

DOINGS AT THE CAPITOL.

Opinions on the Senatorial Situation Are Mixed—Business Pushed Rapidly.

From our own correspondent.

SALEM, Jan. 23, 1901.

Salem has been a busy town for the past day or so. Its hotels and other places of accommodation are filled, and groups of people crowd the corridors and lobbies of hotels and capitol buildings discussing the latest phases of the senatorial situation.

In the failure of the republicans to reach a conclusion at the caucus last evening, some see defeat for the principal aspirants for senatorial honors, while others claim that such action simply means that members must fulfill their promises to friends and constituents, and that later they will vote for either Corbett or McBride. However, after a careful canvass, it is safe to say that they will not do so. The disposition of members to throw over the principals in the fight and elect some peace-loving citizen to the position is predominant, and is to be commended.

Aside from the senatorial situation, the session has been all that a progressive business man could ask. The business of the state is being conducted in a rapid way, yet it is being done well.

The labor organizations of Portland have quarters fitted up in Salem and will have delegates on the ground to look after their interests before the legislature.

Several measures now pending will, should they become laws, be important acts in Oregon's code. One of these especially, by Colvig, provides new rulings for railway corporations, chief among which is that portion relating to a reduction of fares on the lines of such roads in the state.

Another provides bicycle taxation in such a manner that the constitution will admit of the collection of the taxes. Probably the one making road taxes payable in money, and contracting all road work, will appeal most strongly to the average farmer.

The state house flags float at half mast today, mute emblems of our feelings toward England for her dead queen.

Concerning a Few of the Bills.

Senator Clem, of Linn county, has introduced a bill which, if enacted into a law, will strike at the vitals of the liquor traffic. His bill is short, but goes straight to the point in the following language:

"Any person who shall in any saloon, or place where liquors are sold, give or treat another to any drink or other quantity of spirituous, malt or vinous liquors with intent that the same shall be drunk or consumed by the person so treated, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not less than $10 nor more than $50, or by imprisonment in the county jail of the county where such offense is committed, not less than five nor more than twenty-five days.

This bill seems to have more merit than one. It will furnish a ready excuse for the man who does not want to treat—and also for the man who does not want to be treated, if there be such.

Senator Clem has another bill that is intended to discourage the drinking of liquors. It requires vendors of malt, spirituous or vinous liquors or keepers of any pool or billiard room or saloon to keep the windows and doors of their respective places of business unobstructed

He Tried a Sample Bottle

Nearly every day people come into drug stores and ask the Druggists to recommend some medicine for their trouble. Very often they refuse to do so because, as a rule, they do not believe it proper to advise anyone to take a patent medicine, which they do not know the ingredients of. It is the physician's business to prescribe. Some make an exception, however, when anyone has a cough, cold or throat and lung trouble. I always recommend Acker's English Remedy, because I know just what it will do. It has cured every case where I have seen it tried. It is the best expectorant and tonic I ever handled in my 14 years' experience. I will give just one instance of a gentleman who had been troubled for years with a nasty, hacking cough. I advised Acker's English Remedy. He tried a sample bottle, and was cured before he had taken half of it, at no cost whatever. This is an exceptional case, however, as it usually takes two or three bottles.

(Signed) A. B. Coon, Bellefontaine, Ohio. Sold at 25c. 50c and $1 a bottle, throughout the United States and Canada; and in England, at 2s. 6d., 5s. 6d. If you are not satisfied after buying, return the bottle to your druggist, and get your money back. We authorize the above guarantee. W. H. MOORE & CO., Proprietors, New York. For sale at Blakeley's Pharmacy.

HORSESHOERS' BILL AGAIN.

Representative McCracken has resurrected the horseshoers' bill that was passed at the last session of the legislature, but failed to become a law by reason of its failure to receive the approval of the governor. Governor Geer vetoed the bill upon the ground that it savored of class legislation, and as it applied only to counties of 50,000 population or over, would tend, if permitted to become a law, to drive all of the poor horseshoers out of Portland to prey upon the country. The governor believed that the smaller towns should receive the same protection against incompetent horseshoers that the bill sought to give Portland.

The bill introduced by McCracken is identical to that passed two years ago except that it is made applicable to every county of the state instead of Multnomah county alone. The bill provides for a board of examiners and requires all horseshoers to pass a satisfactory examination.

Nasal CATARRH

In all its stages there should be cleanliness. Ely's Cream Balm cleanses, soothes and heals the diseased membrane. It cures catarrh and drives away a cold in the head quickly. Cream Balm is placed into the nostrils, spreads over the membrane and is absorbed. Relief is immediate and a cure follows. It is not drying—does not produce sneezing. Large size, 50 cents by mail. ELY BROTHERS, 56 Warren Street, New York.

Drying preparations simply develop dry catarrh; they dry up the secretions, which adhere to the membrane and decompose, causing a far more serious trouble than the ordinary form of catarrh.

Avoid all drying inhalants, fumes, smokes and snuffs and use that which cleanses, soothes and heals. Ely's Cream Balm is such a remedy and will cure catarrh or cold in the head easily and pleasantly. A trial size will be mailed for 10 cents. All druggists sell the 50c. size. Ely Brothers, 56 Warren St., N. Y.

The Balm cures without pain, does not irritate or cause sneezing. It spreads itself over an irritated and angry surface, relieving immediately the painful inflammation. With Ely's Cream Balm you are armed against Nasal Catarrh and Hay Fever.

Clark & Falk's favoring extracts are the best. Ask your grocer for them.

For sprains, swellings and lameness there is nothing so good as Chamberlain's Pain Balm. Try it. For sale by Blakeley, the druggist.
