

Sleep for Skin-Tortured Babies

And Rest for Tired Mothers

In a warm bath with CUTICURA SOAP and a single anointing with CUTICURA, purest of emollients and greatest of skin cures. This is the purest, sweetest, most speedy, permanent, and economical treatment for torturing, disfiguring, itching, burning, bleeding, scaly, crusted, and pimply skin and scalp humors, with loss of hair of infants and children, and is sure to succeed when all else fails.

COMPLETE EXTERNAL AND INTERNAL TREATMENT FOR EVERY HUMOR, $1.25. Consisting of CUTICURA SOAP (25c.), to cleanse the skin of crusts and scales, CUTICURA OINTMENT (50c.), to instantly allay itching and soothe and heal, and CUTICURA RESOLVENT (50c.), to soothe and cleanse the blood. A 5-cent jar is often sufficient to cure the severest humors when all else fails. FOR SALE: DRUG AND CHEM. CONC., Sole Props., Boston. "All about the Skin, Scalp, Hair, and Face," free.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Attorney W. H. Wilson was a passenger on the noon train for Spokane, where he goes on legal business.

Representative T. H. McGreer, who has been in the city for the past two or three days, left on the noon train for his home near Antelope. He was accompanied by Alex Kelsay.

Lucien Vannod, who for years has been connected with Herr Schott, the famous singer, was in the city today making arrangements for their concert, which will be given in the Vogt on the 16th.

What Washington Missed.

He never swung a driver at the tee—
Poor old George!
He never heard of Marshal Waldese—
Poor old George!
There wasn't any Kansas in his day—
No mighty liners steamed across the seas;
He never heard a gentle maiden say—
"The line is busy—stop your ringing, please!"
Poor old George!
He never heard of Bill of Germanee—
Poor old George!
Or tried to make a tropic island free—
Poor old George!
He never saw a train go like a streak—
Of lightning through a whirling cloud of dust;
He never cleared a million every week—
Never got within the circle of a trust—
Poor old George!

SALMAGUNDI.

Always speak well of the dead, and if you have time you might speak a good word for the living occasionally.

Don't get the notion that in helping the poor you can do more with a "cheerful word" than you can with a dollar.

When the Portland Mitchell-republicans and democrats get through with Gov. Geer he is liable not to have over fifteen teeth.

The executors of the Croker estate are to build a $10,000,000 cathedral in San Francisco. That will give employment to a large number of people and is certainly a good way to divide up a big estate.

By means of small boxes, called "grace before meat" boxes—put on the table for the receipt of coppers as a thank-offering for meals—the total amount collected by the Salvation Army last year in England was £11,000.

Here is a prayer, quoted from the chaplain of the Arkansas house of representatives a few days ago: "O Lord, we thank Thee that we are not in the lunatic asylums this morning, nor considered fit subjects for the same."

The Seventh Commandment is the name of the play written by Rev. Edward Davis, well-known in Albany, and recently presented in Omaha for the first time. Let's see, what's the seventh commandment? Yes, the play should be a live one.—Democrat.

One of the strangest of the freaks of fortune has come to John A. Bunting, a former freight brakeman on the Southern Pacific, who has just ordered a $30,000 private car of the Pullman company. Bunting began life ten years ago as the keeper on a railroad water tank on the desert near Tucson, Arizona. Then he was advanced and finally reached the position of freight brakeman. He loaned a friend $170 and took as collateral a watch and mortgage on forty acres of land in Kern county, California. The friend did not pay, so Bunting sold the watch and foreclosed on the land. He struck oil on the latter and is now a millionaire.

A man in South Omaha had some Limburger cheese to ship, but the express company would not except it, claiming it would penetrate the other merchandise. A friend of the shipper suggested that he pack the cheese in a coffin box, which he did, and delivered it at the depot as a corpse. He accompanied it as a relative. The express messenger, native of Erin, occasionally took a contemptuous whiff of the supposed "stiff." Upon unloading at the destination the messenger asked the shipper: "Who is the fellow in the coffin?" "A brother of mine." "Well, yez has one consolation. He's in no trance."

THE CHRONICLE has made arrangements with the publishers of the New York Tribune whereby we are able to offer the Weekly Tribune, which alone is $1.50 a year, and the twice-a-week CHRONICLE—both papers—for the price of one, namely $1.50 a year. By the same arrangement we can give the Tri-Weekly Tribune and the twice-a-week CHRONICLE—five papers a week—for $2. All subscriptions under these offers payable in advance.
