

Grand Opening of WHITE GOODS.

Thursday will be "White Goods Day." A day on which the first showing of New Spring and Summer Styles will be displayed.

It's a yearly event—one which we are making great preparations for. We will display the most marvelous collection of

Dainty Sheer White Goods,
French Organdies, Silk Mulls
and Swiss Batiste ever got together in our White Goods Department.

It's impossible to alter the dictates of fashion even though it catches some unprepared. We guessed right, and that's why we are headquarters for those fashionable, filmy fabrics which make those stylish, smart, soft, clingy costumes.

Grand Opening Thursday, March 7th.

Died, in this city Sunday, March 3rd, Charles W. Deering, aged 74 years. The deceased was a widower and has been living with his only daughter, Mrs. Charles Keys, for many years. The funeral took place from the Keys residence, on the bluff, this afternoon.

Several good coal prospects have been discovered near Antelope, and there appears scarcely to be a doubt but that we will have good coal mines opened up here this summer. Thus with gold, copper, silver and other minerals and also coal in this immediate vicinity, the prospects for the future of this little city is very bright indeed, says the Republican.

Sheriff Kelly took to Salem yesterday morning Mrs. Hattie E. Weidner, wife of F. P. Weidner of Mosier, who was examined Saturday before Judge Bradshaw and pronounced insane. The afflicted woman is 45 years of age. For a month or more she has manifested homicidal tendencies towards her children. It is hoped that her aberration is only temporary.

Sinnott & Fish last week ordered a dozen dressed chickens from the D. P. Ketchum ranch on Five Mile. The chickens were delivered Saturday and weighed exactly 804 pounds, or almost 63 pounds a piece. At 14 cents a pound they came to $11.39, or a little over 94 cents each. It will occur to most people that there ought to be money in chickens at $11.39 a dozen. These chickens were of Plymouth Rock variety.

Chas. H. Boyle, who appears in the title roll of the refreshing farce comedy now running at the Grand opera house, presents a type of character comedy which is not at all unusual, and which has provoked so much merriment in every day life that its possibilities as a stage caricature may be well understood. Another large audience laughed and applauded for two and a half hours last night. Mr. Boyle is surrounded by gay comedians and a bevy of charming young ladies who add not a little to the production.—Cincinnati Enquirer. This clever attraction comes to the Vogt opera house Wednesday, March 6th.

Remember that you don't have to be bald; you can keep your hair by using Coconut Cream Hair Tonic. To be had at Frazer's barber shop. tf

Bound Over to the Grand Jury.

Very much credit is due to Sheriff Kelly and his deputies for the excellent detective work that resulted in the arrest and imprisonment of the two men who last Monday night stole three bales of wool from the Wasco warehouse. The fact that the men slept in secluded places in the day time and did their traveling in the night time, made their arrest the more difficult.

Shortly after their arrest Friday night at Sherar's Bridge, the men made a full confession to Deputy Sheriff E. B. Wood. They gave their names as John and Ralph Winkle and claimed to be brothers. They said their home was near Eugene, and letters were found later in their pockets addressed to these names and bearing the postmarks of Monroe and Albany. They said they had planned the robbery while in the city a year ago. They had gained entrance to the warehouse by pressing on one of the double doors that was fastened within with a latch, so that they were able to lift the latch by inserting between the doors a thin piece of wood. They conveyed the wool sacks to the neighborhood of the oil house, nearly half a mile east, by means of a wheelbarrow they found near the depot.

The men arrived in town in the custody of Deputy Sheriff Wood Sunday morning. They were arraigned before Justice Brownhill this afternoon when they pleaded guilty and were bound over to the grand jury in the sum of $500 each.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Hugh Chrisman was in town today from Rufus.

Miss Ruffe, of Portland, will arrive here this evening to accept a position with Miss Haven.

Miss Carrie Lord, of Chillicothe, Ohio, is visiting the family of her uncle, Mr. W. Lord, of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Wells and children have returned to town after spending the winter months on their ranch at Prosser, Wash.

Mrs. W. E. Sylvester is with her daughter, Mrs. Emery Oliver, of Portland, who has been dangerously ill with typhoid pneumonia, but was somewhat better at last accounts.

George A. Young, of Ridgeway, the sheep king of Wasco county, is in the city. Mr. Young, in company with Senator J. N. Williams, will leave for Pendleton tonight to attend the wool-growers' convention that meets there tomorrow.

After a residence of sixteen years in this city, Louis Heppner resigned his position as book-keeper in Moody's warehouse and left yesterday for Portland, where he will go into business with his brother. Mr. Heppner will carry with him to his new home the warm regard of all who ever had any dealings with him during his long residence here.

Senator Mitchell's Election.

Among the names of those who voted for John H. Mitchell on the ballot which elected him to the U. S. senate, we note the name "McGreer." Our representative, has made a splendid record as a faithful and able servant of the people, and not the least valuable of the services he rendered, was the vote he gave to Hon. John H. Mitchell.—Antelope Herald.

"The election of Senator Mitchell," remarks the Eagle, "was accomplished by the votes of a number of democrats, who, rather than see the state unrepresented for the next two years, voted for Mr. Mitchell." The Eagle is able to see that there is no political aspect to a fight for a senatorship where one side is in a hopeless minority. In such a case partisan preferences should be forgotten in the duty of good citizenship. He is a narrow man who is a democrat or a republican first, and a citizen afterward.

The election of Mitchell was a source of much pleasure to Canyon City people, where he is universally the choice of all the old-time residents. This is largely the case in nearly every precinct of the county, says the Blue Mountain Eagle. Shortly after the receipt of the news of Mitchell's election Sunday morning, Judge Sels hoisted a streamer at the top of his flag-pole, on which he had painted "Our Senator, Hon. John H. Mitchell." Monday evening the anvil boomed for an hour, as a further endorsement of the selection of Mr. Mitchell. Mr. Mitchell is no stranger to the people of Oregon, and while his election was opposed by the Corbett faction of the republican party, all admit that the legislature could not have elected a man more able than the veteran senator.

The news of the election of J. H. Mitchell to the United States senate was received here with almost universal approval. Mayor Robbins at once wired his congratulations. To a Miner representative he stated that, as a democrat, he heartily endorsed the action of the ten democrats in the legislature who voted for Mitchell. His reason for this attitude, of course, is that he holds his citizenship above narrow partisan fealty, and recognizes in Senator Mitchell an intellectual giant, splendidly equipped in experience and the knowledge of statecraft to creditable and ably represent Oregon in the national legislature, and also a man of unblemished public and private character. Numerous other citizens sent messages to Mr. Mitchell expressing their personal pleasure over his election, and congratulating the state on account of this fortunate outcome of the senatorial deadlock.—Sumpter Miner.

The election of John H. Mitchell is the best selection that could have been made, and it is indeed fortunate to the state that the outcome of the senatorial deadlock has been the election of one who is not only head and shoulders above the so-called majority candidate, but far better fitted for the position than some dark horse candidate who might have been jumped up at the eleventh hour as a compromise senator. Senator Mitchell has well and faithfully served his state for eighteen years in the senate, and has always been found working for the best interest of the people of his state, and while he has had the enmity and opposition of the political push of Portland against him, the people of the state, irrespective of party, have ever been his champions.—Dufur Dispatch.

A powerful engine cannot be run with a weak boiler, and we can't keep up the strain of an active life with a weak stomach; neither can we stop the human machine to make repairs. If the stomach cannot digest enough food to keep the body strong, such a preparation as Kodol Dyspepsia Cure should be used. It digests what you eat and it simply can't help but do you good. A Gentle Hint.

In our style of climate, with its sudden changes of temperature,—rain, wind and sunshine often intermingled in a single day,—it is no wonder that our children, friends and relatives are so frequently taken from us by neglected colds, half the deaths resulting directly from this cause. A bottle of Bosche's German Syrup kept about your home for immediate use will prevent serious sickness, a large doctor's bill, and perhaps death, by the use of three or four doses. For curing Consumption, Hemorrhages, Pneumonia, severe Coughs, Croup, or any disease of the Throat or Lungs, its success is simply wonderful, as your druggist will tell you.
