TREASURER'S NOTICE.

All Wasco County warrants registered prior to September 1, 1897, will be paid on presentation at my office. Interest ceases after November 29, 1900.

JOHN F. HAMPSHIRE, County Treasurer.

WAYSIDE GLEANINGS.

"Angel of the Alley" At the Vogt opera house tonight. Mrs. C. J. Crandall was a passenger on the noon train for Grass Valley.

To rent to single gentlemen—Two large furnished bed rooms. Inquire of Mrs. Stone.

C. J. Crandall is working these days on the plans for four fine residence buildings to be erected in North Yakima the coming spring.

All members of the Columbia Dancing Club are requested to wear dominoes at the party Friday evening. Gentlemen in pink; ladies in white.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Congregational church will meet at the home of Mrs. A. M. Kelsay tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock. They are requested to bring their thimbles along.

The Dalles' single smallpox patient is recovering rapidly, and it is now believed that the quarantine on the house can be raised early next week. No new cases have developed through contact with Mr. Allison, and if two or three more days pass without any such, the doctors say we may feel comfortably certain that there will be none.

J. K. Clark, of Butte, Montana, and a brother of United States Senator Clark, of that state, is registered at the Umattilla House. It is said that Mr. Clark has a mining expert here who has been examining the Oregon King mine, south of Antelope, with a view to its purchase if the property should prove satisfactory and the terms can be agreed on.

"The Angel of the Alley," which appears at the Vogt tonight, is said to be one of the strongest sensational melodramas ever written by the pen of Theo. Kremen, the well-known author. The play is a heart story of love, intrigue and sensation, and the situations are thrilling and the climaxes startling. A cut above the average presents this piece, which is said to be embellished with magnificent scenery and costumes.

Rasmus Rasmussen, a single man of 38 years, who has a number of intimate acquaintances here, among whom are Chris Paulsen, Neal Paulsen and John Thomsen, died at St. Vincent's hospital on the 4th instant, of a complication of diseases and after a protracted illness. His remains were expected here this evening to be buried from the Lutheran church tomorrow, but a telegram received by Crandall & Burgett at noon today from Chris Paulsen, who is in Portland, asked that the funeral be postponed till further notice.

THE OREGON LEGISLATURE.

Senatorial Situation is Practically Unchanged. All Prophecies to the Contrary Notwithstanding.

Special to THE CHRONICLE.]

SALEM, Feb. 5, 1901.—Representative Colvig today created a breeze by moving that the house committee on railways be instructed to report a measure reducing railway rates. Story claimed that tonight numerous railway officials would meet with his committee for the purpose of furnishing information intended to defeat the bill and he asked time to hear both sides. The result was that Colvig's motion was defeated.

The barbers are hard at work in the interest of their Sunday closing bill, trying to get enough votes to secure its passage when it comes up for re-consideration in the house this afternoon.

The vote for senator resulted as follows: Corbett, 29; Smith, 26; McBride, 21; Hermann, 8; Lowell, 1; Fulton, 2; Moore, 2; not voting, 1.

COUNCIL MEETING.

City Fathers Wrestle With Sundry Matters From Smallpox to Providing for Defence Against the Name-sake of Tom Paul.

The regular monthly meeting of the city council was held last night, with Frank Gunning in the chair.

The matter of repairing Ninth street near Pentland was referred to the committee on streets and public property, with power to act.

The judiciary committee reported that they had employed Huntington & Wilson and Menefee & Wilson as attorneys for the city in the case of Paul G. Kruger vs. Dalles City.

Councilman Liebe, chairman of the committee on health and police, reported that in the matter of the case of smallpox existing in the city the utmost precaution had been used to prevent the spread of the disease; that the building in which the patient is confined has been quarantined and there is no danger of the spread of the disease. The committee had visited the city pest house and found that it was in need of repairs to make it habitable.

The reports of the marshal recorder and treasurer were read and approved.

The acceptance of bids for the repair of the pest house was deferred to a future meeting.

The matter of repairing Fourth street was, on motion of Councilman Johnston, referred to a special committee, appointed by the chair and consisting of Messrs. Johnston, Keller and Kelly.

Messrs. Wilson, Kelly and Johnston were appointed as a special committee to ascertain the ownership of the old O. R. & N. pest house and to report on the probable cost of its removal to the city grounds, about half a mile west.

The following bills, in addition to officers' salaries, were allowed and warrants ordered to be drawn for their payment:

The Court Street Sewer.

THE DALLES, Feb. 5, 1901.

TO THE EDITOR:

I am one of the property-owners who, about two months ago, signed a petition to the city council asking for a sewer on Court street from the bluff to the river. Every property-owner on that part of the street, save two, signed this petition and yet no intimation has ever been given out as to what the council intends to do in the matter. Will you, Mr. Editor, inform us what action, if any, the council has taken on our petition.

TAXPAYER.

The petition, on the night of its presentation, was referred to the committee on streets and public property, and at the council meeting held last night Dr. Shackelford, chairman of this committee, reported that his committee had no information to impart to the council on the question of a sewer on Court street that the council was not as fully possessed of as they. And there the matter dropped. What further action, if any, the council may take is known only to the members of that body.
