

MAY REPEAL THE TREATY

Possibility That Senate Will Act in Nicaragua Canal Matter—Choate Will Warn Lord Lansdowne.

NEW YORK, Feb. 19.—A dispatch to Journal and Advertiser from London says: Ambassador Choate has received instructions from Washington to impress upon the British government the necessity for immediate action upon the Hay-Pauncefote treaty.

Mr. Choate will call upon Lord Lansdowne and tell him the United States expects a decision on the treaty before March 4th.

Mr. Choate has been informed unofficially of the disposition of the United States senate to repeal the Clayton-Bulwer treaty and pass the Nicaragua canal bill if the pending treaty be not accepted. And he will tell the secretary of state for foreign affairs just what the situation in the senate is.

He has received no intimation of any sort from the British government as to what its decision will be, but there is good reason for saying that England is inclined to temporize, feeling that by delay and perhaps by alternative suggestions she may obtain some modifications of the terms of the treaty itself, or some set-off against what she considers her concessions.

Ambassador Choate's instructions from Washington are imperative, and he will make Lord Lansdowne realize that whatever he intends to do must be done quickly.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.—If Secretary Hay has communicated to Ambassador Choate any probable action of the senate on the Nicaragua matter, it is in private letters, for the executive department may not know officially of matters pending in the legislative department. State department officials will not discuss the instructions sent to Mr. Choate.

Cudahy Kidnaped is Caught.

OMAHA, Neb., Feb. 19.—One of the three men implicated in the kidnaping of Edward Cudahy, Jr., has been arrested and is now in the city jail. The man was arrested Saturday night, but the news was suppressed by the police until today. When the suspect was brought into the presence of young Cudahy for identification the young man said:

"This is the man who asked me to get into the wagon. There is no doubt about it; he is the man."

The police thus far refuse to divulge the identity of the prisoner, but it is known that he was arrested by two local officers. He has been under surveillance for some time, as it has been known that he had been writing letters concerning the Cudahy case, and that this fact brought suspicion upon him.

Edward Cudahy told a representative of the Associated Press that the man under arrest had been identified by his son as the man who accosted him in front of the Cudahy residence and who kept him company in the house to which he was taken on the night of the abduction.

Mr. Cudahy said the man had also been identified by the servant of the Partidge household who saw the letter thrown into the Cudahy lawn, and by another party, who rented the house to the two men.

Bodies of Two Miners Found.

SEATTLE, Wash., Feb. 19.—A special to the Times from Cumberland, R. C., says: The relief party began taking out bodies at the mines here this morning. At midnight, when the shift came up, they reported having found the coat of Dan McInnes torn in two, and at 9 a. m. today his remains were found, together with those of a Japanese helper in the first workings of No. 6, reached from No. 5 mine. From their position it is believed the men were killed instantly, and as they are farthest from the scene of the explosion, it is also believed that all the others were killed without warning.

WILD ANIMAL SCALP BOUNTY

House Passed Bill Making It $2 on Coyotes, Lions and Wolves.

SALEM, Or., Feb. 19.—Senate bill No. 108, by Williamson, providing for bounties for scalps of wild animals, was called up in the house today on special order. The house went into committee of the whole, Colvig in the chair. It was amended by the committee, reducing the bounty on coyote, lion and wolf scalps, etc., from $2 to $1.

Another amendment offered by Whitney, of Linn, raised considerable of a rumpus. His amendment was to allow only one third of the amount to be paid for scalps to be drawn out of the state treasury, instead of two-thirds, as the bill provided.

Roberts bitterly opposed such an amendment, saying its adoption would virtually kill the bill. If it was proposed to cut this appropriation in two this way, it might as well take the other half also. Mr. Roberts then referred to the rumors that people in Eastern Oregon were considering the creation of a new state. This he was not ready for, but, he said, "Eastern Oregon pays one-third of all the taxes, and what does she get in return? I tell you, you will rue the day when this happens."

The amendment of Whitney was voted down, after which the further sections were adopted without discussion, and the bill reported back to the house.

Roberts moved as an amendment to the report that the amendment made in committee of the whole, reducing the bounty on scalps of certain animals to $1, be stricken out and the bill reported in its original form. The effort of Roberts to restore the price of coyote scalps to $2 succeeded by a vote of 35 to 23. The bill was read the third time and passed.

The Best Plaster.

A piece of flannel dampened with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and bound to the affected parts is superior to any plaster. When troubled with lame back or pains in the side or chest, give it a trial and you are certain to be more than pleased with the prompt relief which it affords. Pain Balm also cures rheumatism. One application gives relief. For sale by Blakeley, the druggist.

Saturday is the Last Day.

SALEM, Feb. 19.—Both houses of the legislature adopted a resolution tonight setting the hour for final adjournment at midnight on Saturday. An attempt was made in the senate to fix the hour at midnight on Friday, and in the house at noon on Saturday, but both attempts failed. The forty days for which the members receive compensation end with Friday. This additional day will make it possible for many bills to be passed which would otherwise fail for want of time.

A powerful engine cannot be run with a weak boiler, and we can't keep up the strain of an active life with a weak stomach; neither can we stop the human machine to make repairs. If the stomach cannot digest enough food to keep the body strong, such a preparation as Kodol Dyspepsia Cure should be used. It digests what you eat and it simply can't help but do you good. Escaped Tar and Feathers.

BOISE, Idaho, Feb. 19.—A senatorial affray occurred at Mountain Home yesterday. A shepherd named Metchin is said to have attempted to assault the little daughter of a prominent citizen. She went home and informed her parents, when the father started out with a horsewhip and met and soundly whipped the fellow. This was the first time the citizens had heard of the matter, and they immediately organized, purchased tar and feathers and started out to find the man, but he had left, and has not been since seen. The people of the place are much excited.

How to Cure Croup.

Mr. R. Gray, who lives near Amenias, Duchess county, N. Y., says: "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the best medicine I have ever used. It is a fine children's remedy for croup and never fails to cure." When given as soon as the child becomes hoarse, or even after the croupy cough has developed, it will prevent the attack. This should be borne in mind and a bottle of the Cough Remedy kept at hand ready for instant use as soon as these symptoms appear. For sale by Blakeley, the druggist.

Murray Wade Found Guilty.

SALEM, Feb. 19.—Murray Wade was tried in the circuit court today on the charge of assault upon Will G. Evans, on the night of January 7th. After being out four hours the jury brought in a verdict of guilty, but recommended the defendant to the leniency of the court. Technically the crime is "assault," being armed with a dangerous weapon, and is punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary from six to ten years, or in the county jail from one month to one year, or by fine of from $100 to $1000. Wade will receive his sentence at 1 o'clock next Monday.
