility offered and high efficiency of service.

Nowhere in the land is a cheaper telephone service given than on the Pacific slope. The cost is uniform in all places, with the exception of one settlement in California where it is a trifle below that of The Dalles, and that, too, where opposition is unknown.

The company's policy is to render its service indispensable to the whole people and to conduct a large business on a small margin of profit.

Drying preparations simply develop dry catarrh; they dry up the secretions, which adhere to the membrane and decompose, causing a far more serious trouble than the ordinary form of catarrh. Avoid all drying inhalants, fumes, smokes and snuffs and use that which cleanses, soothes and heals. Ely's Cream Balm is such a remedy and will cure catarrh or cold in the head easily and pleasantly. A trial size will be mailed for 10 cents. All druggists sell the 50c. size. Ely Brothers, 56 Warren St., N. Y.

The Balm cures without pain, does not irritate or cause sneezing. It spreads itself over an irritated and angry surface, relieving immediately the painful inflammation. With Ely's Cream Balm you are armed against Nasal Catarrh and Hay Fever.

It digests what you eat and restores all the digestive organs to perfect health. Clarke & Falk's P. O. Pharmacy.
