

PROUD OF HER HAIR

Miss Irene Ackerman, the well-known dramatic reader, writes us the following letter from her residence, 20 W. 15th Street, New York City. This talented and versatile young lady has made an enviable name for herself on the stage by her excellent work in support of some of the leading stars, besides being noted in literary and art circles as an adept with the pen and pencil. She is justly proud of her magnificent head of hair, which is shown to advantage in the accompanying photograph.

"Some time ago, when my hair was brushed, I noticed more and more the increase of hair left on the comb. My scalp became dry and my hair grew thin so rapidly that I had to change the style of wearing it. I then tried various hair tonics, the effect of which was to make my scalp exceedingly tender, and the hair stiff and brittle when dry. I resolved to try CUTICURA SOAP. The comfort I experienced before I had given it a long trial was so great that I determined to continue it. Taking care to have the room warm, I would shampoo my head with a strong lather of CUTICURA SOAP, letting it remain for some time. I would then wash it off with warm water, and dry thoroughly. After a short time my hair ceased coming out, growing soft and silky to the touch. CUTICURA SOAP is marvellous, and I would not be without it for my toilet table."

SAVE YOUR HAIR with shampoos of CUTICURA SOAP and light dressings of CUTICURA, purest of emollient skin cures. This treatment at once stops falling hair, removes crusts, scales, and dandruff, soothes irritated, itching surfaces, stimulates the hair follicles, supplies the roots with energy and nourishment, and makes the hair grow upon a sweet, wholesome, healthy scalp when all else fails.

MILLIONS OF WOMEN

Use CUTICURA SOAP exclusively for preserving, purifying, and beautifying the skin, for cleansing the scalp of crusts, scales, and dandruff, and the stopping of falling hair, for softening, whitening, and soothing red, rough, and sore hands, in the form of baths for annoying irritations and chafings, or too free or offensive perspiration, in the form of washes for alternative weakness, and for many other remedial purposes which readily suggest themselves to women, and especially mothers, and for all the purposes of the toilet, bath, and nursery.

Knock-Out Drops

"I am a saloon-keeper, and used to think that rock and rye, or whiskey and quinine were proper remedies for coughs and colds. Most of my acquaintances were of the same opinion. Now I know something that is a thousand times better. It is Acker's English Remedy for Coughs and Colds. A good while ago I began to cough and found out then that rock and rye was no good. I got worse and I was beginning to think that the trouble would run into consumption. I didn't take any stock in patent medicines, but somehow or other I tried Acker's English Remedy. One bottle did the business for me—knocked that cough out completely—and it has never come back again. There is never a day passes that I don't say a good word about this wonderful medicine. I am glad to say that I am stronger and fleshier now, since taking the remedy, than I was before the cough began. I write this letter voluntarily and cheerfully and am glad to do it." (Signed) CHRIS. HUMBLE, Saloon-keeper, Pocatello, Idaho.
