Hayden O'Neil, who lives on the Canyon City road next to the Chicken Springs ranch, has a small bunch of ewes that have just yielded him a net increase of 150 per cent. Every ewe in the bunch, save one, had twins, and she had triplets. The weather was too cold to save them all. The ewes are a cross of Cotswold and Dorsetshire.

The regular annual election of one director and one clerk for The Dalles school district will be held next Monday at the office of the city recorder. The polls will be open from 2 to 6 o'clock p. m. At least two candidates are in the field for clerk, John Gavin, the present incumbent, and William Menefee, of Menefee & Parkins. It is hardly likely there will be any opposition to Dr. Doane for director.

As we go to press the case of John Doe, a Chinaman, is being tried in the recorder's court by a jury of six persons. The Chinaman is charged with keeping a resort for the smoking of opium, within the limits of Dalles City and contrary to the ordinance in such case made and provided. The complaining witness is Nightwatchman Like. N. J. Sinnott appears for the Chinaman and B. S. Huntington for the city.

Dr. Doane's willingness to again assume the cares and responsibilities of the school directorship of this district will give pleasure to a large number of tax-payers, who believe that it is a case of the right man for the right place. A school directorship is too often a thankless task. It is some compensation, however, when effective and honest endeavor is appreciated, as it undoubtedly is in the case of Dr. Doane.

This community was greatly shocked this morning to learn of the death of Mrs. Charles Keys, which took place a short time after midnight. Only last Monday the departed lady had the sorrow of seeing her father carried from the house wherein she died to his last resting place in Odd Fellows' cemetery. She was then suffering from the complaint that carried her off, pneumonia, and the grief of parting with the only parent she ever knew (for her mother died when she was quite young) doubtless aggravated the disease and hastened her death. Mrs. Keys was about 39 years of age. Besides her husband she leaves a family of seven children. The funeral will take place from the house at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

Last night Temple Lodge, A. O. U. W., and Fern Lodge, D. of H., had a "house warming" in K. of P. hall. After the business sessions the doors between the two halls were opened and the following program was rendered: Instrumental duet, Mrs. Stephens and Miss Sargent; select reading, Mrs. Driver; vocal solo, Mr. H. Hansen; recitation, Miss Esther Beck, who responded with "The Little Torment" in a happy manner, after which all were invited to the banquet tables, where an hour was spent in relieving the tables of their burden. The grand chief was called and responded with remarks, and the first evening spent in the K. of P. halls by the A. O. U. W. and D. of H. was a happy one.

While Mrs. Herbering and her children were walking this morning on Fulton street, in front of the two houses recently purchased by F. H. Wakefield from George Joles, a wagon drove up to the place and one of the children, a girl of five years, turned quickly to look at the wagon and stepping backward at the same moment fell through a hole in the fence, a distance of some twelve feet to the ground below. It was almost a miracle that the child was not killed on the spot. The first Mrs. Herbering knew of the accident was when she heard the scream of her child as the little one struck the ground. It is hoped that no serious results will follow the accident, although nothing certain as to that can be known till later on. Meanwhile it is the duty of the authorities to see that the hole (two or three holes, in fact) is closed, for, while it forebodes no ill to grown people, it is assuredly a menace to the scores of children that pass that way. Better a stitch in time than a five thousand dollars damage suit.

Death of Mrs. Sophia Palmer.

Died, yesterday afternoon, March 7th, at the residence of her son H. J. Palmer, of this city, Mrs. Sophia Palmer, aged 55 years and nearly three months. Mrs. Palmer has been in feeble health for many weeks and her death was not unexpected. She was born in Ohio and after living for a time in Kansas and Nebraska moved with her family to Oregon in 1883 and settled in Crook county, making her home at Prineville and Mitchell till a few months ago when she followed her son, who is in the employ of Pease & Mays, to The Dalles. Mrs. Palmer leaves five living children, three sons and two daughters. These are A. C. Palmer, of Prineville, editor of the Crook County Journal, Wm. L. Palmer, of Geizer, Baker county, H. J. Palmer, of this city, Mrs. C. A. Randolph, of Portland and Mrs. C. E. Frye, of Denver, Colorado.

Mrs. Palmer was a genial, warm-hearted and earnest Christian woman who leaves a host of friends among her neighbors and acquaintances in Crook county. She was converted at the age of 13 and has been a devoted member of the Methodist Episcopal church for the past twenty-five years.

The funeral took place from the house at the east end of the old fair ground at 3 o'clock and was conducted by Rev. U. F. Hawk.

Concert Next Monday Night.

A concert will be given on Monday evening, March 11th, at 8 p. m., at the Congregational church, by Mrs. Louise Boyden-Goddard and Mr. Grenville Goddard, assisted by Miss Myrtle Michell and Mr. Poling.

Mrs. Goddard is an elocutionist of rare merit, a graduate of an Eastern school of oratory and a teacher of high repute, hearing the best of testimonials from cities where she has taught with the greatest success. Mr. Grenville Goddard has been a member of some of the best opera and concert companies traveling through America and Europe. He is possessed of a voice of remarkable power and sweetness, which leaves one in doubt whether to class it as tenor or baritone.

Mr. and Mrs. Goddard are located for the present at Hood River, where Mrs. Goddard has classes in elocution and physical culture. She is desirous of extending her work in these lines to this city and the concert to be given on the evening of March 11th will give the residents of The Dalles an opportunity to see and judge of her work.

The proceeds of this concert will be divided with the Congregational church of this city.

Dr. Doane Will Accept.

To S. L. Brooks, Geo. Rich, E. M. Williams, E. C. Pease, J. W. French, D. M. French and Others:

GENTLEMEN:—Replying to your open letter in yesterday's Chronicle, I wish sincerely to thank you for the very kind expression of your confidence and appreciation.

Having served this school district as one of its directors for the past six years, I had fully expected to retire at this time, and should prefer doing so. If, however, it is the general wish of the tax-payers and voters of the district that I should continue in office, I am willing to lay aside personal preferences, and, if elected, will do my best to serve the district as a director for another term.

Respectfully Yours,
O. D. DOANE.

Question Answered.

Yes, August Flower still has the largest sale of any medicine in the civilized world. Your mothers and grandmothers never thought of using anything else for indigestion and biliousness. Doctors were scarce and they seldom heard of appendicitis, nervous prostration or heart failure, etc. They used August Flower to clean out the system and stop fermentation of undigested food, regulate the action of the liver, stimulate the nervous and organic action of the system, and that is all they took when feeling dull and bad with headaches and other aches. You only need a few doses of Green's August Flower, in liquid form, to make you satisfied there is nothing serious the matter with you. Get Green's prize almanac. Clarke & Falk's.

STOCKHOLDERS' MEETING.

By order of the president.
The Dalles, Oregon, March 5, 1901.

She Didn't Wear a Mask.

Blakeley's drug store.
