

Read This, Consumptives

"From the way my wife coughed for six months, I knew she had consumption. She showed it in her face, too, and her body wasted away to a mere skeleton. After she got down in bed the doctors couldn't do any good. I called in both Dr. T. A. Shannon and Dr. N. L. Hawson, each of whom is a first-class physician, but they had nothing that would reach the trouble in her lungs. My wife's father came to see her one day, when she got very low. He lives in Cedar Lake, Wis., while we live in Rice Lake, Wis. He said he knew what was needed, and made me get a bottle of Acker's English Remedy for Consumption. I went to Schmidt's, our local druggist, and got a bottle, and it helped her right away. She took eight 50c. bottles, and they put her back on her feet and made her as sound and well as any woman in town. She has taken on flesh again, she doesn't cough, and if any one who doesn't know the facts was to be told she was so near death with consumption, he wouldn't believe it. My wife does all her housework, and at night sleeps as soundly as you please. Her stomach no longer gives her any trouble at all. Maybe you doubt what I am telling. If so, I advise you to see J. N. Schmidt, the druggist who sold me Acker's English Remedy for Consumption. He'll tell you the same thing. He says Acker's English Remedy is wonderful in all throat and lung troubles; that it is sold on a guarantee to cure, or money returned, and he never yet had a bottle come back to his store, although he has sold hundreds of them. My name is Luther Bedell, Rice Lake, Wis."

Acker's English Remedy is sold by all druggists under a positive guarantee that your money will be refunded in case of failure. 25c., 50c. and $1.00 a bottle in United States and Canada. In England 1s., 2s., 3s., and 4s. 6d.

We authorize the above guarantee. W. H. HOOPER & CO., Proprietors, New York.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Mr. Grenville Goddard is in the city from Hood River.

Alex. McLeod took the boat this morning for St. Martin's Springs in hope of obtaining relief from a severe attack of rheumatism in his lower extremities.

Mrs. James Sutherland, who has spent the past three weeks with her parents in this city, returned last night to her home in Spokane, accompanied by her sister, Miss Ione Ruch.

Mr. Archibald Finlayson, an old friend and playmate of W. J. Davidson, of Enderby, whom he has not met for upwards of thirty years, met Mr. Davidson at the Umatilla House last night and went out with him this morning to spend a few days on the ranch at Eight Mile. Messrs. Davidson and Finlayson were born on adjoining farms in Canada, but early drifted apart. Mr. Davidson coming to Oregon and Mr. Finlayson going to Northeastern Arkansas.

In the report in yesterday's CHRONICLE of the bills allowed at the March term of the commissioners' court a few mistakes occurred, chiefly through copying the figures on the bills instead of those representing the amounts allowed by the court in cases where the bills were cut. Maier & Benton's bill was cut from $5.75 to $5.25; the Good Samaritan hospital, $75 to $70; J. W. Jackson's $8.50 to $6; J. M. Filloon's from $67 to $56.50; Mrs. Maud Eddon's from $72 to $48. Alex Stewart's bill for freight was 30 cents instead of $30. Hugh Glenn's bill for $14.02 was not allowed; Dr. Watts' bill of $33 for medical services was laid over and the Shaniko Leader's bill was referred back to Shaniko. This was a claim of $40.47 for publishing the Shaniko city charter and doing other similar services in connection with the incorporation of that town and the election of its first mayor and council. If Shaniko can collect this bill from Wasco county, Judge Blakeley, as a citizen of The Dalles, will insist that all future bills contracted in running the government of this municipality shall be referred for payment to the state treasury at Salem.

This should be borne in mind and a bottle of the Cough Remedy kept at hand ready for instant use as soon as these symptoms appear. For sale by Blakeley, the druggist.
