

MRS. NATION DOES AN EFFECTIVE JOB

Succeeds in Smashing a Topeka Joint to the Extent of $1500—She is Thrown into Jail and Held on Charge of Inciting a Riot.

Topeka, Kan., Feb. 5.—Mrs. Nation launched her crusade against the joints at an early hour this morning. She arose at 4:30 and soon afterwards started out on a tour of joint-smashing. Accompanied by Mrs. J. P. White and Miss Madeline Southard, she attempted to enter the place at 830 Kansas avenue. The man on duty managed to disarm Mrs. Nation and bolt the door before any of the party could enter. Mrs. Nation said her friends caught hold of her arms here and prevented her going in through the window.

The next place visited was "The Senate" on Kansas avenue. The women entered without resistance, but a colored man quickly seized Mrs. Nation and took her hatchet away. Somehow in the scuffle Mrs. Nation was struck on the right temple with the hatchet, but the blow did not disable her, and she at once seized the hatchet carried by Mrs. White. She turned over two large slot machines and smashed the glass in the front of each. She soon made a wreck of the large refrigerator, and after that turned her attention to the liquor and fixtures behind the bar. A keg of beer came in the way of the hatchet, and the contents drenched the skirts of Mrs. Nation.

At this juncture the colored porter fired his revolver to attract attention from the outside. Policeman Graham was attracted to the place by the noise, and escorted Mrs. Nation to the police station. Here Mrs. Nation and her little band of followers had a short praise service, and lectured those in charge at the time.

The Senate saloon, which was wrecked, was one of the handsomest and most complete in its equipments in the city. A great mirror which hung in the hall was valued at fully $500. Probably $1500 worth of property, mostly made up of cherry bar and handsome fixtures, was destroyed.

At the police station Mrs. Nation was booked as "joint smasher." The others were released. Her case was continued until Thursday without bond, the charge being "inciting a riot."

The case against Mrs. Nation for attempting to smash the Unique saloon, on East Sixth street, late Monday afternoon, was dismissed this morning.

A Thousand Tongues

Could not express the rapture of Annie E. Springer, of 1125 Howard st., Philadelphia, Pa., when she found that Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption had completely cured her of a hacking cough that for many years had made life a burden. All other remedies and doctors could give her no help, but she says of this Royal Cure—"It soon removed the pain in my chest and I can now sleep soundly, something I can scarcely remember doing before. I feel like sounding its praises throughout the universe." So will every one who tries Dr. King's New Discovery for any trouble of the throat, chest or lungs. Price 50c and $1. Will Francis Joseph Marry?

New York, Feb. 5.—A dispatch to the World from Paris says: Today's Siecle prints a long article regarding the alleged impending marriage of Emperor Francis Joseph to Frau Schratz, formerly of the Burg Theater.

It is well known that the relations between Frau Schratz and the imperial family have for a long time been very affectionate. She visited Rome recently, accompanied by the Countess de Trani, sister of the late empress. It is now said that the Pope, yielding to diplomatic representations, has granted Frau Schratz's prayer to annul her former marriage with Baron Kisch and that her marriage with the emperor will follow immediately.

It is said that the emperor has signed a brevet raising her to the rank of Countess von Hochstehenberg.

For the weakness and prostration following grippe there is nothing so prompt and effective as One Minute Cough Cure. This preparation is highly endorsed as an unfailing remedy for all throat and lung troubles and its early use prevents consumption. It was made to cure quickly. Clarke & Falk's P. O. Pharmacy.

MR. TONGUE'S ANSWER

The Gentleman From Oregon Scores the Oregonian's Lie.

The Oregonian of Saturday last contained the following, purporting to be a dispatch from Washington, D. C.:

"WASHINGTON, Feb. 1.—The senatorial lie is busily buzzing in Representative Tongue's bonnet. Mr. Tongue has not openly announced his candidacy for the senate, but has been most restlessly awaiting developments. He says that neither Corbett nor McBride can be elected and that some dark horse will be chosen. He hopes the lightning may strike in his direction, and has so stated to several friends in the house. Mr. Tongue thinks his chances are exceptionally good at this time, because of the record he made in securing generous recognition for Oregon in the river and harbor bill. He has been waiting for the opportunity to spring his candidacy upon the deadlocked legislature."

The editor of the Salem Sentinel immediately telegraphed Congressman Tongue, requesting him to state whether he was correctly quoted, and promptly received the following answer:

"WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 2, 1901. E. H. Flagg, Salem, Or.:

"Every word of dispatch which you gave me as appearing in Morning Oregonian regarding my candidacy for senate is maliciously and absolutely false. There is not one word of truth in entire dispatch. I have not discussed this; do not discuss any subject pertaining to Oregon with the Oregonian correspondent. He is too stupid to report a transaction correctly and too dishonest to report it truthfully. For this reason I have ceased to communicate with him on any subject.

THOS. H. TONGUE."

Is Selling Her Patrimony.

New York, Feb. 5.—The World says: Countess Castellane has sold her interest in several valuable pieces of New York property to help relieve the financial difficulties of her husband. Her brother, Edwin Gould, is the purchaser.

The countess owned a one-sixth interest in the properties—her share as one of the six children of Jay Gould. She is the first one of the Gould children to dispose of an interest in the great fortune.

The revenue stamps affixed to the deeds would indicate that Countess Anna received only $43,500. The market value of the property should make her share worth at least twice that amount.

Territory Threatened by Boers.

London, Feb. 5.—It is reported in London that the Boers commanded by Blake are threatening Lourenco Marques, and that Portugal has requested British assistance. It is further asserted that a British squadron has been ordered to Lourenco Marques. No official confirmation of the report is obtainable.

(The Blake referred to in the above dispatch is probably John Y. Fillmore Blake, who was in command of a regiment of Irish and American rough riders in the service of the Transvaal. Blake, who is an old West Pointer, first went to the Transvaal in 1894 or 1895.)
