

Knock-Out Drops

"I am a saloon-keeper, and used to think that rock and rye, or whiskey and quinine were proper remedies for coughs and colds. Most of my acquaintances were of the same opinion. Now I know something at least a thousand times better. It is Acker's English Remedy for Coughs and Colds. A good while ago I began to cough and found out then that rock and rye was no good. I got worse and I was beginning to think that the trouble would run into consumption. I didn't take any stock in patent medicines, but somehow or other I tried Acker's English Remedy. One bottle did the business for me—knocked that cough out completely—and it has never come back again. There is never a day passes that I don't say a good word about this wonderful medicine. I almost forgot to say that I am stronger and fresher now, since taking the remedy, than I was before the cough began. I write this letter voluntarily and cheerfully and am glad to do it. (Signed) CHAS. HUBBLE, Saloon-keeper, Pocatello, Idaho.

Sold at 25c. and $1 a bottle, throughout the United States and Canada; and in England, 2d., 3d., 4s. 6d. If you are not satisfied after buying, return the bottle to your druggist, and get your money back. We authorize the above guarantee. W. H. HOOKER & CO., Proprietors, New York. For sale at Blakeley's Pharmacy.

SALMAGUNDI.

British law has a long arm. The Ottawa government has made an order that dance halls, gambling houses and those of ill repute at Dawson must close. And there is this to be said about British law; when it says such places shall close there will be no back-door evasion of the order.

Gov. Geer vetoed only one bill, and that to keep several democrats out of office, about the only charter bill ever vetoed in Oregon. He signed the graft bills right and left, bills that became laws through the trading process, but he couldn't stand this Portland charter bill. Great is Geer in height.—Albany Democrat.

The Journal insists that the demagogue got "gold bricked" when they voted for Mitchell for U. S. senator. Perhaps, but the people all over the state seem to be rejoicing, for any kind of a change from a putty brick was acceptable. As a matter of fact though the general sentiment is that Mitchell can do more for Oregon than any man who could have been elected.

According to Otis A. Foote, Japan agent for Allen & Lewis, of Portland, tea can be grown here successfully. Mr. Foote has made a careful study of tea and tea raising, and declares emphatically that climatic conditions in the Willamette and Rogue river valleys are right for the prosecution of the industry. He urges that it be given a fair trial by farmers, and, as an inducement, has sent his firm a sack of tea seed for free distribution.

"Father" Todd is as familiar around populist counsels as a clucking hen around a barn yard. His farm consists of a little piece of wooded land on which practically nothing but white clover grows. But he wears old clothes and looks his part at least. "Farmer" Todd is now chasing another scheme. It is to organize a league of 5000 former populists and "control the state." In the same breath with this announcement comes another that Todd is opposed to the re-election of Senator Turner. Evidently the farmer finds that his populist field is the most fertile, and he is preparing to sow his spring crop.—Walla Walla Union.

There was never a man in the office of secretary of state of the state of Oregon who looked after the dimes and dollars of the treasury as closely as is done by Mr. Dunbar, says the Statesman. He is scrupulously economic in expenditures within his control and scrupulously exact in the settlement of those he is compelled to pay without his discretion. His economy is characterized by a good many as parsimonious, and it has raised not a few secret enemies for him in various departments, but he seems willing to risk all that. With his own funds he is liberal and public-spirited, but with those of the state and its tax payers he does not feel like taking liberties. This is said neither in praise nor blame, in flattery or criticism, but as a statement of fact gleaned from observation.

Tot Causes Night Alarm.

"One night my brother's baby was taken with Croup," writes Mrs. J. C. Snider, of Crittenden, Ky., "it seemed it would strangle before we could get a doctor, so we gave it Dr. King's New Discovery, which gave quick relief and permanently cured it. We always keep it in the house to protect our children from Croup and Whooping Cough. It cured me of a chronic bronchial trouble that no other remedy would relieve." Infallible for Coughs, Colds, Throat and Lung troubles. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free at G. C. Blakeley's drug store.

BOTTLED SUNSHINE.

A boon to the sick and afflicted in the form of magnetic shields. Rheumatism, paralysis, consumption, corpulency—all of the ills the human flesh is heir to, treated by simple application of the shields. No disease can exist when magnetism in sufficient quantity is applied. The sick and afflicted are invited to call at room 44, Chapman block, The Dalles, Oregon, and learn how to gain health and keep it when once well. fb23-1md

THE CHRONICLE has made arrangements with the publishers of the New York Tribune whereby we are able to offer the Weekly Tribune, which alone is $1.50 a year, and the twice-a-week CHRONICLE—both papers—for the price of one, namely $1.50 a year. By the same arrangement we can give the Tri-Weekly Tribune and the twice-a-week CHRONICLE—five papers a week—for $2. All subscriptions under these offers payable in advance.

How to Cure Croup.

Mr. R. Gray, who lives near Amenias, Duchesne county, N. Y., says: "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the best medicine I have ever used. It is a fine children's remedy for croup and never fails to cure." When given as soon as the child becomes hoarse, or even after the croupy cough has developed, it will prevent the attack. This should be borne in mind and a bottle of the Cough Remedy kept at hand ready for instant use as soon as these symptoms appear. For sale by Blakeley, the druggist.
