Do You Cough?

"I guess I used to be like everybody else. When I caught cold, I just let it alone, thinking it would cure itself in a few days; of course the coughing and spitting of mucus sometimes lasted several weeks, but after a while the trouble would subside. I always noticed, however, that each cold was worse than the one before. My throat seemed to get weaker, and the least change in the weather started the coughing again. The last cold was the most severe of all. I was really frightened. Cough drops and home treatment did no good. A friend told me about Acker's English Remedy. I got a bottle, and you never saw the like of the way it acted. Before the bottle was gone I was well. My throat felt as strong and well as could be. Since then I have had no more trouble. I think Acker's English Remedy so strengthens the delicate lining of the throat that it easily resists the changes in temperature, and it builds up the constitution as well."

Schlatter, the Divine healer who was arrested recently in Seattle, has announced his intention of being buried alive on the conclusion of his present trip around the world. As further proof that he has "bats in his belfry," the healer announced that he had been offered $5,000,000 by Hetty Green if he would marry her.

A school mistress in Hood River was asking her class some easy questions to show their advancement before visitors. "How many sets of teeth do we have in a lifetime?" she asked. Some said two, others three, and one bright youngster answered four. "Name them," said the teacher. "Baby teeth, a set at 10 years, wisdom teeth at 21, and then comes false teeth."

It is high time to stop the seed swindle perpetrated by the department of agriculture at Washington. W. J. Ingalls says he wrote to the secretary of agriculture for some tobacco seed, and carelessly specified that he wanted Battle Ax, Climax or Star Plug, and was put off with the silly excuse that they were giving out nothing but fine cut this season.—Sunday Welcome.

Drying preparations simply develop dry catarrh; they dry up the secretions, which adhere to the membrane and decompose, causing a far more serious trouble than the ordinary form of catarrh. Avoid all drying inhalants, fumes, smokes and snuffs and use that which cleanses, soothes and heals. Ely's Cream Balm is such a remedy and will cure catarrh or cold in the head easily and pleasantly. A trial size will be mailed for 10 cents. All druggists sell the 50c. size. Ely Brothers, 56 Warren St., N. Y.

The Balm cures without pain, does not irritate or cause sneezing. It spreads itself over an irritated and angry surface, relieving immediately the painful inflammation. With Ely's Cream Balm you are armed against Nasal Catarrh and Hay Fever.
