Special to THE CHRONICLE.]

SALEM, Feb. 9.—The break-up has come at last. Senator McBride is out of the race and his supporters have gone over to Judge George H. Williams.

The vote today is as follows: Corbett 27; Williams 20; Smith 19; Hermann 4; absent and paired 11.

The house this morning passed Poor-man's military bill.

The committees on railways and transportation submitted majority and minority report was adopted.

The senate passed the Milton and Sheridan charter bills. The Portland charter was referred to the Multnomah delegation.

Senator Porter introduced a bill taxing inheritance.

The Domino Dancing Party.

The members of Columbia Dancing Club scarcely recognized Baldwin hall last night in its beautiful decorations, which, under the supervision of Sid Kelley, were certainly most artistic and in keeping with the perfect arrangement of every detail in connection with the domino party.

The effect was most novel and attractive to the eye when at 9:30 about thirty couples, attired, the gentlemen in pink and the ladies in white dominos, filed into the hall to the enlivening strains of the Mosquito march. During the first six dances the antics of the dancers in the effort to conceal their identity and discover that of their partners were most amusing, and to this hour it is said one pink domino is still wondering who fooled him so completely in the grand march.

Between dances the refreshment room seemed to be the favorite resort, and all who visited it were amply repaid and greatly refreshed, giving them a fresh impetus for the remainder of the program, which was all too short.

At the close of the last waltz Mr. Gifford requested the participants to smile their sweetest and pose for a flashlight photo., which, after the preliminaries, was taken just when least expected, transforming the smiles into expressions of intense surprise.

Altogether the party was a delightful one, and among the visitors who joined the club members in the dancing were Mr. and Mrs. F. N. Jones, of this city; Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Gieger, of Heppner; Mrs. C. J. Reed, of Portland; Archie McCully, of Shaniko; Miss Anne Smith, Messrs. Truman Butler and W. F. Davidson, of Hood River; Miss Pittman, of Vancouver; Miss Michell, of Stevenson.

Those present were Misses M Kinersly, H Hudson, H Glenn, Loto Kelsey, N Guthrie, Y Crossen, B Schooling, B Steers, R Baldwin, W Morris, I Urquhart, P Patterson, L Kelly, M McInerney, M Jackson, F Hampson, P Joles, L Blakeney, B Eddon, L Zimmerman, L Liebe, V Liebe; Messrs C Frizzell, P Frizzell, Virgil Earl, O Beck, C Kelsey, Harry Moore, I Parkins, R Lake, George Rice, V Driver, B Taylor, C Hanson, Joe McInerney, R Emrson, Chas Schmidt, A Elton, Mr Norton, Joe Steers, Kex Ward, S Kelsey, C Jenkins, Bob Stewart.

Japanese Fern Ball.

This is something entirely new and the finest decorative plant ever introduced. It comes all the way from Japan and is composed of Japanese inland fern roots, known as Davollia Bullato var Nagaha, and Spahngum Moss and so constructed as to send out leaves of beautiful emerald green from every point. Fern dishes are generally an expensive luxury. The Japanese Fern Ball will make two fern dishes of the finest kind. For the window, drawing room, or suspended from chandelier, or over dining table, or used in fern dishes, the fern ball is beautiful, rare, perpetual and cheap. Fern balls are more handsome than palms for decorative plants, and are much easier grown.

The Dalles Nurseries have just received a shipment of 150 of these plants. They are selling like hot cakes at $1 each. Apply to R. H. Weber, The Dalles. 147-2td&w

How to Cure Croup.

Mr. R. Gray, who lives near America, Duchess county, N. Y., says: "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the best medicine I have ever used. It is a fine children's remedy for croup and never fails to cure." When given as soon as the child becomes hoarse, or even after the croupy cough has developed, it will prevent the attack. This should be borne in mind and a bottle of the Cough Remedy kept at hand ready for instant use as soon as these symptoms appear. For sale by Blakeley, the druggist.

WAYSIDE GLEANINGS.

Valentines galore at The Racket store. Circuit court convenes here next Monday.

The bill to deprive the small school districts of the $50 school fund appropriation was almost unanimously defeated in the house yesterday.

Dr. Logan was called today to Three Mile to visit Miss Lola Creighton, the 11-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. Creighton, who is suffering from blood poisoning. The doctor reports that although the girl is quite sick no serious results are anticipated.

Chauncey Depew's latest conundrum: "If an empty barrel weighs ten pounds, what can you fill it with to make it weigh seven pounds?" Mr. Spooner, to whom it was put, said he would have to give it up. "Fill it full of holes," said Chauncey, and then they both laughed.

N. J. Sinnott returned last night from Goidendale where he appeared before the superior court as counsel for G. W. Smith, in a case wherein Smith is sued by the Lost Lake Lumbering Company for damages arising out of an alleged failure to comply with the conditions of a logging contract.

The Moro Observer says: "Development continues on ledges already located near this city bearing gold, silver and copper, and the camp promises to become one of phenomenal value. The latest richness is in a location made by Ben Potez and Pete Tomlin. It is even richer than the prospect made by the elder Tomlin."

Sometime two years and a half ago a cow belonging to A. C. Martin, of Victor, swallowed a butcher knife that had been carelessly left in her feed. The cow died a few days ago. She had carried the knife in her stomach till about four months ago, when Mr. Martin discovered the point of the blade sticking through the hide behind the shoulder, when he pulled it out with a pair of nippers.

The Observer says: "Attorney J. B. Hosford, at the request of Senator Johnston, has prepared a memorial to congress, which has been placed before the assembly, reviewing the Eastern Oregon Land situation, and asking congress to extend to the dispossessed settlers justice in accord with their rights. It is an exhaustive document, covering completely every point at issue in this most unfortunate muddle."

We are pleased to learn that Alvin, the 5-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Nielsen, who has been dangerously ill for the past ten days, was much better this morning.

The rooms in the Bettingen building occupied by the smallpox patient were thoroughly fumigated today and the quarantine will be raised Monday, when the patient, who is now convalescent, will leave here and spend a few weeks in the Willamette valley. It is a matter of profound gratitude that the means adopted by the authorities to prevent the spread of the contagion have been effective and that the city is again rid of this disagreeable pest.

A few weeks ago Mr. Duffy, bookkeeper for McLean Bros., railroad contractors, now working near Mosier, lost a very valuable gold watch. Mr. Duffy reported his loss to Sheriff Kelly, and the other day Mr. Duffy had the pleasure of receiving his lost time piece, safe and sound as the day it was stolen from him. The matter was entrusted to Deputy Sheriff E. B. Wood, who, following his own suspicion as to the thief, at last found the missing watch on the person of a man who had some time ago been discharged from the works. Mr. Duffy not wishing to prosecute, no arrest was made.

The health committee of Heppner are out in a circular emphatically denying the report recently printed in a Pendleton paper to the effect that smallpox is epidemic in the town of Heppner. They say that like many other places all over the country, Heppner has been having its share of the so-called Filipino itch, and has had about a dozen cases, and are being strictly quarantined. There have been no deaths and no serious sickness, and most of the patients have been able to cook for themselves. Wherefore they respectfully ask the outside world not to believe the wild reports about smallpox being epidemic in Heppner.

Articles were filed Thursday with the county clerk incorporating the firm of A. M. Williams & Co. The incorporators are Annie M. Williams, Edward M. Williams, Jeannette G. Williams, Maie E. Sewell, Annie G. French and Pearl E. Williams. The capital stock of the incorporation is $150,000 in shares of $100 each. The objects of the incorporation as set forth in the articles are to conduct a general merchandise business, acquire title to real property, stocks and bonds and to conduct branch stores in the states of Oregon, Washington and Idaho, while the principal place of business and the office of the company is located at The Dalles.

The Grass Valley Journal probably made a draft on its imagination when it published the following: "There was a red hot time at Shaniko Wednesday evening at the caucus for nominating city officers. A. C. Sanford received the nomination for mayor over Banker Hurlburt by ten votes. Mr. Hurlburt's friends do not seem to be satisfied with the nomination, and will run Mr. Hurlburt for mayor on an independent ticket, and it is highly probably that he will be elected. The caucus nominees for council are: G. F. Ross, C. C. Cooper, Frank Lucas, N. M. Lane, F. H. Bruner, Fin Batty. Hurry-up messages 'for relief' have been sent to Moro and The Dalles, and the two-faction fight will be watched with much interest, and it looks now as though Shaniko's first city election will be a hot number."
