WORK ON THE LOWER RIVER

Northern Pacific Said to Be Preparing to Build—A Semi-official Statement—Great Northern's Stock.

St. Paul, Minn., March 18.—It is semi-officially stated here today that the real motive for building from Kalama to Vancouver and bridging the Columbia river, which is credited to the Northern Pacific, is but preliminary to a short line from Wallula Junction to Portland on the Washington side of the Columbia river, which the Northern Pacific does not care to build until the river is bridged opposite Vancouver.

The Great Northern official circular signed by J. J. Hill, announcing the terms of the issue of $25,000,000 in new stock, was issued today. The circular recites that the capital stock of the Great Northern will be increased to an amount of not less than $25,000,000 for the purpose of "acquiring additional lines that will add more than 500 miles to the railroads now controlled by the company, and to acquire control of the ocean steamships of the Great Northern Steamship Company, of which two, of very large carrying capacity designed for the Pacific trade, are now under construction at New London, Conn." The terms of issue of new stock are described thus:

"Stockholders will be entitled to subscribe for $25 of new stock for each share of their holdings of the stock now outstanding, payment to be made as follows: Twenty per cent each on May 24, June 25th, July 25th, August 26th, and September 25th. Four dollars per month will be credited upon each installment on account of the subscriber's interest in said bonds released to this company by the subscription."

A Poor Millionaire.

OUTLAWRY IN THE PHILIPPINES

Methods Pursued by Tagals to Terrorize Peaceful Natives.

WASHINGTON, March 18.—The records in the cases of thirty-four Filipino natives, charged with various offenses against military discipline in the Philippines, including murder, treason and other acts of violence, have been received at the war department. These records make plain the methods pursued by the insurgents to terrorize the native inhabitants of the islands, and show cases of atrocities committed upon the latter where they declined to comply with the demands and exactions of the so-called Filipino government.

In one case nine insurgent sympathizers, fully armed, seized in the night a family of five persons and killed them with bolos. The motive for the murder was the punishment of the family for refusing to pay taxes in support of the insurgent government. The guilty natives were sentenced to hard labor for thirty years. In another case, under the orders of an insurgent lieutenant-colonel, a native was seized, bound and made to sit down while a soldier "held his head and with a knife cut his throat." The murderer was condemned to be hanged. Most of the other cases were the murder of innocent Filipinos by alleged soldiers and officers of the insurgent army, several of whom are described as notorious bandits and outlaws. The most atrocious, according to the records, is that of Eusebio Rojas, who was sentenced to be hanged, styling himself a lieutenant of infantry in the insurgent forces under the command of Alejandrino. Rojas claimed to exercise summary power over the lives and property of the natives who did not bear arms against the United States, and conceived it to be his duty to murder peaceful and law-abiding people living within his so-called military jurisdiction.

Pet Dog Kills Its Mistress.

NEW YORK, March 18.—Mrs. Carrie Cobus, living on West Eighteenth street, met death in a shocking manner tonight, being killed by her dog. Mrs. Cobus, her husband, her son and her mother lived together. Mrs. Cobus was 38 years old and subject to epileptic fits. Her constant companion was a fox terrier of unusual intelligence. Mrs. Elizabeth Broadhead, Mrs. Cobus mother, says her daughter went out into the kitchen about 7 o'clock. A few minutes later Mrs. Broadhead heard the dog barking excitedly. The mother ran out and found her daughter lying on the floor. She knew it was an epileptic attack, and dashing a pitcher of water into her daughter's face she ran into the hall and screamed for help.

Philip Rockefeller, living near by heard her and ran to her assistance. They went into the room where Mrs. Cobus lay and there saw a horrifying spectacle.

The pet terrier, seeing his mistress in agony, appeared to have gone mad. He flew at the prostrate woman as she writhed on the floor, and repeatedly attacked her, burying his teeth in her throat and severing the jugular vein. When Rockefeller tried to tear the maddened brute away it clung to the dying woman with terrible tenacity. He finally got the animal loose. It then attacked the mother and the man, but they beat it off.

A physician was summoned, but Mrs. Cobus had bled to death. The dog disappeared in the streets.

Tien Tsin Dispute Will Be Settled.

LONDON, March 18, 5:40 p. m.—On the highest official authority the Associated Press is authorized to announce that the difficulty at Tien Tsin between the Russians and British over the construction of a railroad siding in territory claimed by both, probably will be solved by the withdrawal of both the British and the Russian troops from the ground in dispute.
