

"A GREAT OLD CHAP."

Gov. Geer, of Oregon, is a great old chap, says Judge Goodwin in the Salt Lake Tribune. There is a bill before the legislature for the purchase of a fine house to be the executive mansion. The old man says of it that he is getting along first rate in a house, the rent of which is $15 a month; that he cannot afford to furnish and keep up a nice house, and if the bill becomes a law and the house is purchased, it will have to remain vacant while he is in office. The probability is that Governor Geer has been caught in some house at some time where there was no fireplace, and so, when he wanted to expectorate, rather than to soil the beautiful furniture set around in the corners, he had to raise the window and expectorate on the lawn. But we think it would be shabby in the legislature to buy a house, then not furnish it for the governor. It would not need much furniture; just some beds and here and there a chair and a mop. It would not do to put down carpets, and there ought to be hard wood floors so they could be mopped up easily every morning, or every week, as might be. We are saying this without knowing anything about Governor Geer's domestic relations. We take it that he must be a bachelor or a widower, because if he had a wife he never would have dared to say that he would not take a finer house if it was presented. Oregon is a great state, one of the finest in the Union, but Oregon still has a good many mossybacks. They are a long-lived race, and the only cure for them is death.

Referring to the dispatch of Senator Johnston in this issue THE CHRONICLE can at this moment only reaffirm every word it said in Monday's issue. Mr. Johnston deceived THE CHRONICLE as he did hundreds of others. He never could have been elected without the help THE CHRONICLE gave him; he never would have had THE CHRONICLE's support had he not again and again given it out in the plainest possible way, that he would not support H. W. Corbett for United States senator. These pledges were given in numerous instances, and to scores of persons whom THE CHRONICLE will produce at any time whenever any number of people in Wasco county raise a question of veracity between the editor of this paper and Senator Johnston.

On the one side the situation in the Oregon legislature is "Corbett or nobody;" on the other "Nobody rather than Corbett," and a common ground of agreement between the two has not yet conspicuously obtruded itself upon the public vision.

There is one thing that would reconcile us folks of Eastern Oregon to a state division, if anything would, and that is we would get rid of Joe Simonism and Perpetual Candidate Corbett for evermore.

How It is Done.

The first object in life with the American people is to "get rich;" the second, how to regain good health. The first can be obtained by energy, honesty and saving; the second, (good health) by using Green's August Flower. Should you be a dependent sufferer from any of the effects of Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Appendicitis, Indigestion, etc., such as Sick Headache, Palpitation of the Heart, Sour Stomach, Habitual Constiveness, Dizziness of the Head, Nervous Prostration, Low Spirits, etc., you need not suffer another day. Two doses of the well-known August Flower will relieve you at once. Go to Clarke & Falk's and get a sample bottle free. Regular size, 75 cents. Get Green's prize almanac.

Drying preparations simply develop dry catarrh; they dry up the secretions, which adhere to the membrane and decompose, causing a far more serious trouble than the ordinary form of catarrh. Avoid all drying inhalants, fumes, smokes and snuffs and use that which cleanses, soothes and heals. Ely's Cream Balm is such a remedy and will cure catarrh or cold in the head easily and pleasantly. A trial size will be mailed for 10 cents. All druggists sell the 50c. size. Ely Brothers, 59 Warren St., N.Y. The Balm cures without pain, does not irritate or cause sneezing. It spreads itself over an irritated and angry surface, relieving immediately the painful inflammation. With Ely's Cream Balm you are armed against Nasal Catarrh and Hay Fever.
