

Only Four More Days OF THE GREAT REDUCTION SALE!

We wish to call your attention to the fact that the remaining few days of the sale will see us crowded. Every article in the house is still reduced, as at the beginning. We haven't so much stuff to show you, but during inventory we have dug out some stunning bargains that are worth looking after.

In the DRY GOODS DEPARTMENT there are hundreds of bargains staring at you at every turn you make. The same can be said of the Shoe Department, during inventory the odd pairs have not been left behind by any means, so the shoe man has lots of odd bargains left—at odd prices too—and can fit odd feet to perfection.

In the MEN'S FURNISHING DEPARTMENT we have placed on our counters during this sale a line of Men's and Boys' Sweaters in navy blue, black and maroon, to be closed out at 49 cents. See windows.

WAYSIDE GLEANINGS.

Remember Prof. Sandvig's dancing class tonight at the Baldwin.

The Fortnightly club will meet with the Misses Rich tomorrow afternoon.

The ladies of the Catholic church will have on sale, at the store of Maier & Benton, next Saturday, a choice line of pies and cakes.

The football boys will meet at The Dalles Commercial and Athletic Club rooms Friday evening to consider important business. Others interested are invited to be present.

If you want a new waist—at just half the regular price—you should come soon. Nothing gained by waiting, ladies; every day sees the assortment growing less. A. M. Williams & Co.

These are days when fifty cents has the purchasing power of a dollar—if you go to the right store. A. M. Williams & Co. are selling fine undershirts, flannel waists and ladies' jackets at just half regular price.

In the circuit court yesterday Judge Bradshaw granted a divorce to Mrs. Ina Speicinger from her husband, Henry Speicinger, on the ground of habitual drunkenness. Ned Gates conducted the case for Mrs. Speicinger.

The parties who have spent considerable of their own money, both recently and last year, in repairing the county road that passes the Snipes ranch west of town, will take it as a personal favor if those who travel on the road by team will not confine their vehicles to one beaten track all the time but distribute the travel over the entire width of the road, as far as it may be possible or convenient.

The grand lodge of the Grand Domain of Oregon, Knights of Pythias, through their grand chancellor, Judge W. L. Bradshaw, has presented Past Chancellor Commander T. A. Hudson, of this city, a certificate of honor by virtue of his long service in the order, being a charter member of Friendship Lodge, No. 9, The Dalles, its first chancellor commander, and the first representative elected to attend the first grand lodge of the domain, at which convention he was elected grand master at arms. This is a distinction that has been conferred on only two other members in the domain, and, coming wholly unexpected, is very highly appreciated by Mr. Hudson.

Bishop Morris will conduct services at St. Paul's Episcopal church next Sunday morning at 10:30 o'clock. All those not worshipping elsewhere are cordially invited to attend.

The recommendation of Governor Geer that the agricultural college be divided by the diversion of part of the funds to a similar institution to be located in Eastern Oregon, naturally does not take well with Corvallis people. They claim, and their contention seems well founded, that a division of the college at the present time would result in two financially crippled institutions in place of the college that is now a credit to the state.

The young married people of the city have organized a card club, which they have named the "Jolly Neighbors." The members are: Mr. and Mrs. Ed French, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cram, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Ernst Luettmann, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Tolmie, Dr. and Mrs. Geisendorffer, Mr. and Mrs. Roger Sinnott, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bonn. The first meeting will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Williams next Friday evening.

The management of the O. R. & N. have decided to locate the train dispatchers' headquarters at The Dalles and the transfer will be made from Portland within a week or so. Four men are employed in this service, a chief and three subordinates. Years ago the dispatchers' headquarters were located here, and the management now see that trains can be handled better at The Dalles than at either Portland or Umatilla, as this point is the terminus of two divisions and here the dispatchers can have all the benefits that arise from personal contact with the train men.

Calendar Social.

At the calendar social to be given by the ladies of the Congregational church tonight at the K. of P. hall, and to which are invited free all who have contributed to the calendar, the following program will be rendered:

Piano Duet—Misses Prudence Patterson and Pearl Grimes
Solo—"A Dream"—Miss Cushing
Recitation—"Seven Things at Night"—Miss Emina Roberts
Solo—"My Old New Hampshire Home"—Miss Cram
Solo—"The Olden Days"—Miss Cram
Male Quartet
Pantomime—"My Faith Look Up to Thee"—Mrs. Maude Eddon

Program commence at 8 o'clock.

PEOPLE COMING AND GOING.

Hon. E. L. Smith was in town today from Hood River.

J. W. Hodson is registered at the Umatilla House from Goldendale.

Mrs. C. L. Gilbert arrived here today from Hood River on a short visit to her daughter, Miss Maude.

Mr. George Geisendorffer arrived here from Linn county yesterday on a visit to his brother, Dr. J. A. Geisendorffer.

Orchards Never Better.

Emile Schanno, of The Dalles, a member of the state board of horticulture from the fourth district, writes as follows to the board concerning the fruit outlook for the coming season:

"The orchards in my district, at the present time, look better than I have ever seen them at this time of year. We have had no cold weather. The thermometer at no time has registered below 30, excepting in November, when it went down to 4, and if nothing happens later on, we will have a good fruit crop, especially peaches, cherries and prunes. The apple crop was very large last year, so we do not expect a very full crop this year. There are a good many young orchards, however, that will bear this year, and the short crop on the older trees will probably thus be made up."

"This has been a splendid winter. A good many of the principal fruit growers have been trimming their orchards, and spraying for the San Jose scale. This is the proper time to spray for the scale."

"We have had regular March weather here for the last two weeks, and the buds on the peach and prune trees are beginning to swell. The roads are in a better condition this winter than I have ever seen them at this time of the year, notwithstanding we have had more rain than we have ever had before."

Oregon at the Pan-American.

The following resolution was unanimously adopted by Oregon's delegates to the National Editorial Association, at a regular meeting held in Portland Friday evening, January 25, 1901:

"Resolved, that we, as Oregon's national delegates to the N. E. A., which convenes in Buffalo June 10-13, during the Pan-American exposition of 1901, do hereby pledge ourselves, individually and severally, to do all in our power toward having said N. E. A. meet in Portland, Oregon, during the exposition of 1905, which is to be held to commemorate the Lewis and Clark expedition; and we also pledge our hearty support to the commission appointed by our state executive to represent Oregon at the Pan-American exposition and request that every member of our state association aid in seeing that our state and its resources be properly advertised and displayed at Buffalo during the entire exposition."

SITUATION UNCHANGED.

House Passes Agricultural College Bill and Bill Providing for Liens on Tombstones.

Special to THE CHRONICLE]

SALEM, Jan. 30.—The vote for senator was exactly the same as yesterday, with the exception that Kelly and Mulky were paired and McQueen was absent. There will probably be no material change in the vote till next Monday, when something is expected to drop.

The house today passed, without amendment, the agricultural college bill, appropriating $30,000 annually. Only six voted against the measure.

Schumann's bill, providing for liens on tombstones and graveyard monuments also passed.

The senate considered a number of bills on second reading.

Watson's bill providing for the removal of the Multnomah county commissioners, caused a squabble among the Multnomah delegation. It was alleged that a paid lobby was working against the bill's being referred to the Multnomah delegation.

Legislative Doings.

Representative Roberts' bill, providing for the levying of a tax for the payment of the outstanding scalp bounty warrants, was passed by the senate yesterday and will become a law as soon as signed by the governor.

The house committee on public morals has reported favorably on the barbers' Sunday closing bill.

Senator Mulky's resolution for an amendment to the constitution making the state printer's office a statutory one, so that the legislature may control the compensation of the incumbent, passed the senate yesterday with only four dissenting votes.
