

Only Four More Days OF THE GREAT REDUCTION SALE!

We wish to call your attention to the fact that the remaining few days of the sale will see us crowded. Every article in the house is still reduced, as at the beginning. We haven't so much stuff to show you, but during inventory we have dug out some stunning bargains that are worth looking after.

In the DRY GOODS DEPARTMENT there are hundreds of bargains staring at you at every turn you make. The same can be said of the Shoe Department, during inventory the odd pairs have not been left behind by any means, so the shoe man has lots of odd bargains left—at odd prices too—and can fit odd feet to perfection.

In the MEN'S FURNISHING DEPARTMENT we have placed on our counters during this sale a line of Men's and Boys' Sweaters in navy blue, black and maroon, to be closed out at 49 cents. See windows.

Charley Hunt, an old-time resident of this city and a veteran of the civil war, has been very ill for some weeks and grave apprehensions are entertained of his recovery.

Van Woodruff and son, of Wapinitia, brought to town Saturday 70 head of fat hogs which they sold to the Columbia Packing Company at 5 cents a pound gross. The animals averaged 257 pounds each.

The O. K. barber shop is now running three chairs with three first-class barbers. Patrons of the shop will thus be assured of quick attention and prompt and satisfactory service. J. R. Rees, proprietor.

The proposed annexation of Antelope and Bakesoven precincts to Sherman county has died a bornin'. The Antelope Herald says it has received word from Salem that the scheme has been abandoned.

Next Wednesday morning, January 30th, Miss Taylor will re-open her Kindergarten, and will be glad to receive all former pupils, as well as new ones. The room has been arranged in a most attractive manner for the children.

Men are employed at the St. Charles hot springs, two miles above Stevenson, on the Washington side of the Columbia, clearing ground for a hotel site and sinking a well to a depth where water can be had of a temperature of 108 to 120 degrees. An engine and boiler and pump are already on the grounds. It is the intention to pump the hot water into the hotel. Besides the hotel, the owners will have a spacious camp ground laid out for the accommodation of campers and will pipe water to it from a fine mountain stream.

Sam Bennett, of Tygh, has, by his attorneys, Bennett & Sinnott, filed a complaint in the circuit court asking a divorce from his wife, Susie Bennett, on the ground of desertion.

A defective brick fire caused a fire at the T. A. Hudson residence about 8 o'clock last night that was only quenched after a half-hour's hard work on the part of Mr. and Mrs. Hudson. The loss is about $100, which is fully covered by insurance.

While a late shipment of shoes was on the way from the East to H. Herbring, of this city, the car in which they were shipped was broken into at Umatilla Junction and 47 pair of the shoes abstracted. The paper boxes were found at some distance from the station, but no trace has been found of the thieves.

At the Congregational church last night Rev. D. V. Poling paid a just and affectionate tribute to the dead Queen of England in a sermon that was listened to with intense interest by a large congregation. An interesting feature of the service was the singing of "America," the congregation, at the request of the pastor, rising to their feet and joining in the song "in memory of the dead queen."

Articles of incorporation of the Wasco Warehouse Milling Company were filed today in the office of the county clerk. The incorporators are D. M. French, E. O. McCoy, Smith French, B. F. Laughlin, J. W. French, Frank Seufert, W. Lord and J. C. Yager. The capital stock of the corporation is $150,000, divided into shares of $100 each.

Our Salem special correspondent, in a communication published elsewhere, says the "followers of Corbett say they are pledged to their constituents to oppose the election of McBride." We doubt if this is true to any considerable extent, but true or false, it is beside the point. The question is, Did their constituents pledge them to vote for the man who was responsible for the legislative hold-up of 1897. The CHRONICLE believes it knows the sentiment of the people of this and allied counties, and it has no hesitation in saying that while we asked no pledge of our candidates for the legislature, few, if any, of them would have been elected if it had been known that they would support Corbett. Even in Corbett's home county so deadly opposed were the republicans to his election that after he had, according to common report, dictated the nomination of legislative candidates who were all favorable to his election, the opposition nominated a new set and wiped the earth with the Corbett men. This in a county that five months after gave William McKinley a majority of 5512, pretty clearly indicates how much Corbett's candidacy is favored by the rank and file of his republican neighbors.

The new Calvary Baptist church was dedicated yesterday in presence of a large congregation. The dedicatory sermon was delivered by Rev. Ray Palmer, of Portland, and was an earnest, practical discourse. At the close of the sermon and before the dedicatory prayer, Rev. George A. Varney stated that the edifice had been erected at a cost of $2,508.07. That towards this amount the members of the church, who numbered only about forty persons, none of whom were at all wealthy, had, with a little assistance from the outside, contributed the sum of $1,349.82, besides $304 in labor. The minister said he had seen many church buildings erected through the self-sacrifice of Christian men and women, but that of the brothers and sisters of the Calvary church was without a parallel. But a debt of $804.25 still remained, and as it was not the custom of Baptists to dedicate houses of worship until they were clear of debt, if it were at all possible to clear them, an earnest appeal was made to the congregation to raise a sufficient sum to wipe out the indebtedness. The congregation responded nobly, and in a few minutes pledges were given to the amount of $585, leaving a trifling balance of $219.25, which was further reduced at the night service to $181.85.

SENATORIAL VOTE UNCHANGED

A Message From the King of England to Our Legislature

Special to THE CHRONICLE] SALEM, Jan. 28.—The legislature this morning received a message from the King of England thanking that body for the resolutions of condolence on the death of Queen Victoria.

Both houses assembled this morning at 11 o'clock and rushed routine work for an hour. The legislature met in joint assembly at high noon and balloted for senator with the following result: Corbett, 29; McBride, 18; Smith, 24; Hermann, 6; scattering, 6; absent, 2; not voting, 1. Both houses adjourned to 2:30 p. m.

"The Angel of the Alley."

Theater-goers will have an opportunity of seeing the latest success of Sullivan and Harris Tuesday evening, February 5th, at the Vogt opera house when they will produce their great melodrama "The Angel of the Alley." A very exciting story of New York life is this new play and the characters depicted are those found in a certain quarter of town which for years has made much trouble for the police. The play deals with the adventures of a young army officer who is lured to an underground gambling resort in this part of town and who becomes involved in a murder and numerous adventures attendant upon it. The heroine of the story is a beautiful woman, who by her good work among the poor of the locality is known as "The Angel of the Alley." Through her efforts the young officer is cleared of all charges against him and the culprits are brought to justice.

Miss Vera Hamilton is the leading woman in this new production and has gained flattering attention from the critics for her admirable work in interpreting a difficult role. The cast is a strong one and each artist was specially engaged for his or her respective role in this play. The stage-settings are triumphs of the famous artists, Harley Merry & Sons. Streets and alleys of New York are represented with startling accuracy, and an elaborate view of Sing Sing and the famous death cell is also given.

Double Birthday Party.

On Saturday night the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Barnett was the scene of a most enjoyable surprise. That day being the birthday anniversary of both Mr. M. Randall and Mr. J. E. Barnett, they had decided to spend a quiet evening together in social chat. Others, however, had decided differently, and about 8 o'clock there was a loud ring of the door bell. Mr. Barnett hastened to open the door, when to about thirty jolly neighbors came flocking in. A very pleasant evening was spent in conversation and games, ending with a bountiful lunch.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. and Miss Edie Fisher, Mrs. L. Chrisman, Mrs. Wm. Michell, Dr. and Mrs. Eshelman, Mr. and Mrs. Fleming, Mr. and Mrs. Groat, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Walters, Mr. and Mrs. and Miss Connie Wheelton, Mr. and Mrs. and Miss Myrtle Rorden, Mrs. and Miss Maude Kirby, Mr. and Mrs. Egle, Mr. and Mrs. H. Clough, Mrs. and Miss Pearl and Roy Grimes, Mrs. H. L. Jones, Mr. B. E. Barnett, Mr. and Mrs. and Miss Edith Randall.
