

ANOTHER "BOMBSHELL" FROM OUR GREAT REDUCTION SALE.

The Great Event is meeting with such favorable response that we have decided to make a bigger cut than ever.

...And Still They Go Down...

Despite the unfriendly elements, the happy throng still crowds our place for "plums." They know—the people do—that our stokes are merciless and our cuts are deep. When we say "our goods are cheap," we don't mean "cheap goods." There's as much difference between the former and the latter as there is between "an ardent lover" and a "lover of the ardent."

The funeral of Mrs. C. G. Hanson, who died at St. Vincent's hospital in Portland on Jan. 12th, took place yesterday at 11 o'clock from the family residence in this city. Rev. D. V. Poling of the Congregational church officiated, and delivered a very impressive address. The floral offerings were very numerous and remarkably beautiful.

The Oregon republican presidential electors met at Salem yesterday and cast their four votes for William McKinley for president of the United States and four votes for Theodore Roosevelt for vice president. It is thought probable Messrs Fullerton, Paxton and Furnish may all decide to carry the vote to Washington, and thus divide the honors and expense account.

The late storm has played havoc with many public and private bridges. The Mill Creek bridge at the Sandoz ranch was washed down the creek and the banks of the stream cut away to such an extent that the timbers of the old bridge are too short to be replaced. The private bridge on the O. D. Taylor ranch was washed away, as was another on Judge Bennett's ranch. It is reported that all the bridges on Mosier creek have either been washed away or moved out of place.

The Antelope Republican says C. E. Lytle was in that town one day last week interviewing the people on a question of cutting loose from Wasco county and having all of Wasco county lying east of the Deschutes annexed to Sherman county. Mr. Lytle informed the Republican that he found very little opposition to the scheme and that a petition will be circulated in a day or two which, when signed, will be forwarded to our representatives at Salem for their action.

The steamer Regulator was hauled off The Dalles and Portland run yesterday afternoon and her place taken by the Reliance. The Regulator will be tied up at the dock of the Willamette Iron Works, where her new boiler will be placed in her. Her cabin will be renovated and her machinery generally overhauled. The boiler now in the Regulator has been disposed of to the Shaver Transportation Company, and is to be placed in the steamer No Wonder. The Reliance made her first trip here yesterday.

The Eugene Guard intimates that it was a Eugene young man who rented a bicycle to take a ride in the suburbs of that town. About four miles out the young man dismounted to rest, and while resting he noticed that there was no chain on his wheel. (It was a chainless). He became uneasy, and leaving the wheel at a farmhouse walked back a mile or two looking for the chain he thought he had lost. Being unable to find it he gave the farmer's son two dollars to haul himself and the wheel back to town.

Two well-known Dalles ladies were yesterday overheard discussing the fact of the honor done to Representative A. S. Roberts in electing him temporary chairman of the legislature. One of them remarked that she had no idea that Mr. Roberts was a man of such parliamentary ability as his election to the temporary speakership would indicate. "You didn't?" was the reply. "Why, my dear Mrs. Jones, I can assure you that the majority of the members of the legislature half believe that Albert Roberts is the author of Roberts' Rules of Order."

Another Veteran Gone.

The many friends of J. C. Miens were greatly shocked this morning on learning of his sudden death at 11:30 last night at his residence on the bluff, east of the academy.

He had been down town yesterday afternoon and after returning home had eaten a hearty supper and retired at the usual hour. A short time before the end came he complained to Mrs. Miens of a choking sensation in the chest. She applied some simple home remedy and telephoned for Dr. Geisendorffer, but before the physician arrived Mr. Miens had breathed his last.

John Corcoran Miens who born sixty years ago in Delhi, Delaware county, New York. At the breaking out of the rebellion he enlisted as a private in Company C, 144th New York Volunteers. He served with distinction till the close of the war, rising through the various grades to the rank of captain, a position which he held during the last year of his service. After leaving the army he came West and settled for a time in Nevada, moving from thence to California, and about fifteen years ago to Wasco county, and about eight years ago to The Dalles. He was married at Suisun, California, in 1872 to Mary Foster, who, with two children, Charles, a resident of Portland, and Mrs. Henry Ziegler, of this city, survives him.

The deceased was a strictly honorable man, a warm-hearted and kindly neighbor and a loyal and patriotic citizen. He was an honored member of the J. W. Nesmith Post, G. A. R., and had served the post for two years as adjutant.

The funeral will take place from the house tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock and the remains will be laid to rest in the G. A. R. cemetery.

Persons who suffer from indigestion can not expect to live long, because they cannot eat the food required to nourish the body and the products of the undigested foods they do eat poison the blood. It is important to cure indigestion as soon as possible, and the best method of doing this is to use the preparation known as Kolo! Dyspepsia Cure. It digests what you eat and restores all the digestive organs to perfect health. Clarke & Falk's P. O. Pharmacy.
