

Grand Opening of WHITE GOODS.

Thursday will be "White Goods Day." A day on which the first showing of New Spring and Summer Styles will be displayed.

It's a yearly event—one which we are making great preparations for. We will display the most marvelous collection of

Dainty Sheer White Goods,
French Organdies, Silk Mulls and Swiss Batiste ever got together in our White Goods Department.

It's impossible to alter the dictates of fashion even though it catches some unprepared. We guessed right, and that's why we are headquarters for those fashionable, filmy fabrics which make those stylish, smart, soft, clingy costumes.

Grand Opening Thursday, March 7th.

All Goods Marked

Representative McGreer is in the city on his way home from Salem. Mr. McGreer is proud of the result of the senatorial fight in which he bore an honorable part, and one that the longer he lives he will more and more find has been in harmony with the wishes of the overwhelming majority of his constituents.

The following wedding notice appears in the Cleveland, Ohio, Plaindealer of February 28th: "Dr. D. G. R. LeQueene, of this city, went to Toledo on Monday and was married at 5 o'clock that evening to Mrs. Mary R. French, of The Dalles, Or. The wedding was private and took place in Trinity Episcopal church. Rev. A. Leffingwell, the rector, performed the ceremony. The couple returned to the city yesterday and are living at The Martha on Collins place."

Mrs. W. Staats and daughter, Miss Ruby Slesher, of Dufur, were in town today on their way home from Hood River, where Miss Ruby has been attending school. Miss Slesher, while being driven to the Hood River depot one day last week, was thrown out of the buggy and sustained injuries to one of her knees that it was feared would result in permanent lameness. Her mother was immediately sent for and under her careful nursing and the skilled attendance of the Hood River physician, it is now hoped that the injury will only be temporary.

Sheriff Kelly tells a pathetic story of Mrs. Hattie Weidner, of Mosier, whom he and Mrs. Kelly took to the insane asylum Sunday. Mrs. Weidner was told that she was to be taken to the Salem "hospital" and the poor woman was so elated with the prospect that when Mr. and Mrs. Kelly called for her at the Umatilla House, at 3 o'clock in the morning, she was already dressed and ready for the road. On the way to Salem she prattled of her new home like a child, and when she was driven up in front of the big asylum building and read the sign over the entrance, "State Hospital," she went into an ecstasy of delight. Then taking Mr. and Mrs. Kelly by the hand she thanked them for bringing her there, and bade them an affectionate good bye.

John Waiser, a Celilo Indian, has sworn out a complaint in Justice Brownhill's court charging Mac Southwell with larceny of a blanket, valued at $5 from an Indian woman known as Alice. The woman talks of a still more serious crime, or rather attempted crime against her person, and exhibits scratches and wounds and torn garments in proof of her statement. In the charge two or three young hoodlums of the Ten Mile neighborhood are accused. If the testimony of the Celilo Indians is to be believed they have been very badly treated for months by a number of white boys in that neighborhood, and if half what the Indians say is true some of these boys ought to be doing service in the state jute mill. The warrant for the arrest of Mac Southwell has been placed in the hands of Constable Jackson.

How It is Done.

The first object in life with the American people is to "get rich;" the second, how to regain good health. The first can be obtained by energy, honesty and saving; the second, (good health) by using Green's August Flower. Should you be a despondent sufferer from any of the effects of Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Appendicitis, Indigestion, etc., such as Sick Headache, Palpitation of the Heart, Sour Stomach, Habitual Constipation, Bizziness of the Head, Nervous Prostration, Low Spirits, etc., you need not suffer another day. Two doses of the well-known August Flower will relieve you at once. Go to Clarke & Falk's and get a sample bottle free. Regular size, 75 cents. Get Green's prize almanac.

SALMAGUNDI.

There are thirty-one miles of saloons in Chicago, and only eight miles of churches. In this case the longest way round is not the shortest way home.

From Lane county comes the report of a magnificent herd of elk being in the vicinity. Under the game law passed at the last legislature it will be legal to hunt this game after August, 1904, instead of 1911, as the old law prescribed.

From Greenwich, Conn., comes the story of a wife who, in her complaint for a divorce, alleged that during nine years of married life her husband, a well-to-do farmer, had given her but two cents in cash, and this was for contribution to the church collection basket.

London has been figuring on its needed water supply in 1950 with anything but pleasing results. Royal commissions and experts have estimated the population of the city by that time at anywhere from 15,000,000 to 30,000,000 and 12,000,000 is commonly regarded as the minimum, although one statistician has lately advanced the theory that a limit of growth will be reached at 8,000,000.

Much merriment was caused the other day at Stuttgart by the announcement to the assembled Stuttgart diet by the minister of the interior that at Rottenburg the only electors who went to the poll were the village town crier and the one village policeman, and that he for years past had chosen for communal election only such persons as lived close to the town hall in order that he should not be forced in the execution of his duties to go too far. At a place called Murrhardt, the minister continued, the electors conspired together in order that only tailors should be elected, which accordingly actually took place. At other places it had come to his knowledge that nobody ever dreamed of going to the polls at all.

The lake of asphalt in Venezuela over which two American syndicates are squabbling, is a possession worth fighting for, says the Baltimore Sun. The supply is inexhaustible and the lake, as described by one who has seen it, is a huge black sea of wealth, stretching out as far as the eye can reach. The excavations fill up as rapidly as the workmen leave them, and no amount of reasonable work in taking out the asphalt can produce a visible diminution of the supply. It is a well of wealth that never overflows and is always filled to the brim. Its upcoming is wrapped in mystery, its birth time is unknown. It is impossible to estimate its actual value as a merchantable commodity, and to say at hazard that it is worth hundreds of billions of dollars is not putting the figure too high.

Here is a new story of a novel interpretation put upon words: "Two little lads were heard one Saturday night singing lustily and with particular emphasis the opening lines of the hymn beginning:

Eye another Sabbath's close,
Eye again we seek repose.

Their mother suggested that this was a hymn more suitable for Sunday than for Saturday night—to their great astonishment. "But, mother," they protested, "on Saturday night you air our clothes for Sunday, while we seek repose"—the words as they rendered them being:

Air another Sabbath's clothes!
Air again we seek repose!

Children's prayers are often very quaint: "Oh, please, dear God, make me pure, absolutely pure as Epps' cocoa."

The village of Zoar, Ohio, is another added to the list of communist or socialist foundations crumbling away under the tooth of time. Wherever the experiment has been tried of the abdication of individual rights in favor of community despotism in the open world of competition the experiment has failed, no matter how promising the conditions, how confident the participants. Zoar, named for the German communist, is sixty-two miles southeast of Cleveland. Nature adapted it well for the peaceful and profitable home of an agricultural and industrial community. This fact the disillusioned villagers appreciate. They have apportioned the land equitably and will now develop its resources in accordance with equitable principles of individual liberty and general common sense, the only thing not common in Zoar during its communistic period.

Among the tens of thousands who have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for colds and a gripe during the past few years, to our knowledge, not a single case has resulted in pneumonia. Thos. Whitfield & Co., 249 Wabash avenue, Chicago, one of the most prominent retail druggists in that city, in speaking of it, says: "We recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for a gripe in many cases, as it not only gives prompt and complete recovery, but also counteracts any tendency of a gripe to result in pneumonia." For sale by Blakeley, the druggist.

THE CELEBRATED

..COLUMBIA BREWERY..

AUGUST BUCHLER, Prop.

Of the product of this well-known brewery the United States Health Reports for June 28, 1900, says: "A more superior brew never entered the laboratory of the United States Health reports. It is absolutely devoid of the slightest trace of adulteration, but on the other hand is composed of the best of malt and choicest of hops. Its tonic qualities are of the highest and it can be used with the greatest benefit and satisfaction by old and young. Its use can conscientiously be prescribed by the physicians with the certainty that a better, purer or more wholesome beverage could not possibly be found."

How to Cure Croup.

Mr. R. Gray, who lives near Amenia, Dutchess county, N. Y., says: "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the best medicine I have ever used. It is a fine children's remedy for croup and never fails to cure." When given as soon as the child becomes hoarse, or even after the croupy cough has developed, it will prevent the attack. This should be borne in mind and a bottle of the Cough Remedy kept at hand ready for instant use as soon as these symptoms appear. For sale by Blakeley, the druggist.
