

ANOTHER "BOMBSHELL" FROM OUR GREAT REDUCTION SALE.

The Great Event is meeting with such favorable response that we have decided to make a bigger cut than ever.

...And Still They Go Down...

Despite the unfriendly elements, the happy throng still crowds our place for "plums." They know—the people do—that our stokes are merciless and our cuts are deep. When we say "our goods are cheap," we don't mean "cheap goods." There's as much difference between the former and the latter as there is between "an ardent lover" and a "lover of the ardent."

WAYSIDE GLEANINGS.

Football tomorrow afternoon. A grand ball in the evening.
An adjourned regular meeting of the city council will be held tonight at the recorder's office.
The high school will close Friday afternoon in time to give the pupils a chance to see the football game.
The best apples are bringing $1.50 per box in Portland; good four-tier are selling at $1.25 and fair apples at $1 and less.
Football practice at the grounds near Congressman Moody's residence at 7:30 this evening. All interested are expected to be there.
The American Sheep Breeder says there is little to warrant any expectation of better prices for wool for the next six or eight months.
The Antelope Republican says Trout creek was on a rampage last week and as a result ten head of calves belonging to A. J. Friday, of Cross Keys, were drowned.
Yesterday being calendar day, the ladies of the Congregational Aid Society were delightfully entertained by Mrs. E. M. Williams and Mrs. G. T. Parr at the home of the latter in the afternoon.
Burns Items comforts its readers these cold winter days as follows: "Don't growl because the weather is getting cold. You will not have to put up with it long. There is a place where it is hot all the time."
The Antelope Republican says: "Petitions are being circulated this week to have Antelope and Bake Oven precincts transferred from Wasco county to Sherman. The petitions are being numerously signed."

For ladies only. Special in corsets. A few left. Sizes 18 to 20; 24 to 27. Only 25 cents while they last. At the New York Cash Store.

Since the signatures were obtained to the petition to the business men to close their stores tomorrow while the football game is in progress, Manager Patterson, of the D. C. & A. C., has interviewed the proprietors of the meat markets and obtained their consent to close at the same time.

The funeral of the late J. C. Mions took place yesterday afternoon and was largely attended. A marked feature of the procession was the presence of a large number of G. A. R. veterans and comrades of the deceased. Rev. D. V. Poling conducted the services at the house and delivered an excellent and appropriate address. The services at the grave were conducted according to the ritual of the G. A. R.

The Burns Items says: "The following epistle was picked up on the street near the Items office a few days ago. The writer can have it by proving property and paying for space this notice occupies. It reads thus: "Dear Bill—The reason I didn't laff when you laffed at me yesterday in the postoffice was because I have a bile on my face and kaint laff. If I laff she'll bust. But I love you bill, bile or no bile, laff or no laff. Your luvin ——— till death."

At the East End feed yard this morning, while a gentleman named Larsen, brother of the junior partner of the firm of Foley Brothers & Larsen, railroad contractors, was about to mount his horse previous to leaving the yard, the animal reared up and fell back on Mr. Larsen, causing a compound, comminuted fracture of the right leg. The injury was temporarily attended to by Dr. Geisendorfer, and the man was taken this afternoon to St. Vincent's hospital.

There were 739 voting precincts in Oregon at the presidential election in November. McKinley carried 514, Bryan 209, there was a tie vote in 12, and 4 were not counted on account of irregularities. McKinley carried a majority of the precincts in all counties, except Baker, Harney, Jackson, Linn, Maheur and Union. The only county that gave a majority in every precinct to either candidate was Morrow. McKinley carried the 14 precincts. Multnomah county ranked next in this respect, giving McKinley a majority in 78 of the 80 precincts.

Mr. McCue has recently sold the Elite barber shop to Messrs. Moore & Crawford, of Portland. Mr. Moore is commonly and well known in Portland as foreman in the Marquam Grand barber shop, while Mr. Crawford has been foreman for S. H. Howard, on Alder street, for some time and needs no further recommendation. We understand that Mr. Crawford's family will be up in a few days, while Mr. Moore will remain in Portland till a good location can be obtained.

A. H. Curtiss, of the Diamond Flouring Mills, had the misfortune to break his collar bone yesterday. The accident occurred at Mr. Curtiss' home at Rockland. He was riding a horse to water bareback, and leading another, when the rope of the led horse set the ridden animal to kicking and Mr. Curtiss was thrown violently to the ground. The accident is not considered serious, although it is hard on a man of Mr. Curtiss' years, following as it did the accident of last fall at the flouring mill whereby Mr. Curtiss nearly lost his life.

Strange Robbery.

A package of contracts were stolen from Lorin J. Howard's private car on the road from Pendleton, causing the Katie Emmett Co., to lay over tonight in The Dalles. They will appear at the Baldwin opera house tonight in a new comedy, "3 Married Men." Lots of singing and dancing. 25 and 50c.

FOOTBALL NOTES.

This last game, Multnomah vs. D. C. & A. C., will cost the football boys nearly, if not quite, $75, and it is their desire to clear up expenses and, with the ball, to even up the old indebtedness occasioned by the New Year's game. Having secured the grounds upon which the game is to be played, and having made arrangements for police protection, they propose to collect admittance to the game. The O. R. & N. Co. has also very kindly assisted the football players, and "rubber-necks" without tickets will not be plentiful. This ought not to be necessary, but there are always little people at public gatherings, and, from previous experience, there are some in The Dalles.

Arthur Stubling, who will play guard in tomorrow's game, is expected up from Eugene today.

Practice will be the order at the grounds near Hon. M. A. Moody's residence this evening. The boys will meet at the club at 7:30, and proceed to work at once. All interested are requested to come out early. Every player is wanted on deck this evening.

It is hoped that our business men will not forget to decorate. Multnomah, red and white; D. C. & A. C., yellow and white. Kindly help the matter along.

The action of the business men in closing for tomorrow afternoon's game, from 2:30 to 4:30 is commendable. The boys feel that their efforts are appreciated. Certainly it is to the best interests of the town to thus recognize athletics.

Another Pioneer Gone.

John William Blakeney, a pioneer of 1852 and a resident of The Dalles since 1862, departed this life at 10 o'clock this morning, January 17th, aged 77 years, 7 months and 28 days. The cause of death was acute pneumonia. Mr. Blakeney had been ill only three days when the end came.

The deceased was born in Kentucky and when a mere child he moved with his parents to Vermillion county, Illinois, where he remained till he left for the far West in 1852. In 1844 he was married to Miss Nancy Phelps, who survives him. Eight years after their marriage the young couple crossed the plains by ox team and settled on the Cowlitz river, Washington, where they remained till 1862, when they moved to The Dalles where they have since resided. Nine children were born to them, three of whom died in infancy. The others are all residents of this state and are: Hugh T. and Decator Blakeney and Mrs. Mary A. Thompson, of Baker county, Jessie W. and James H. Blakeney of this city, and Mrs. E. J. McClure of Mosier.

During his long residence in this city, and until a few years ago when the infirmities of age compelled him to retire from active life, Mr. Blakeney had been engaged in teaming and draying. In the early days he ran freight teams between The Dalles and Canyon City, and for many years later did the principal dray work for The Dalles.

Mr. Blakeney was a generous, kind-hearted man, a kind and obliging neighbor and a good citizen.

The funeral will not take place sooner than Saturday, and probably not till Sunday. The time will be fixed to suit the arrival of the children at a distance and will be announced in THE CHRONICLE tomorrow.

Business Houses Close.

The following petition was circulated this morning, and appended are the names of those who agree to close for tomorrow's football game:

We, the undersigned, agree to close our respective places of business between the hours of 2:30 and 4:30 Friday afternoon, January 18th, in order to allow our employees to attend the last football game of the season between Multnomah and The Dalles:
