WAYSIDE CLEANINGS.

You cannot tell what's going on in this town unless you take THE CHRONICLE.

Lost—A small gold wire band ring, diamond setting. Finder please return to this office for reward. 2t

A marriage license was issued this afternoon to Price Hunter, of Mosier, and Eliza Rogers, of Hood River.

Wanted—A place to do light housework and plain cooking by a young woman. Apply at Mrs. Britain's. 2t

Slate has been discovered in Gilliam county by Sherman county prospectors, and it is said that there is millions in it.

Mrs. Nellie Wand has been confined to her bed since Sunday with nervous prostration. She is somewhat better today.

Complete life of Queen Victoria. Best book. Best terms. Outfit mailed on receipt of 15 cents. Address S. C. Miller & Co., Portland, Or. In-thur-sat 6t

This from the Skamania Pioneer is probably intended for sarcasm: "The Reliance still makes her weary way up and down the river, stopping at blacksmith shops here and there for repairs."

A remonstrance against the division of the county and the annexation of the Antelope and Bakroven precincts to Sherman county was circulated in Dufur during the week and received some signatures.

There is a small tempest brewing in the Shaniko-Antelope teapot. In response to the complaint of the Antelope Republican against high freight charges by the Columbia Southern and a call for the freight teams of anti-railroad days, the freight agent at Shaniko discourteously sends word to the editor, who is of German nativity, that special rates will be given him on sauer kraut and Limburger cheese.

The Antelope Republican says: "It seems to be the prevailing opinion in Antelope that there will be no division or annexation of counties at this session of the legislature, still it is hard to tell what may happen."

Next Wednesday morning, January 30th, Miss Taylor will re-open her Kindergarten, and will be glad to receive all former pupils, as well as new ones. The room has been arranged in a most attractive manner for the children.

According to the Dufur Dispatch small bets of cigars and the like are being made by the Dufurites on the senatorial contest, the democrats backing Corbett's sack against the field and the republicans taking all the bets offered.

Albert Kayser, the well-known merchant of Blockhouse, Klickitat county, died after a protracted illness at his home last Tuesday and was buried in the Spring Creek cemetery, near by, the following day. Mr. Kayser had been a resident of Klickitat county for over twenty years.

Sometime early this morning while a Japanese was crossing a trestle on the Columbia Southern railway he was overtaken by a freight train that knocked him off the trestle and left him with a badly cracked skull. He was brought here and had his injuries temporarily attended to by Dr. Geisendorfer, when he was taken on to St. Vincent's hospital.

In justice to the Belgian hares we publish the following from the Heppner Gazette: "Although reports from all over the coast speak of the Belgian hare being condemned as a nuisance, the fact remains that its meat is choice and good. Sudge Keithley has in Heppner quite a bunch of Belgian hares, of which he takes most excellent care. He feeds them grain and vegetables, and lays on their fat judiciously and systematically. Those who have ate of their meat say it is as nice as grouse, and at table every plate is returned for a second helping."

Mrs. Kate Hogan, wife of John Hogan, a rancher living a short distance east of town, died at St. Vincent's hospital yesterday, January 25th, after having submitted the day before to an operation for some internal trouble. The deceased was born in Ireland 52 years ago and has lived in the vicinity of The Dalles for the past twenty years. She leaves a husband, one son and one daughter. The remains were brought here from Portland today and will be interred Monday at an hour not fixed at the time of going to press.

"It is a woman's privilege to be courted," writes Margaret E. Sangster in the February Ladies Home Journal. "Therefore the man sends the valentine, not the girl. Thoughtless and silly girls sometimes overlook this fact that they are to be sought and never do the seeking, and an old observer sees with pain that they employ little arts to attract the other sex; that, save the mark, they behave, here and there, as if everything they could do should be done to gain the approving notice of the opposite sex. This creates a false position and is always cheapening to a girl, not only in the eyes of others, but also in time, when the awakening comes, it is degrading to her self-respect."

The Dalles has a well-defined case of smallpox in the case of Jack Allison, a locomotive engineer of the O. R. & N. Co. Mr. Allison has been confined to his bed since Sunday; but the symptoms had not till yesterday developed sufficiently to enable the attending physicians to pronounce on them with absolute certainty. The report of the presence of smallpox in the very heart of the city has created considerable commotion and much uneasiness. Dr. Logan, however, desires THE CHRONICLE to say that in the early stages of this disease the danger of catching it by contagion is not very great; but he insists that all persons who have visited the patient during his present illness should be vaccinated. Even at the worst there is no occasion for alarm if everybody not immune is at once vaccinated. The physicians say that in Mr. Allison's case the indications point to a mild attack. There is hardly any doubt that Mr. Allison contracted the disease in Heppner as he has been running into that town of late. The citizens of The Dalles may be well assured that the city council will do everything in their power to prevent the disease from spreading.

Process was served upon Ned H. Gates, as city recorder, yesterday evening by Deputy Sheriff Woods in an action against Dalles City for an alleged injury to Rev. Paul G. Kruger, caused by a defective crosswalk. The complaint in substance alleges that on the 16th day of November, 1900, the plaintiff was lawfully traveling on the sidewalk on Court street, and was wholly unaware of an alleged danger, and accidentally and without negligence on his part, stepped his right foot into a triangular hole in the crosswalk, 25x5 inches, and was thrown down with great force upon the crosswalk, receiving great bodily injuries, suffering concussion of the brain, and was rendered unconscious for a number of hours, his right ankle being severely bruised and sprained, and he was made sore and sick; that he was kept in bed and detained from any kind of work for ten weeks; that he suffered pain during all of the ten weeks, and that he was to an expense of $140 as the result of the injuries, and that he is permanently injured. He asks damages in the same of $3,640.

PEOPLE COMING AND GOING.

Mrs. Thornbury, who has been visiting with her daughter, Mrs. Knersly, during her recent illness, left for her home in Portland this morning.

Miss Christine Phirman left today on a visit to friends in Rosalia, Wash. She was accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Beiat, and Mrs. Beiat's little daughter.
