Justice is Done.
 KALAMA, Wash., Jan. 25.—The last act in the life and tragedy of Martin Stickle, the self-confessed murderer of three innocent and inoffensive people, was enacted at the Courthouse here today, according to the sentence pronounced by Judge Miller December 19.

The execution was conducted by Sheriff Huntington, assisted by ex-Sheriff Watson and J. M. Bush. All the principals were quite cool, and everything passed off as it should. The doomed man was brought to the scaffold at 9:50 by the Sheriff and Watson. When he mounted the scaffold he said:

"Gentlemen, I bid you all good-bye; may God help and bless you all!"

During this time the cap of death had been placed over his head by J. M. Bush, and the noose placed around his neck. He began to sing "Jesus, Lover of My Soul." When the signal was given the Sheriff sprung the trap, and death claimed its own. In just three minutes Dr. McLaren, Lovering and Bell pronounced life extinct. The drop was six and a half feet.

The body was delivered to the relatives who will bury it at Catlin tomorrow. Rev. Duane, of the M. E. church, will conduct the services, per request of Stickle.

Among the tens of thousands who have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for colds and la grippe during the past few years, to our knowledge, not a single case has resulted in pneumonia. Thos. Whitfield & Co., 240 Wabash avenue, Chicago, one of the most prominent retail druggists in that city, in speaking of this, says: "We recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for la grippe in many cases, as it not only gives prompt and complete recovery, but also counteracts any tendency of la grippe to result in pneumonia." For sale by Blakeley, the druggist.

Peaceful in Death.
 NEW YORK, Jan. 24.—A dispatch to the World from Cowes says: The wife of a workman on the Osborne estate, who was admitted to the death chamber at Osborne, gives the touchingly sincere view of the scene:

"What I had expected to see was a great gilded chamber, and I thought the bed would be more like a throne than a bed, with a lot of candles around and bishops praying. I was only there for a few minutes, and all the time I was looking at the form on the bed.

"I crept up to the bed and looked at the face. My thought was, how calm and happy. She looked like a person in a beautiful sleep. The face had over it a soft thin material, but you could look through and see it quite plain. What I read in the papers I should think right—I mean, that she passed away peacefully, without pain.

"At the bottom of the bed there were flowers, some wreathees and some loose ones. Her hands were folded across each other, and higher up there was a cross, I suppose of gold. Yes, I remember the rings had not been taken off the fingers."

Another eye witness said:

"It was like the figure of a child, not a woman so small and faded was it. I frequently saw the Queen here, year after year, and this season she seemed to shrink away. But I was not prepared for the transformation the last few days of severe illness and the change death had made. The face was almost emaciated, and had the pallor one expects to find. But the whole form seemed tiny.

"No one was allowed to stop, except to kneel, but the impression left was one of sublime peace and beauty, and of the vanity of human greatness.

"A veiled figure was kneeling by the bed on the opposite side from where I passed. It was Princess Beatrice, who could not be torn away from the room."

Persons who suffer from indigestion can not expect to live long, because they cannot eat the food required to nourish the body and the products of the undigested foods they do eat poison the blood. It is important to cure indigestion as soon as possible, and the best method of doing this is to use the preparation known as Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. It digests what you eat and restores all the digestive organs to perfect health. Clarke & Falk's P. O. Pharmacy.

The Best Plaster.
 A piece of flannel dampened with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and bound to the affected parts is superior to any plaster. When troubled with lame back or pains in the side or chest, give it a trial and you are certain to be more than pleased with the prompt relief which it affords. Pain Balm also cures rheumatism. One application gives relief. For sale by Blakeley, the druggist.

Baron Wilhelm Von Rothschild Dead.
 FRANKFORT, Jan. 25.—Baron Wilhelm von Rothschild, head of the banking firm of that name, died at noon today.

THE SALOONS ESCAPED

Mrs. Nation Made No Attempt to Wreck Those at Hope—Temperance People Did Not Meet Her.

KANSAS CITY, Jan. 25.—A special to the Star, from Hope, Kan., says: Mrs. Carrie Nation arrived here at midnight from Enterprise, determined to attack the two saloons in Hope as she had those at Wichita and Enterprise, but no committee of temperance workers met her, and this morning she said she had made up her mind not to damage the saloons here because she was alone. She refused to eat her breakfast because she feared she would be poisoned, and, instead, talked temperance to a crowd that had gathered in front of the hotel. At 10 o'clock she took a train for Ottawa, saying she would visit friends there and rest a few days. Her last injunction was: "Don't put too much stress on my resting too long."

In the crowd that swarmed about Mrs. Nation in Hope were the proprietors of the two saloons here. When she started for the depot, they escorted her to the train, one on each arm, the crowd cheering.

When Mrs. Nation left Enterprise last night a big crowd followed her to the depot, hooting and throwing eggs at her. On the train en route from Enterprise to Hope, Mrs. Nation talked enthusiastically to a reporter. A crowd of W. C. T. U. women, among them Mrs. Hoffman, the local worker who took part in Wednesday's raid and yesterday's street fight, saw her off at the depot.

"Good-bye, Mrs. Hoffman," she cried as the train started. "Keep up the good work; don't let them open the rum holes again."

She sat down alone in the coach and began examining her dress, smeared with eggs.

"I always thank God for the favors he does," she said to the reporter, and when asked what feature of the demonstration she was thankful for, responded promptly: "That the eggs were not rotten."

Mrs. Nation began to talk and laugh as gaily as if nothing had happened. She had been coal and collected during all of her exciting experiences, both at Wichita and Enterprise, always meeting the sallies of the crowd that hooted or pelted with stones, with prayer or an exhortation on temperance.

"Are you not afraid?" the reporter asked.

"No, sir, not a bit," she snapped, defiantly. "I'm doing God's work."

Her coolness seemed more remarkable because of the fact that she had been given warning that a mob awaited her arrival at Hope.

"You'll surely meet with serious mishap, perhaps be killed, if you keep this up," continued the reporter.

"I know it; I know how it will end, but when God is ready for me to die I am ready to go. I do not want to die yet; there is too much good work for me to do."

Mrs. Nation went on to talk of her mission.

"We've been watching our sons go to ruin and death through whiskey for years. We've been praying and waiting for the laws to be enforced and the traffic stopped. We've decided to wait no longer for men to act. If the W. C. T. U. had started out twenty-five years ago with prayers and songs and hatchets, there would not be a saloon in the country today. A saloon-keeper, to me, is same as the man who cuts another's throat for his money.

"My object in smashing saloons," continued Mrs. Nation, "is to stiffen the backbone of the women against the rum traffic and set the men the example of the only way the traffic can be stopped. I will organize them into a society of saloon wreckers. If a saloon opens in a town, the women there, if they have not the backbone essential themselves to wreck it, will send for me, I will send for my aides in different towns. We will give women of bravery, and we will go there and break up the saloon, and keep it broken up.

"After we have stamped it out in Kansas we will go to Missouri and keep on going. I have letters from all parts of the country, asking me to come. I hold that under the constitution of the United States a saloon cannot legally exist any place in this country."

Catarrh Cannot Be Cured.
 with local applications, as they cannot reach the seat of the disease. Catarrh is a blood or constitutional disease, and in order to cure it you must take internal remedies. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, and acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrh Cure is not a quack medicine. It was prescribed by one of the best physicians in this country for years, and is a regular prescription. It is composed of the best tonics known, combined with the best blood purifiers, acting directly on the mucous surfaces. The perfect combination of the two ingredients is what produces such wonderful results in curing Catarrh. Send for testimonials, free.

Had Plunder in Hollow Bibles.
 CHICAGO, Jan. 25.—With the plunder of a score of burglaries hidden in hollow bibles and other books, Charles Ohman, a milkman, was detected and arrested last night. The thefts cover a period of three months, and were committed when Ohman was delivering milk in the early hours of the morning. The books in which the plunder was found had each been reduced to a shell by cutting away the inner part of the leaves. In the supposed books were found money, watches, chains, gold rings, number of pairs of cuff buttons and other articles of jewelry.

Brave Men Fall
 Victims to stomach, liver and kidney troubles as well as women, and all feel the results in loss of appetite, poisons in the blood, backache, nervousness, headache and tired, listless, run-down feeling. But there's no need to feel like that. Listen to J. W. Gardner, Idaville, Ind. He says: "Electric Bitters are just the thing for a man when he is all run down, and don't care whether he lives or dies. It did more to give me new strength and good appetite than anything I could take. I can now eat anything and have a new lease on life." Only 50 cents, at Blakeley's drug store. Every bottle guaranteed. 3

Southern California.
 Notable among the pleasures afforded by the Shasta Route is the winter trip to Southern California and Arizona. Renewed acquaintance with this section will ever develop fresh points of interest added sources of enjoyment, under its sunny skies, in the variety of its industries, in its prolific vegetation and among its numberless resorts of mountain, shore, valley and plain.

The two daily Shasta trains from Portland to California have been recently equipped with the most approved pattern of standard and tourist sleeping cars, but the low rates of fare will still continue in effect.

Illustrated guides to the winter resorts of California and Arizona may be had on application to
