

Her Husband's Story

"My name is E. J. Sprong, and my address is 16 Bondman Block, Troy, N. Y. I want to tell how thankful I am that my wife's health has been restored to her. About a year ago she caught a dreadful cold, which settled in her bronchial tubes and lungs. She certainly had bronchitis, and I think consumption, too, and we despaired of her life. She had a tightness and soreness in the chest, and it was difficult for her to breathe. There were darting, sharp, dull and heavy pains, with constant coughing and expectorating. Each day she was worse than the day before. I was advised to get Acker's English Remedy, and did so, but my wife only shook her head and said: 'Another dollar thrown away.' She took the Remedy, however, and said the effect was magical. In less than an hour there was a remarkable change. She got better at once, and in a short time she was entirely well and strong again. The cure was permanent and there has been no relapse. I don't know what Acker's English Remedy is made of, but I am sure it contains something that fortifies the system against future attacks. My wife is in better general health now than ever, and you can't imagine how happy she is for her recovery. She tells everybody about Acker's English Remedy, and so do I, for I believe it to be our duty to the public to help every sufferer who has throat and lung troubles. My neighbors say it is a sure specific for croup, and has saved the lives of hundreds of little ones around in this vicinity alone."

Sold at 25c., 50c. and $1 a bottle, throughout the United States and Canada; and in England, at 1s. 2d., 2s. 3d., 4s. 6d. If you are not satisfied after buying, return the bottle to your druggist, and get your money back.

State House Gossip.

SALEM, Jan. 26, 1901.

The legislative session is now on- third gone, and no senator has been named, and from present indications none will be named for some time to come. The caucus call, which has been issued by the majority of the republicans, while not naming Corbett as the choice of the caucus, shows a tendency in that direction, and the anti-Corbett faction, naturally, is a little bit timid about the matter. It is explained by those who refuse to go into caucus that they are pledged to their constituents not to vote for Mr. Corbett, and that should they go into caucus under the present status of affairs, and should he get a majority of votes in such caucus, they would be compelled to act contrary to the wishes of those whom they represent and vote for a man who is distasteful to their supporters. On the other hand, the caucus members are not expecting results from their call. They know just how the matter stands, but issue such a paper in an effort to gain time.

Contrary to the usual custom, the senatorial trouble does not seem to interfere with the business of the state. Members are on hand early and late, and the manner in which matters are rushed along, shows the will of the senators and representatives to expedite routine work.

In the daily labors of the members of the house Eddy, of Tillamook, has shown himself to be easily the leader of the majority. Harris, of Lane, comes next, with Grace, of Baker, as the minority leader. Roberts is one of the most aggressive men in the house, and Brownhill, of Clackamas, is the "flag-waving" senator.

An irresistible desire on the part of the legislators to visit in Portland from Friday until Sunday of each week is not easily explained. However, they indulge that desire to the fullest extent. The law-makers generally attended memorial exercises in honor of the dead queen of England in Portland today.

During the past week both houses have been very busy going over bills first and second times, handling them in the different committees, having them printed and placed on the desks, ready for third reading and final action. This next week a huge number of measures will be disposed of, there being scores of bills in the hands of committees which were acted upon during the recess of Friday and Saturday. The old method was that when a recess was taken committees, clerks and everybody else had a half holiday; but now, under the Kykendall law, the clerks remain in Salem, must report every day except Sunday to the chief clerks, and consequently are on hand to perform their respective duties, much to the interests of the taxpayers of the state.

A Life And Death Fight.

Mr. W. A. Hines of Manchester, Ia., writing of his almost miraculous escape from death, says: "Exposure after measles induced serious lung trouble, which ended in Consumption. I had frequent hemorrhages and coughed night and day. All my doctors said I must soon die. Then I began to use Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, which completely cured me. I would not be without it even if it cost $5.00 a bottle. Hundreds have used it on my recommendation and all say it never fails to cure Throat, Chest and Lung troubles." Regular size 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free at Blakey's Drug Store.

May End Uprising.

St. Louis, Jan. 27.—A special to the republic from Henrietta, I. T., says Deputy United States Marshal Grant Johnson arrived there at 7:45 p. m., with Chitto Harjo, "Crazy Snake," whom he captured at Eufaula. This, it is believed, will end the insurrection.

Deputy Marshal Johnson, who bears the reputation of being the boldest, most prudent and best man on Marshal Bennett's staff, and Bonnie McIntosh made a bold dash today into Snake's stronghold, which was surrounded by Indians, and captured the chief insurgent. The Indian chief was brought here immediately, and is being closely guarded by the deputy marshal and Troop A, Eighth United States Cavalry, under Lieutenant Dixon.

This capture, with the sweep east that the soldiers will make tomorrow, will probably end the insurrection. Marshal Bennett, with a dozen deputies, will leave with the troops, and it is expected they will capture the other leaders.

We know of nothing so certain to give instant relief as One Minute Cough Cure. It can also be relied upon in grippe and all throat and lung troubles of adults. Pleasant to take. It cures the worst cases of indigestion and gives instant relief, for it digests what you eat. Clarke & Falk P. O. Pharmacy.

Avoid all drying inhalants, fumes, smokes and snuffs and use that which cleanses, soothes and heals. Ely's Cream Balm is such a remedy and will cure catarrh or cold in the head easily and pleasantly. A trial size will be mailed for 10 cents. All druggists sell the 50c. size, Ely Brothers, 56 Warren St., N. Y. The Balm cures without pain, does not irritate or cause sneezing. It spreads itself over an irritated and angry surface, relieving immediately the painful inflammation. With Ely's Cream Balm you are armed against Nasal Catarrh and Hay Fever.
