TREASURER'S NOTICE.

All Wasco County warrants registered prior to September 1, 1897, will be paid on presentation at my office. Interest ceases after November 29, 1900. JOHN F. HAMPSHIRE, County Treasurer.

WAYSIDE CLEANINGS.

Read A. M. Williams & Co.'s ad. Janet Riley yesterday declared her intention to become a citizen of the United States.

The ladies of the Catholic church will have on sale, at the store of Maier & Benton tomorrow a choice line of pies and cakes.

Tomorrow is ground hog day and the bright sunshine of today gives promise that the little animal will have a good chance to see his shadow and that we shall, consequently have six weeks more winter.

Watch and wait for the opening of Gumbert's Cigar & Tobacco House. Do not miss this great event for you may regret it in the future. Be on time and you will gain through it. See ad on first page.

These sunny days remind one of spring, when man's mind and woman's too, for that matter, easily turns to thoughts of—new clothes. But what of the boys? It's their chance tomorrow. Read A. M. Williams & Co.'s ad.

Baker City, for the first time in two years, has not a single case of smallpox. This splendid condition of affairs is owing to the strict quarantine measure enforced since the advent of the new city administration, says the Democrat.

The county clerk today turned over to the county treasurer the sum of $1858.40, $1550 of which represented the delinquent taxes collected during the month of January and the balance, $308.40 sundry fees of the clerk's office for the same period.

"The Kennebec (Me.) Journal" tells of a man who darkens his henhouse for one hour at noon. His hens go to roost, thinking it night; at the end of an hour he opens the blind. The result is that his hens lay again, and he gets two eggs a day instead of one.

F. C. Sexton and W. E. Walther have formed a copartnership and have rented the Wingate building, corner of Second and Jefferson, where they expect to open out about the middle of March with a complete line of hardware, stoves and tinware. Carpenters have been engaged to commence the fitting up of the building Monday morning. It is the intention to tear out the old front and put in plate glass windows.

There's a very neat little suit in A. M. Williams & Co.'s show window, marked $5.50, for a boy of 8 years. Tomorrow's special price will be only $3.

Smallpox is reported epidemic at Heppner, a local physician declaring that there are so many cases that any attempt to check it seems almost hopeless. The original case is said to be that of a young lady from the east, and who is supposed to have contracted the disease while en route west on the train.

It is greatly to the credit of the people of Wasco county that out of the 68 school districts in the county no less than 25 have this year levied taxes for school purposes. These levies range from two mills on the dollar up to twenty. Whatever our faults may be as a people it cannot be said that we are unmindful of the education of the rising generation.

The football season is not over, Manager Otis Patterson to the contrary, notwithstanding. It gives us pleasure to announce that The Dalles Never Sweats and The Dalles Juniors intend to meet in deadly combat on the old fair grounds tomorrow afternoon. If you want to see a game of football as is a game, you just wander up that way at the time mentioned. Admission free and everybody invited.

"The Philadelphia Record" tells a story of a physician of that city who was called to see an old Irishman and his wife down with colds. He advised quinine and whiskey as an antidote. "You must both take it," he said. "Take it every three hours—two grains of quinine and a swallow of whiskey." The next day he called again. The man was up and about, but his wife was in bed. "Did you follow my instructions?" asked the doctor. "To the letter," replied the husband. "How much quinine have you left?" was the next question. "None, O'link she have taken th' whole av it," said the man. "And didn't you take it too?" asked the doctor. "Divil th' bit," was the reply. "Begorrah, it kept me busy takin' th' whiskey every toime she took a pill, an' sure she's in bed an' O'link up."

What is again being revived in society circles, and the third gathering of the Twentieth Century Club was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Fish last evening. The interest which every one took in the games made the evening pass most pleasantly, and the enthusiasm at the whist tables was only equalled when the guests were seated at the dining table, with a most delicious lunch spread before them. By way of diversion, when the games were half over Mr. Fish called attention to a candle burning in a silver candlestick, and said that the lucky guesser of the length of time it would take the candle to burn a certain distance would win the candlestick. Mr. T. A. Hudson carried it away. At whist Mr. H. S. Wilson was most successful, and Mrs. Fulton took the foot prize. Those present were Mr and Mrs Hudson, Mr and Mrs H S Wilson, Mr and Mrs Pease, Mr and Mrs Frank Fulton, Mr and Mrs Logan, Mr and Mrs R B Sinnott, Mrs Sinnott, Mrs McCoy, Misses Minnie Lay, Georgia Sampson, Rose Michell, and Messrs. Grant Mays and N J Sinnott.

Columbia Southern Sued.

Suit has been begun in the United States circuit court to wind up the affairs of the Columbia Southern railroad, so far as concerned the company and the stockholders, and to distribute its assets among the stockholders. Charles A. Atschul, of San Francisco, owner of the land grant of the Willamette valley & Cascade Mountain Military Wagon road, and Thomas D. Rambaut, of New York, are the complainants. They set up that they are the owners of fifty shares of stock, which they bought from Drake C. O'Reilly, one of the organizers of the road, and until a few months ago actively identified with its interests. They allege that E. E. Lytle is attempting to wreck the company. They ask for permission to examine the company's books, for the recovery of amounts misappropriated and for injunction against further extension of the line, and payment of a larger salary than $250 a month to President Lytle.

One of the allegations of the complainants is that the O. R. & N. Co. would be glad at any time, by proper means, to become the exclusive owner of the Columbia Southern, and that it is now the owner of all outstanding bonds of the company.

Practically the same allegations are made by Atschul and Rambaut that are to be found in complaints against the Columbia Southern in suits that have heretofore been filed. The filing of a case in the United States court while another is pending in the United States circuit court would seem to indicate prolonged litigation. What the people living along the line of the Columbia Southern and its proposed extension southward from Shaniko desire is less law and more construction. It is reasonably certain that were the road out of court, work would be begun and a rich country tapped. It was predicted, when the Columbia Southern road was built that it would not pay interest on its bonds, but it has done business far beyond the expectations of its projectors.

The Vote for Senator the Same As Yesterday.

Special to THE CHRONICLE

SALEM, Feb. 1.—Today's vote for senator was exactly the same as that of yesterday, nor can any one tell when a break may come, if it ever comes.

The senate spent the forenoon in the consideration of charter bills.

The barbers' Sunday closing bill, which came up on a vote of reconsideration, was made the special order for next Tuesday at 10 o'clock.

The house was occupied all forenoon with routine matter.

After the vote was taken in joint session both houses adjourned till 11 o'clock tomorrow.

PEOPLE COMING AND GOING.

Attorney Bert Phelps arrived here from Heppner yesterday.

J. P. Lucas was a passenger on the train for Baker City.

H. F. Frazier, clerk of Gilliam county spent last night in the city.

Miss Katie Hogan, of Oakland, Oregon, is visiting with Mrs. T. J. Driver.

Mrs. J. O. Mack and Miss Mabel have returned from a visit to friends in California.

Hugh Jackson, the veteran stage man, is registered at the Umatilla house from Wapinitia.

Alexander Scott, the Grass Valley merchant, is spending a few days in the city accompanied by Mrs. Scott.

Pointers On Poultry Raising.

If you have any intention of going into the chicken business you might do worse than read the following advice from D. A. Turner, in the Hood River Glacier:

"Begin with any old scrub hens you can buy cheap, let them roost in trees, on the fences or any old place they may find; keep from two to a dozen worthless dogs, then when you feed the outfit throw the feed out in a pile so the dogs can run over the hens and snap at them. Feed the little chicks on raw corn meal or a little bran dough mixed up thin and put in a heap, and let the little fellows get covered, feet and feathers. When you have company send the boys out with dogs and gun to kill a chicken for dinner, let them chase the whole flock all over the ranch and kill the best pullet you have; let the remainder feed on snow drifts or a fog bank. If the weather is real cold get some frozen corn and give a full feed once before the hens go to roost, as my honored father once did, and found seven hens laying, or rather lying, under the roost stiff and cold. Keep everything wet so your poultry will have roup, rheumatism and goops, then quarrel with the old woman, go off to town, sit on a goods box and swear that chickens won't pay.

Water Commissioners' Meeting.

The regular monthly meeting of the board of water commissioners was held last night in the recorder's office, when the following proceedings were had.

The superintendent reported as follows:

Water rent, col. during Jan. $1108 50
Delinquencies 441 00
The treasurer reported as follows:
Jan. 1.—Bal. cash on hand $2493 77
Jan. 31.—Cash, water rent 1108 50
Total 3602 27
Jan. 31.—By warrants redeemed 139 89

Jan. 31.—Bal. cash on hand 3462 40
The special committee appointed at last meeting to inquire into the advisability of extending a water main into Tackman's edition, advised that such extension should be made and a fire plug located as soon as the street is opened between I and Clark streets, and it was so ordered.
