Concert at the Congregational church next Monday evening at 8 o'clock. Admission 25 cents. Program will be published Monday.

The members of The Dalles Library Association will please not forget that the annual election of officers takes place tonight at 7:30 o'clock at the library room.

An Indian girl of tender years this morning fell off, or was jerked off, the cart at Celilo and sustained a painful bruise on one of her knees, but was not otherwise seriously injured.

C. P. Balch and Johnston Bros. sold and delivered sixty-one head of yearling steers to Mr. Curtis, of Rockland, Wash., the first of March. The price received was $19 per head.—Dufur Dispatch.

A large attendance at the play "The Wife," which will be given for the benefit of the football team Tuesday night, is assured. Not for a long time have there been so many tickets sold in advance as have already been sold for this play.

Major and Mrs. J. W. Cousins, chief divisional officers for the Northern Pacific chief division, will conduct meetings all day Sunday at the Salvation Army hall. The local corps will continue special meetings for two weeks. All are cordially invited.

The jury in the case of John Doe, the Chinaman tried yesterday in the recorder's court for keeping an opium smoking resort, found the defendant guilty as charged and the recorder sentenced him to a fine of $50 or twenty-five days in the city jail.

The Ladies Good Intent were disappointed in that they were not able to report the amount earned by their "talent penny" at their Martha Washington party. Twenty pennies had been given out, the earnings from them, reported at their meeting Wednesday last, being only a few cents less than $70.

According to the Eugene Guard the two Winkle boys, who were sentenced yesterday to the state penitentiary for stealing three sacks of wool from the Wasco warehouse, are old offenders. The Guard says they are well known in Eugene, where they were arrested a number of times for petty larceny and convicted.

Stock Inspector A. A. Bonney announces that the cattle of P. Kimsey, of Wamic, are afflicted with contagious ring worm and are therefore quarantined to the Kimsey farm till cured. Ring-worm is not a very dangerous disease, but hurts the condition of cattle and takes off the hair, giving them a very miserable and unsightly appearance.

The sixth year of Miss Taylor's kindergarten and primary school, at the First Baptist church, has opened very encouragingly. The children are becoming very much interested in their spring work. The music, in charge of Miss Georgia Sampson, will be a prominent feature of the work. Pupils taking the course with Miss Taylor are admitted to the first half of the second year's work in the public schools of the city.

"The Ashwood Prospector," a weekly newspaper to be published at Ashwood, and devoted to the development of the Trout Creek mining district, will make its appearance at an early date. The initial number will probably be published on the 23d of this month. For the present the mechanical work of the paper will be done at the Herald plant, but as soon as business justifies it, a complete plant will be put in at Ashwood.—Antelope Herald.

The social which took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. McCoy yesterday evening was a success financially as well as socially. A large number of members and friends of the church were in attendance. After a program, every number of which was extremely pleasing, a guessing game was engaged, in which Mrs. Poling won the prize. A very nice lunch was served, after which an impromptu musical program was rendered by Mr. Poling, Mrs. Taylor and Miss Myrtle Michell.

Ralph and John Winkle were yesterday afternoon sentenced by Judge Bradshaw to a year and a half each in the penitentiary. These are the young men from the Eugene neighborhood who, a couple of weeks ago, broke into the Wasco Warehouse and abstracted three bales of wool valued at $120. On information filed by District Attorney Menefee the Winkles yesterday concluded to plead guilty and ask for sentence. They will be taken to Salem in the morning.

One of the new assessment laws that went into effect on its approval by the governor reads as follows: "All goods, wares and merchandise kept for sale in this state, all stock employed in any of the mechanical arts, and all capital and machinery employed in any branch of manufactures or other business within the state, owned by a corporation in or out of this state, or by any person, whether residing in or out of the state, shall be taxable in the county or city or other municipal corporation where the same may be either to the owners thereof or to the person or corporation who shall have charge of or be in possession of the same."

The little girl of Mr. Herbring, that fell yesterday some 12 feet to the ground below, through a big hole in the fence of Mr. F. W. Wakefield's property, is doing very well and it is hoped that the child is not hurt internally. Mr. Herbring is very indignant (and what father or mother, who loves his child, would not feel likewise) that the city authorities allow such dangerous places to exist on a public street, where a child may be killed in an instant. We have heard numerous complaints lately in this respect.

Four persons were seriously burned and eleven others narrowly escaped serious injury by the explosion of a large gasoline lamp in the dining-room of the Hotel Colfax, while dinner was being served, at 6 o'clock in the evening, says a dispatch dated last Wednesday. Donald Ririe, Mrs. Ririe, Mrs. J. M. Grady and W. C. Fudge, who were sitting at a table directly under the lamp, were terribly burned. A panic ensued, Wm. Burch leaped through a window and hurt his back. He was followed by Mrs. Ririe, who was enveloped in flames. She fell down a stairway leading to the basement. The dining-room was a mass of flames in a few seconds and two alarms brought the department, which extinguished the fire.

A little over a week ago a man well past middle life, well topped up in a brand new suit of clothes, and well mellowed with mountain dew, applied to County Clerk Lake for a license to commit matrimony. He gave his name as Robert C. Divine, and that of his proposed bride as Etta Dungan. Divine claimed to hail from Yakima county, Wash., while his bride was represented to be a resident of the Heppner country. Nobody here knew either of the parties, but as they were unquestionably old enough, by many years, to be entitled to marry, Divine got his license. Nothing was heard of the affair till this morning, when Mr. Lake got an official envelope post marked Wilcox, Wash., containing the license just as Mr. Lake delivered it to Divine. It would appear that there has been some kind of slip between the matrimonial cup and the Divine lip.

Twentieth Century Whist Club.

Mr. and Mrs. Hostettler charmingly entertained the Twentieth Century whist club Thursday evening. Seven tables were arranged. After two hours spent at the tables, Mr. T. J. Seufert and Mrs. A. S. Bennett came off victorious, after which a very tempting lunch was served. The guests of the evening were: Miss Lord, of Ohio, Mr and Mrs Ernst Luedemann, Dr and Mrs Geisendorfer, Mr and Mrs Ed French, Mr and Mrs E C Pease, Mr and Mrs Thos Hudson, Dr and Mrs Hugh Loran, Mr and Mrs H S Wilson, Mr and Mrs A S Bennett, Mr and Mrs Judd Fish, Mr and Mrs T J Seufert.

On Saturday last Charles Hix, the second son of Mr. and Mrs. John Hix of Kingsley, fell into the fire in an open fireplace and was so severely burned about the face, side and back that his life is despaired of. The lad, who is about 15 years of age, and was just recovering from the measles, was alone in the room, and it is evident that while sitting before the fire he fainted and fell into the burning fire, lying there until his mother and older brother, attracted by the odor of burning cloth, entered the room and was horrified by the sight which met their gaze. Dr. Dodds, who fortunately happened to be in the neighborhood, was soon at his bedside and did all that medical skill could do to alleviate his agonizing pain. At last accounts the patient was resting easier and slight hopes of his recovery are entertained.—Dufur Dispatch.
