HAVE AIDED THE REBELS

Two Prominent Manila Merchants Arrested—They Are Charged With Buying Copra From Insurgent Presidents and With Paying Assessments to the Tagal Cause.

MANILA, Feb. 6.—Theodore Carranza, a prominent and wealthy Spanish merchant, and hemp and coconut buyer, was arrested this afternoon, charged with furnishing supplies to aid the insurgents. Carranza is a partner of D. M. Carman, an American contractor and owner of boats, who has considerable transportation contracts with the government.

The provost marshal and secret service officials have been watching a number of merchants and transportation men for some time past. The police officials had a long interview with Carranza, and at the close of the interview the latter was placed in confinement in the Andar-street police station. Carman was arrested tonight, and after considerable questioning was sent to the same station.

The men was charged with conducting the business of buying copra (the dried kernel of the coconut, broken up for export), from insurgent presidents at Pagsanjan, on the eastern extremity of Laguna de Bay, and also with paying assessments to the insurgent cause. The evidence adduced tonight was to the effect that the prisoners have supplies of the striped clothing used for insurgent uniforms. Both insurgent presidents who claim to have dealt with Carranza and Carman are now imprisoned in Manila. One of them, Fabella, fears hanging, because he was captured as an insurgent after having sworn allegiance to the United States. He made strong statements intending to implicate Carman and Carranza, and confirming the statements of Reich, who became president of Pagsanjan after Fabella's arrest. The police have letters and verbal statements from Carman, who sought Fabella's release, asserting that he was a patriotic American subject. According to papers found, both presidents are culpable insurgents. Carranza and Carman admit dealing with the insurgents, but deny contributing to their cause or furnishing them with supplies.

Carman is one of the best-known Americans in Manila. He has a monopoly of carrying goods going through the custom house ashore, from the ships, and has made a great deal of money. He possessed the confidence of General Otis. Other Manila merchants are being investigated.

Said He Murdered a Child of Four.

SEATTLE, Wash., Feb. 6.—Jealousy and liquor caused A. M. Robinette to confess to the murder of the 4-year-old son of Mrs. Clara Colburn, with whom he was madly in love. Robinette confessed his alleged terrible deed to Captain Willard at police headquarters last night, after he had been arrested on the charge of kidnaping the boy. Officers scoured the city for hours yesterday, searching for Robinette, and when being placed under arrest he came near killing his rival, who was married to Mrs. Colburn yesterday in this city. Robinette was taken to the police station, and when asked where the child was said: "The child is dead. I killed it, as I said I would do. I won't tell where it is, but its mother will never see its face again."

Robinette shouted as he was led away to his cell. Over and over again he repeated these words, and, as a result, Mrs. Colburn lies prostrate with grief in her apartments at 124 Howard avenue, while her husband, to whom she was married only yesterday morning, in this city, tries in vain to persuade her that the child still lives.

Robinette last night positively refused to explain the manner in which he had obtained possession of the child, and all attempts of the officers to induce him to reveal any fact connected with the kidnaping met with refusal. The child was missed early yesterday afternoon.

SEATTLE, Wash., Feb. 6.—This afternoon the 4-year-old boy whom A. M. Robinette last night told the police he had murdered was found by its mother in a room in the Alhambra House, in North Seattle, uninjured. It is thought that Robinette left the child there to keep it from its mother. It was looking out the window when the mother saw it.

Asks DeWet to Surrender.

AMENDMENT FOR THE SUBSIDIES

John Barrett Reviews the Nippon Yusen Kaisha.

CHICAGO, Feb. 6.—Strip subsidies as a mighty agent in the development of merchant marine were extolled here tonight by John Barrett, speaking at the business dinner of the National Association of Merchants and Travelers. The speaker paid particular attention to the development of the shipping industry in Japan. That country, he asserted, is quietly but surely attaining a strength in naval, military and commercial affairs which make her literally the mistress of the Pacific seas.

"Some day," he continued, "we shall be awakened to an absolute realization of the situation that Japan is not only stronger politically and commercially in all the wide Pacific than the United States, but stronger than Great Britain, Germany or France."

The speaker gave a review of the Nippon Yusen Kaisha, which he described as the one pre-eminent company of the Pacific seas, which divides the honor of being the greatest steamship company of the world, with the Peninsular & Oriental Company of Great Britain and the North German Lloyd. Liberal subsidies, amounting to more than $3,500,000 annually, the speaker said, had done more to accomplish this than all other causes combined.

"Not one column of a large merchant vessel was laid in Japan until parliament authorized these subsidies," the speaker continued. "When the Japanese government voted to grant the subsidies, the cry went up at once that it was a gigantic steal—a job to give the benefit to one company, the Nippon Yusen Kaisha. If the old and sometimes bitter debates in the Japanese Diet are recalled it will be remembered that speeches pro and con on the subsidy measure employed almost all the same language that is now heard in our American congress in the discussion of the bill."

Kidnaped Boy Said to Be in Oregon.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 6.—George H. Springer has applied to the California Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children to aid him in recovering his lost child, Bennie, now 21 months of age, who is believed to be in Crook county, Oregon, in charge of a man named A. M. Coleman, with whom he had been left in this city. The child is said to be one of the heirs to a valuable estate situated in the heart of Wilmington, Del., belonging to the Holland Springers, a small family, all told numbering some sixteen persons. There is also a small estate coming to the children from the mother's side.

Arkansas Woman Smashing Joints.

KANSAS CITY, Feb. 6.—A special of the Star from Poplar Bluffs, Mo., says: At Dakton, Ark., a small town across the state line from here, five members of the Women's Christian Temperance Union attacked two "blind tigers" in true Nation fashion. All the bottles of liquor were smashed, the contents of kegs were poured into the streets and fixtures demolished.

TOPEKA, Kan., Feb. 6.—Mrs. Nation made no effort to give the jointists a second surprise this morning. They will not be caught napping again, and there were guards at the various places before daylight, but Mrs. Nation and her band of determined women did not appear. Chief Stahl made a round of the places last evening, warning the keepers of the joints to close, and Sheriff Cook did the same. While they made a pretense of closing there was a way to get in at most of the places.

There was a meeting at the Congregational church last night of the "Home Defenders," but the greatest secrecy was observed.

Renewed acquaintance with this section will ever develop fresh points of interest added sources of enjoyment, under its sunny skies, in the variety of its industries, in its prolific vegetation and among its numberless resorts of mountain, shore, valley and plain.

The two daily Shasta trains from Portland to California have been recently equipped with the most approved pattern of standard and tourist sleeping cars, but the low rates of fare will still continue in effect.
