Spring opening of street hats at Miss Haven's on Friday and Saturday of this week.

The ladies of St. Paul's Guild are preparing for their annual Easter sale, which will be announced later.

Apprentice girls wanted at Miss Haven's millinery store, on Washington street, between Second and Third.

We wonder when The Dalles is going to get that free mail delivery we were promised last year when it was found that the business done at The Dalles postoffice entitled us to it?

R. G. R. Varney, general missionary, will preach at the Calvary Baptist church tomorrow (Friday) night and Saturday night and will conduct both services at the same place on Sunday.

Hyde Park, the new sailor for 1901, is made over a Knox block and comes in five different styles. Will be shown at Miss Haven's Friday and Saturday, March 8th and 9th.

A special service will be held at the Methodist Episcopal church this evening preparatory to the meetings to begin Sunday. All the members and friends of the church are requested to be present.

The Ladies' Good Intent Society of the M. E. church have placed a barrel at the front door of J. H. Cross' grocery store and request that the people will kindly place their discarded rubbers in it.

Rev. George Campbell, a returned missionary from China, will deliver an address detailing some of his experiences in foreign mission work during the Boxer uprising, at the Calvary Baptist church tonight, beginning at 8 o'clock.

The public generally is invited to hear the address. No admission fee and no collection.

The price of admission to the entertainment which will be given at the residence of Mr. E. O. McCoy on tomorrow evening will be 25 cents. A pleasant evening is promised all who attend.

While in town on his way home from Salem, Representative T. H. McGreer sold to James Wright, of North Yakima, 1800 head of mutton sheep, 1100 head being wethers and 700 dry ewes, to be delivered on the 15th of next month at $4 a head.

Mr. and Mrs. Grenville Goddard, of Hood River, will give an entertainment in the Congregational church on next Monday evening, March 11th. They will be assisted by some of the best local talent. Particulars will be given in tomorrow's CHRONICLE.

Died, Tuesday, 6th instant, at Kelso, Wash., Ruth Ova, the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Roberson, of this city. The cause of death was pneumonia, which the child contracted while its parents were visiting friends at Kelso. The remains were laid to rest yesterday at Carson.

The Walla Walla city council has raised the license on saloons from $350 to $1000 per annum. The same council has banished the nickel-in-the-slot machines and ordered the chief of police to enforce the law against gambling so that all gambling in the city be stopped and remain stopped.

It was a surprise to many, when calling at Clarke & Falk's at noon to procure seats for the play, "The Wife," to find there are already a great many taken. No doubt, as is always the case with a home talent play, the Vogt will be crowded. Beside, the production is the most attractive they have ever undertaken.

Seth Morgan has sold his ranch on Three Mile, consisting of 435 acres of land, with fair improvements, for the lump sum of $3,500. The purchaser is James Elton, who came here recently from South Dakota. Seth is going to live for the rest of his days on the interest of his money. A plutocrat is all right if it isn't the other fellow that's the plutocrat.

Ben Ally, a boy of 16 years, died last Tuesday on the Little Klickitat river, west of Goldendale, from the effects of the accidental discharge of a gun he was carrying. While hunting in company with two other boys, Ben stumbled and his gun was discharged, the shot penetrating his left groin. The boy died before a conveyance could reach him to take him home.

Anton Schott, the renowned Wagner tenor, announces a popular concert at the Vogt opera house on Saturday, the 10th. This will be the only opportunity for the Dalles musical public of hearing this great artist, who has been heard in all the large cities of Europe and of this country. Anton Schott will be assisted by Miss Otilie Schnecking and Lucien Vannod, who have been well received by Portland audiences.

The fifth annual drawing took place at Maier & Benton's store last night. The following are the lucky numbers: Steel range, 3081, first; heating stove, 2955, second; set of silver knives and forks, 2450, third; set of carvers, 2260, fourth; nickel-plated tea kettle, 5256, fifth; nickel-plated coffee pot, 6689, sixth; nickel-plated tea pot, 5462, seventh.

The rabbit drive on Blalock Island last Tuesday resulted in the death of about 600 rabbits. About 200 persons were present, but twice that number would have killed a more than proportionately larger number of the pests. People were present from Salem, Gervais, Portland, Seattle, Spokane, Wallace, Walla Walla, Boise, Pendleton, Heppner and various other points in Washington state and other Northwest Pacific states. President N. G. Blalock, of the Island Company, expressed himself as well pleased with the results of the chase, and was glad that his visitors had not only enjoyed themselves and yelled themselves hoarse, but that they had managed to corral as many of the pests as they did.

The fact is recalled by the election of Mitchell as senator from Oregon that his daughter married nine years ago into one of the oldest of France's titled families, says the Spokesman-Review. She is the wife of the duc de Rochefoucauld, who has one of the finest lineages in France, three titles, all of last year's bird's nest variety, a commission in the army and a host of friends. He seems to be an exception to the ordinary run of dukes, for he refused to marry his cousin and a great fortune, and took the Oregon girl without a dot. The couple met in Paris fifteen years ago. It was a case of love at first sight, although the duke is fourteen years his wife's senior, and had the reputation of a woman hater.

Special Council Meeting.

A special meeting of the city council was held last night to consider the question of lighting the city, with special reference to the number and character of lights desired, so that bids may be received for the same.

It was agreed that fifteen arc lights and fifty-four incandescents should be the minimum number of lights required. The arcs are to be 700-candle-power and the incandescents 32 candle-power; the lights to be placed where the council shall designate and all expenses connected with the placing of them in position to be borne by the contractor. It was further decided that the contract for lighting the city shall last for ten years; that the lights shall be in place on or before the first of October next; that all bidders shall furnish with their bids a satisfactory bond or certified check for $1000; and that the bids be opened at the adjourned council meeting next Tuesday evening.

It was agreed to purchase a grading machine at a cost of $35, to be used for improving the streets of the city, and that a team be hired to work the same.

John Walker was appointed pound master and deputy marshal for the enforcement of the cow ordinance.

Obituary.

Constantine, better known as Charley, Hunt died last night, March 6th, at the residence of Mr. I. Francisco, of this city after an illness of many weeks' duration.

The deceased was born at St. Joseph, Michigan, July 5, 1842. On November 25, 1862, he enlisted in the Union army as a member of Company H, Eighteenth Wisconsin Volunteers, serving till the close of the war and being with Sherman in his famous march to the sea. He came West after the close of the war and many years ago took up his residence in The Dalles, where, till feeble health compelled him to stop, he followed the trade of carpenter. He was a member of the G. A. R. in good standing and a charter member of the local G. A. R. post.

He leaves one son, Cortland P. Hunt, who grew up in this city and is now a conductor on the N. P. R. R., with headquarters at Spokane, and three brothers, two living East and one at Port Angeles, Wash.

The funeral, which will be conducted under the auspices of the local G. A. R. post, will take place from the Francisco residence tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Handsome Compliment to Dr. Doane.

The following letter, which explains itself, has been handed us for publication:

THE DALLES, OR., Feb., 1901.

TO DR. O. D. DOANE:
We, the undersigned citizens and taxpayers of school district No. 12, desire to express to you our obligations and thanks for the efficient services that you have rendered the district during your six years incumbency, and believing that it is the wish of an overwhelming majority of the voters and school patrons of this district that you remain in office, we urgently request that you allow your name to be used as a candidate for director in the coming election.

..COLUMBIA BREWERY..

AUGUST BUCHLER, Prop.

Of the product of this well-known brewery the United States Health Reports for June 28, 1900, says: "A more superior brew never entered the laboratory of the United States Health reports. It is absolutely devoid of the slightest trace of adulteration, but on the other hand is composed of the best of malt and choicest of hops. Its tonic qualities are of the highest and it can be used with the greatest benefit and satisfaction by old and young. Its use can conscientiously be prescribed by the physicians with the certainty that a better, purer or more wholesome beverage could not possibly be found."
