LEGISLATIVE POTPOURRI.

Men and Measures at the State Capitol.

The addition of incurable insanity to the list of causes for which a divorce may be granted, is the object of house bill No. 7, introduced by Edson, of Washington. The courts have universally held that insanity is not a sufficient ground for divorce, and Representative Edson desires to change the law in this respect by legislative enactment. The courts are right. Edson's bill caters to inhumanity and ought to be defeated.

A few days ago Hon. John Hahn made the statement to a reporter of the Daily News that he would not vote for the election to the United States senate of any man who would attempt to use money to further his candidacy. Mr. Hahn will now have an opportunity of showing his sincerity. If he desires he can readily be furnished with evidence that two members of the legislature have been offered $2500 each for their assistance in sending the old men to the senate. The best of it is that the offer was made to each in the presence of the other, so there will be no chance to refute the testimony if it is presented.—Astoria News.

Senator Steiwer's new apportionment bill gives Wasco a representative of its own, which it has not under the present law, and gives us another representative jointly with Sherman county. Wasco and Sherman, as a joint senatorial district is not disturbed and we are cut off, it seems, from all connection with Crook, Klamath, Lake, Grant and Wheeler. This looks a good deal less like a gerrymander than the old law.

"What right has Mr. Corbett to ask a caucus?" asked an anti-Corbett man at Salem of an Oregonian reporter. "He defeated one in 1872. In 1897, by approving the hold-up of the legislature, he defeated the caucus which would have renominated John H. Mitchell. We believe that Mr. Corbett has not the slightest right to a caucus. Before asking for one he should prove to the legislature that the caucus has been his consistent policy in past senatorial elections. Is it fair for him to demand a caucus when it would elect him and defeat it when it would elect another man?"

Speaker Reeder is an enigma, says the Salem representative of the Oregonian. To all who inquire he says he has not made up his mind for whom to vote for senator. His name is on the call for the republican caucus, and the Corbett people say he is with them. McBride's friends say that Corbett stands no show of getting Reeder's vote. A federal officeholder said: "Reeder pulled the Corbett people's leg for the speakership, and pulled it hard. He will go into the caucus; but neither in the caucus, nor in the legislature, will he vote for Corbett." Another said: "Reeder is a particular friend of United States Marshal Zeth Houser, and is interested with him in mining properties in the John Day country. Reeder will never vote for a man that will deprive Zeth Houser of his job."

Mr. Corbett's flight is in the hands of Jonathan Bourne, ex-Speaker W. P. Keady and Graham Glass, Jr., as strong a term as ever fought for a cause in Oregon. They are organizers of the first order, and nothing gets away from them that is worth having, says the Oregonian.

Red Hot From the Gun

Was the ball that hit G. B. Steadman of Newark, Mich., in the Civil War. It caused horrible ulcers that no treatment helped for twenty years. Then Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured him. It cures cuts, bruises, burns, boils, felon, corns, skin eruptions. Best pile cure on earth. Twenty-five cents a box. Cure guaranteed. Sold by Blakeley, the druggist.

How to Cure Croup.

Mr. R. Gray, who lives near Amenia, Dutchess county, N. Y., says: "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the best medicine I have ever used. It is a fine children's remedy for croup and never fails to cure." When given as soon as the child becomes hoarse, or even after the croupy cough has developed, it will prevent the attack. This should be borne in mind and a bottle of the Cough Remedy kept at hand ready for instant use as soon as these symptoms appear. For sale by Blakeley, the druggist.

The Best Plaster.

A piece of flannel dampened with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and bound to the affected parts is superior to any plaster. When troubled with lame back or pains in the side or chest, give it a trial and you are certain to be more than pleased with the prompt relief which it affords. Pain Balm also cures rheumatism. One application gives relief. For sale by Blakeley, the druggist.

Among the tens of thousands who have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for colds and la grippe during the past few years, to our knowledge, not a single case has resulted in pneumonia. Thos. Whitfield & Co., 240 Wabash avenue, Chicago, one of the most prominent retail druggists in that city, in speaking of this, says: "We recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for la grippe in many cases, as it not only gives prompt and complete recovery, but also counteracts any tendency of la grippe to result in pneumonia." For sale by Blakeley, the druggist.

Persons who suffer from indigestion can not expect to live long, because they cannot eat the food required to nourish the body and the products of the undigested foods they do eat poison the blood. It is important to cure indigestion as soon as possible, and the best method of doing this is to use the preparation known as Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. It digests what you eat and restores all the digestive organs to perfect health. Clarke & Falk's P. O. Pharmacy.

Drying preparations simply develop dry catarrh; they dry up the secretions, which adhere to the membrane and decompose, causing a far more serious trouble than the ordinary form of catarrh. Avoid all drying inhalants, fumes, smokes and snuffs and use that which cleanses, soothes and heals. Ely's Cream Balm is such a remedy and will cure catarrh or cold in the head easily and pleasantly. A trial size will be mailed for 10 cents. All druggists sell the 50c. size. Ely Brothers, 56 Warren St., N. Y.

The Balm cures without pain, does not irritate or cause sneezing. It spreads itself over an irritated and angry surface, relieving immediately the painful inflammation. With Ely's Cream Balm you are armed against Nasal Catarrh and Hay Fever.

It Has Never Failed

Mr. C. S. Peaslee, the well-known druggist of Morgan City, La., is highly thought of in his neighborhood because of his skill and care in filling prescriptions. The best physicians in the place send their patients to his store whenever they can. Anytime which Mr. Peaslee may say can be depended upon absolutely. In a letter to W. H. Hooker & Co., New York City, proprietors of Acker's English Remedy, he says: "In all my many years' experience as a druggist I have never handled a medicine of any nature that gave such complete satisfaction as Acker's English Remedy for Throat and Lung Troubles. I have sold hundreds of bottles, and have yet to learn of a single case where it failed to cure. In croup it acts with a certainty that is really marvelous. My wife does not take much stock in medicine, but she has absolute faith in Acker's English Remedy, always having it at her elbow in case the children are attacked by croup at night. It is a positively harmless remedy, as I can personally testify. I know of a little girl who accidentally drank a whole bottle. She was, of course sick at her stomach for a short time, but the sickness passed away, and then the child was in better health than ever before. I can understand why Acker's English Remedy is so efficacious, because I am a druggist. It is not a mere expectorant, but a strengthening, invigorating tonic as well. While it heals the irritations of the mucous membrane, it also builds up the constitution and purifies the blood. I endorse it absolutely."

Sold at 25c., 50c. and $1 a bottle, throughout the United States and Canada; and in England, at 1s. 2d., 2s. 3d., 4s. 6d. If you are not satisfied after buying, return the bottle to your druggist, and get your money back.

We authorize the above guarantee. W. H. HOOKER & CO., Proprietors, New York.
