TREASURER'S NOTICE.

All Wasco County warrants registered prior to September 1, 1897, will be paid on presentation at my office. Interest ceases after November 29, 1900. JOHN F. HAMPSHIRE, County Treasurer.

WAYSIDE GLEANINGS.

Justice Brownhill is confined to his home with the grippe.

The regular monthly meeting of the common council will be held tonight.

To rent to single gentlemen—Two large furnished bed rooms. Inquire of Mrs. Stone.

We regret to learn that the 5-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Nielsen is seriously ill with an aggravated attack of the grippe.

Only one-tenth of the land in the Philippines is in private hands. None of the government lands in the islands, amounting to 67,000,000 acres, will be disposed of until congress takes action in the matter.

A petition from residents of Klickitat, Kittitas and Yakima counties will be presented to the Washington legislature asking for a bounty on coyote scalps. The Goldendale Sentinel trusts the legislature will receive the same favorably.

The officers and members of Harmony Temple No. 12, Rathbone Sisters, are notified that the regular meeting of the order will be held in future, beginning tonight, on the first and third Mondays of the month in the little K. of P. hall.

According to the Pendleton East Oregonian, F. T. Haribart, late of Arlington, and now cashier of the Shaniko bank, and Mrs. Maggie Hawson took out a marriage license at Pendleton on the 31st ult., and were married there next day.

The Jackson Engine Company will hold their annual meeting, for the election of officers, at the conndl chambers tomorrow night. After the meeting the members will adjourn to the Skibbe hotel, where a banquet will be served.

It is locally reported that Representative Barrett, of Grant county, will float a mining proposition in Portland soon after the adjournment of the state legislature. He is voting right along for Mr. Cortez for United States senator.—Sumpter Miner.

Taxis is comparatively a very sparsely cultivated state. In several counties there are very few inhabitants. Bailey county has but four residents, Cockran has twenty-five, Anderson has thirty-seven, Lynn has seventeen and Dawson has thirty-six. Twenty-five other counties have populations of less than 500 each.

Menefee & Wilson, attorneys for the defendant in the case of Paul G. Kruger vs. Dalles City, wherein the plaintiff sues for damages for injuries received through an alleged defective crosswalk, filed a demurrer in the circuit court today alleging that the complaint does not state facts sufficient to constitute a ground of action.

A clergyman while catechising his Sunday school a few weeks ago had occasion to ask the children the meaning of the word "epistle." A little girl in the youngest class was so certain that she knew that she did not hesitate a minute, but with the greatest confidence answered: "An epistle is the wife of an apostle."—New York Sun.

The Walla Walla Union says: "There is an oil boom in the Walla Walla valley. Gas and strong indications of the presence of oil and coal have been discovered and options are being taken on lands with a view to incorporating a company in this city and sinking a number of wells in an effort to locate the source of the supply which has been known to exist near here for some time."

F. W. Wickham did not go to jail Saturday on account of his failure to pay a fine of $25 imposed on him for larceny, the bench warrant of Justice Brownhill to the contrary, notwithstanding. Moore & Gavin, his attorneys, came to his rescue and deposited the amount of the fine so that he might have his liberty while habeas corpus proceedings are pending in Judge Bradshaw's court.

A well-meaning communicative citizen is a boon to the newspaper reporter, and it is a noticeable fact that many good items are lost to the newspaper every day by the modesty of the people who hesitate to tell the reporter of matters concerning themselves. The right way to do is to stop the reporter on the street, or any place you meet him, and tell him you have been entertaining friends, have been on a visit or anything that is in any way a matter of news.

Frank Gunning recently sold his sole right to manufacture his patent weeder to the Syracuse Chilled Plow Company, of Syracuse, New York. Mr. Gunning receives a royalty on every machine manufactured by the company, and as the company has abundance of capital and abundance of machinery, both commercial and mechanical, for handling the weeder to the best advantage, Mr. Gunning is satisfied that he will make more out of it this way than if he had tried to run the business himself.

Tomorrow night at the Vogt Sullivan and Harris will present their great melodrama "The Angel of the Alley." It is a mammoth production and contains some entirely novel features. The piece is built around the adventures of a young army officer who is lured into an underground gambling resort in New York. Careful reproductions of New York streets and alleys were made by the great Harley Merry and sons. There is also a most realistic view of Sing Sing and the famous death cell.

Fred Fisher, of this city, gives the following report of his experience with 20 hens, of the Buff Leghorn variety, that he brought from the ranch some ninety days ago. During exactly ninety days, ending January 31, instant, the 20 hens laid 84 dozen of eggs. The average price of eggs in The Dalles market during the three months was not less than 30 cents a dozen. The feed, four pounds of wheat and one pound of bran per day, averaged a cost of about 5 cents a day, or $4.50 for the ninety days. The net profit, counting nothing on the time, was $20.70. It would be hard to name an investment that would give as large returns as this for so little money invested. The returns are more than three months interest on a thousand dollars at eight per cent.

THE OREGON LEGISLATURE.

House in Favor of Measures Advocated By Railroad Employees—Senatorial Vote Practically the Same as on Saturday.

Special to THE CHRONICLE.]
SALEM, Feb. 4.—Both houses convened this morning at 11:30 o'clock. The senate spent the time till adjournment hearing the reports of committees.

The house, by an overwhelming vote, refused to refer the bill fixing the liabilities of railway companies for injuries received by employes. The vote is taken as an indication of the strength of the vote in favor of a reduction of railroad rates.

The house passed Grace's bill providing punishment for parties who shall be found guilty of poisoning domestic animals.

The senatorial vote showed 29 for Corbett, 20 for McBride, 23 for Smith, 7 for Hermann, 2 for Fulton, 2 for Moore, 1 for Lowell and one absent.

The houses adjourned at 1:30 to meet in joint session tonight to celebrate John Marshall day.

Jottings From the Capitol.

STATE HOUSE, Salem, Feb. 4, 1901.

The people of the state are to be congratulated upon the fact that they have elected men to represent them in the law-making body of Oregon who are working in the interests of the citizens of the state, and not for the benefit of corporations, capitalists and brokers. Economy is the cry on every hand, and measures which are likely to prove costly to the state, in proportion to the good done, are promptly frowned upon and defeated. The daily calendars are costly and resolutions in both houses have been adopted, declaring for a cheaper, more compact and less bulky edition, thus lessening the cost some $6000 during the rest of the session.

Both houses are ahead with the work on hand, and all committees are busy keeping up with the pace set.

The blind school is rather under a cloud just at present, and will thus remain until the report of the joint committee, appointed for the purpose of investigating the affairs of that institution, is handed in.

The slight change in the senatorial vote on Saturday causes no comment, being practically no change from the former position. The full strength of the three leading candidates is now as follows: Corbett 29, Smith 27, McBride 21. It is said here, on rather good authority, that some signal change in this vote may result during the coming week.

A Stupid Fakir.

An undoubted fakir, a young fellow perhaps 24 years old, about 5 feet 8 inches tall, with pale complexion, and wearing grey coat, blue-black pants, grey vest, black fore-in-hand tie, with a horse shoe pin, blue striped shirt, and claiming to be from the East in the employ of some excursion company running between Portland and Chicago, has been working the town, with what result we have not yet fully learned. We only know that in two cases his scheme did not work. He introduces himself by claiming the name of his intended victim (or one similar), and follows up with a story about a parcel that was left at his lodgings in Portland, which he found afterward addressed to a member of the family he is seeking to victimize. He offers to express it to the party to whom it is addressed for an advance of $1.50.

The fellow attempted to work this very transparent racket Saturday at a residence on Fourth street, introducing himself by saying that his name was very like that of the resident and claiming that a parcel worth $10 and addressed to one of the family had been left at his room in Portland, and happening to be here he thought he would call and let the party know. For $1.50 cash in hand he would, on his return to Portland, forward the parcel prepaid to The Dalles. The scheme did not work. The lady to whom the parcel was said to be addressed assured his fakirship that if any parcel had been addressed to her, it would never have been delivered at the room of a young man in Portland.

The game was tried on Miss Emma Roberts, of Dry Hollow, and with the same result. Here the fakir claimed that his name was Roberts and that the parcel left at his room in Portland, which Miss Roberts could have sent to her for $1.50, was worth $12. Again he failed, but we shall not be surprised to hear that this very transparent fake has trapped somebody.

Meanwhile this will serve notice that the fakir is abroad, and in these days of telephones, everywhere, his presence ought to be promptly reported to the authorities.

It is believed that this is the same fellow who successfully worked a similar scheme a short time ago among the school teachers of Portland. His two would-be victims here are also teachers.
