

ANOTHER "BOMBSHELL" FROM OUR GREAT REDUCTION SALE.

The Great Event is meeting with such favorable response that we have decided to make a bigger cut than ever.

...And Still They Go Down...

Despite the unfriendly elements, the happy throng still crowds our place for "plums." They know—the people do—that our stokes are merciless and our cuts are deep. When we say "our goods are cheap," we don't mean "cheap goods." There's as much difference between the former and the latter as there is between "an ardent lover" and a "lover of the ardent."

Rumor has it that F. C. Sexton and W. E. Walters have rented the Wingate brick store, in the East End, with the intention of opening out about the first of March with a stock of hardware.

Louis Fritz won the $15 cash prize in the final shoot-off at Sam Thurman's shooting gallery. It is understood that Sam's lease of the gallery has expired and that the place will be closed tonight.

R. E. Teague has in his show window a large antique oak eight-day clock, which he will give away to his customer, giving one chance on it to every purchaser of a dollar's worth of goods between this and the first of March.

A Cincinnati paper received replies from twenty-seven governors in regard to prize fighting, and only one—the governor of Nevada—states that he would allow the Jeffries-Ruhlin fight in his state if it cannot be pulled off in Cincinnati on February 15th.

From the Dufur Dispatch we learn that John W. and James Staats, of that place, left Thursday to try their fortunes in the Hawaiian Islands. They are both industrious and intelligent young men and have a host of friends who wish them success in their venture.

Dora Dean, the 14 year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. M. Dean, former residents of this city, died in Portland January 16th of diphtheria. We understand that she was just recovering from scarlet fever when she was attacked by the disease that carried her off in a few days.

Rev. D. V. Poling will preach in the Congregational church tomorrow morning. Subject, "A Form Without Life." As Mr. Poling has engaged to conduct the services at the funeral of the late John Blakeney, there will be no preaching in the evening. Young people's meeting at 6:30 p. m.

THE CHRONICLE has made arrangements with the publishers of the New York Tribune whereby we are able to offer the Weekly Tribune, which alone is $1.50 a year, and the twice-a-week CHRONICLE—both papers—for the price of one, namely $1.50 a year. By the same arrangement we can give the Tri-Weekly Tribune and the twice-a-week CHRONICLE—five papers a week—for $2. All subscriptions under these offers payable in advance.

After spending a couple of weeks in Portland, Murdock Finlayson, of Antelope, came back to The Dalles this noon and put up at the European House. When in Portland the doctors tried to locate the bullet in his shoulder with the aid of the X-rays, but with no marked success. They advised him to have the bullet extracted, and he will probably consent later on, but meanwhile thought he would come back here and rest a while.

Dr. Fred H. Wines, assistant director of the census, says that the forthcoming statistics will show that there has been no decay in religion in the United States during the last ten years. On the contrary, there has been an increase in the number of churches, in their membership, their wealth, the average attendance at public worship and in every other condition, which has not only kept pace with the increase of population, but with the progress of the country in every other direction. The people of the United States, he said, contrary to the popular impression, are going to church more regularly and are more liberal in their support of the gospel at home and abroad than they were ten years or twenty years ago.

Among recent deaths is that of ex-United States Senator James W. Bradbury, at his home in Augusta, Me., in the 99th year of his age. He was born in York county, Maine, the 10th of July, 1802, and was graduated at Bowdoin college in 1825. Among his college friends were Longfellow, Hawthorne and Franklin Pierce. He was elected in 1847 to the United States senate as a democrat, serving until 1853, when he declined a re-nomination. During his term he served as chairman of a select committee on French spoils. Upon retirement from public he resumed the practice of law, which he continued until about ten years ago. To the end of his days he retained his faculties and his interest in the affairs of the day. Among his political contemporaries were Webster, Clay, Calhoun and Jefferson Davis.

About 100 Knights of Pythias and their friends arrived here today to attend the First Annual Convention of District No. 4, Domain of Oregon, K. of P. There are delegates from Arlington, Wasco, Hood River, Cascade Locks, Centerville, Goldendale, Mitchell, Prineville and Portland. The convention met at 2:30 this afternoon in the K. of P. hall and was called to order by Mr. J. A. Douthit. The address of welcome was delivered by Hon. B. S. Huntington and responded to by Mr. V. C. Brock, of Wasco. Following came an address by Grand Chancellor W. L. Bradshaw, followed by short addresses by Past Grand Chancellor Hall, of New York and Grand Chief of the Rathbone Sisters Mrs. V. C. Brock. At the close of the addresses a half hour social session was announced in order to give the Knights an opportunity of getting acquainted with one another. At the close of the social session the Knights went into secret session. Tonight five candidates will be initiated into the second and third ranks. At 11 p. m. a banquet will be spread. It is believed there is work on hand to keep the convention occupied till three o'clock in the morning.

Visit of the Grand Guardian.

The Women of Woodcraft gave a banquet at Fraternity hall yesterday afternoon in honor of the grand guardian, Mrs. Van Orsdall, of Pendleton, and the grand attendant, Mrs. Helen Southwick, of Salem. The order of business was installation of Guardian Neighbor Mrs. Georgia Weber by the grand guardian.

The presentation of Circle pins to Misses Louise Rintoul and Maie Cushing and Mrs. Dawson was a surprise prepared by Cedar Circle to these efficient and faithful members.

The tables were laden with a delicious banquet, to which the two grand officers led the grand march until all were seated.

There were present visiting members from Prineville and Moro and Goldendale circles, who enjoyed a speech from the grand guardian and grand attendant. In the evening invited guests filled the hall to listen to the program and an address by Mrs. Van Orsdall, who is a splendid speaker, and who speaks entirely without notes. She told how the order has grown from seven members four years ago, to 20,000 today, and of over $146,000 having been paid in death benefits and $7,700 in monuments and funeral benefits in the last four years. The Women of Woodcraft ranks fifth in the benefit orders in point of growth in the same length of time. The Women of Woodcraft has grown more rapidly than any woman's benefit order.

Mrs. Van Orsdall went to Portland today, where a union meeting of the circles of the metropolis will be held, there being about 900 members in Portland. Mrs. Van Orsdall will address about 1200 people tonight on the order which she represents. She is a strong forcible speaker.
