

SHE'S ALL RIGHT.

Bearing the cold name of Ozero Lewis, a lady of Markleville, Ind., has outdone Carrie Nation. Carrie's system of putting saloons out of business may be all right in Kansas, but it won't work in other states. Mrs. Lewis' scheme will work any-where and to perfection. The other night old man O-zero Lewis forgot to come home at the proper hour, and so old lady O-zero Lewis went out looking for him. He was found in a saloon seated at a table with a number of other men drinking beer. Now, Mrs. O-zero didn't grab an axe and take a fall out of the ice box, neither did she dynamite the mirror behind the bar, but instead, walking up to the man who gave her the chilly name, she took him by the ear and walking back to a good strong chair, sat down with the old man across her lap and there administered a first-class spanking. Other women were with her to see how the scheme worked, and so pleased were they that their husbands were led out of the saloons by the ears.

There is much merit in this scheme. It is far superior to Mrs. Nation's idea, which is rude. That of Mrs. Lewis is truly refined. Husbands will not go to a saloon and drink cheap beer if they expect any moment the entrance of their wives, who will, forthwith, in front of all there assembled, spank them. Few men like to be spanked by their wives in public places. It is not so much the pain as the humiliation. Carrie does not strike at the root of the evil. Mrs. Lewis does. Carrie is too fighty in her ways. Mrs. Lewis is cool, deliberate and modest. For these reasons we believe that Mrs. Lewis' scheme of closing saloons should be approved and commended in every section.—Baker Democrat.

It is with considerably more truth than poetry that the Tillamook Head-light says: If the city of Portland can't raise the money to establish woolen mills we feel like passing round the hat, for we have been reading in the Portland newspapers for the past four years about prospective woolen mills to be established there. What's the trouble, anyway—cold feet? With all Portland's boasted wealth and advantages, there is a certain amount of mossbackism there which retards its manufacturing growth. We get an attack of jim-jams every time we read about the proposed Portland woolen mills, and with so much wool procrastination we hardly know how people in that city feel. It is plain to see that those who want to make a manufacturing city of Portland get plenty of newspaper boosting, but very little financial boosting from the very people who should help industries start up.

After Little Joe has spent a month or more, of the time he ought to have spent at his post of duty in Washington, in setting up the pins for the election of his beloved friend Corbett, it is positively cruel for the Pendleton Tribune, a very bosom cronie, as it were, of Little Joe, to write as follows: "Much speculation has been indulged in regarding the subtle hand of Senator Simon in the senatorial fight, and that he was instrumental in the defeat of Mr. Corbett is the opinion that is fast gaining ground. That Senator Simon was only a silent observer in the fight sounds unreasonable. That he did anything for Mr. Corbett is not apparent. Then, what did he do?"

The Granite Gem rips Representative Barrett because, as it alleges, he ignored the almost unanimous wish of his constituents in voting for H. W. Corbett in the late legislature. The Gem says: "Legislative members can sometimes fatten their lank purses and over-ride the wishes of the people who elect them, but the penalty invariably is certain political death."

The legislature passed a law making 32 pounds of oats a bushel instead of 36, as heretofore, and a valley paper of the 16-to-1-or-bust persuasion characteristically says: "This will enable the farmer to get more bushels to the acre and perhaps a greater profit on his crop."

Question Answered. Yes, August Flower still has the largest sale of any medicine in the civilized world. Your mothers and grandmothers never thought of using anything else for indigestion and biliousness. Doctors were scarce and they seldom heard of appendicitis, nervous prostration or heart failure, etc. They used August Flower to clean out the system and stop fermentation of undigested food, regulate the action of the liver, stimulate the nervous and organic action of the system, and that is all they took when feeling dull and bad with headaches and other aches. You only need a few doses of Green's August Flower, in liquid form, to make you satisfied there is nothing serious the matter with you. Get Green's prize almanac. Clarke & Falk's.

Drying preparations simply develop dry catarrh: they dry up the secretions, which adhere to the membrane and decompose, causing a far more serious trouble than the ordinary form of catarrh. Avoid all drying inhalants, fumes, smokes and snuffs and use that which cleanses, soothes and heals. Ely's Cream Balm is such a remedy and will cure catarrh or cold in the head easily and pleasantly. A trial size will be mailed for 10 cents. All druggists sell the 50c. size. Ely Brothers, 56 Warren St., N. Y.

Nasal CATARRH. In all its stages there should be cleanliness. Ely's Cream Balm cleanses, soothes and heals the diseased membrane. It cures catarrh and drives away a cold in the head quickly. Cream Balm is placed into the nostrils, spreads over the membrane and is absorbed. Relief is immediate and a cure follows. It is not drying—does not produce sneezing. Large Size, 50 cents at Druggists or by mail; Trial Size, 10 cents by mail. ELY BROTHERS, 56 Warren Street, New York.
