THE DALLES, OR.

TWO NOTHINGS.

Great Game Between Multnomah and
D. C. & A. C. Ends in No Score.

Yesterday was truly a holiday and enthusiasm ran high, it being the occasion of the greatest football game of the season, that of Multnomah and The Dalles players, the latter representing our worthy club, the D. C. & A. C. It resulted in a tie, and at no time during the game was either goal menaced. It is another one of the fateful tie games that have pursued Multnomah this season.

The Dalles team was the strongest of the year. They knew that they were up against the best team that Multnomah could muster at this time, and were prepared for the battle of their lives. It was Multnomah's first team organization, so admitted by their captain, and the Dalles people have a right to feel that a tie game with such an aggregation is as good as a victory. Indeed, Davey, the famous full-back of the visitors, paid the home team a compliment by stating that Multnomah was lucky to have gotten through by not being scored against yesterday. It was a stronger team than the one that defeated All Seattle; it was not to be compared with the one that played Heppner last week.

Dalles, as usual, lost the toes and Multnomah chose the upper goal, while Dalles was left to defend the lower and muddy half of the field. Cooper kicked to Multnomah's 10-yard line. Multnomah caught and advanced the ball 30 yards.

The first two downs convinced Multnomah that the road to Dalles' goal line was neither through "Fatty" Brown nor Stubling, and the tackles, Starr and Spaulding, proved no weaker. They then tried the ends and found that that emergency had also been prepared for, and the Multnomah backs, in trying their end runs, usually found themselves in the loving embrace of either Scott or Ward. Dalles found also that they could make nothing around Multnomah's ends, and before the game was ten minutes old the spectators had given up the hope of seeing any brilliant end runs. Multnomah's line could, however, usually be penetrated and sometimes for some neat gains—seven and eight yards.

In the first half Dalles played a defensive game and when time was called the Multnomah men were convinced that they could not score.

When time was called for the second half Multnomah, knowing that they could not score, settled down to play a defensive game. To this plan, with the exception of a few fakes which were complete failures, they strictly adhered, kicking the ball several times on the first down. Dalles, on the other hand, was very aggressive and several times it seemed as though they were going through for a touch-down; but Multnomah would rally after 15 or 20 yards were made and compel Dalles to kick. This, fortunately for Multnomah, was Dalles' weakness, and had Cooper been able to duplicate Davey's kicks, we venture to say that the result would have been different.

And thus Dalles' fierce line-bucking served simply to keep playing even. It can be said, however, to the credit of Cooper, that he did not receive the support from his ends as did Davey; and Cooper's punts were carried back from 15 to 20 yards, while in Davey's the ball was usually downed where it was caught.

Davey entertained the Dalles people by his novel way of stopping line bucks, which, in a measure, was not greatly appreciated by the Dalles players. He had a rather unpleasant way of chucking the Dalles boys under the chin and raising their heads in a rather abrupt and uncivil way, which was not convenient to good walking. Football courtesies were occasionally exchanged, and Dalles, for undue familiarity on one occasion, was penalized ten yards. Stubling says he didn't do it. One of the Multnomah's players also had a rather familiar way of getting his hands tangled in Starr's golden locks, which induced a fistal affinity for his nose and the bonds were soon satisfied.

The game in every respect was a treat, and, though not so entertaining as the Thanksgiving game, was superior in every respect.

The Dalles team has made a wonderful improvement in its team work, and next season it is hoped that the people will show as loyal support as it has in the past.

Mr. J. E. Lilly, a prominent citizen of Hannibal, Mo., lately had a wonderful deliverance from a frightful death. In telling of it he says: "I was taken with Typhoid fever, that ran into Pneumonia. My lungs became hardened. I was so weak I couldn't even sit up in bed. Nothing helped me. I expected to soon die of Consumption, when I heard of Dr. King's New Discovery. One bottle gave great relief. I continued to use it, and now am well and strong. I can't say too much in its praise." This marvellous medicine is the surest and quickest cure in the world for all Throat and Lung Trouble. Regular sizes 50 cents and $1.00. Trial bottles free at Blakeley's drug store; every bottle guaranteed.

Drying preparations simply develop dry catarrh; they dry up the secretions, which adhere to the membrane and decompose, causing a far more serious trouble than the ordinary form of catarrh. Avoid all drying inhalants, fumes, smokes and snuffs and use that which cleanses, soothes and heals. Ely's Cream Balm is such a remedy and will cure catarrh or cold in the head easily and pleasantly. A trial size will be mailed for 10 cents. All druggists sell the 50c. size. Ely Brothers, 56 Warren St., N. Y. The Balm cures without pain, does not irritate or cause sneezing. It spreads itself over an irritated and angry surface, relieving immediately the painful inflammation. With Ely's Cream Balm you are armed against Nasal Catarrh and Hay Fever.
