Octogenarian Dead.

WALLA WALLA, March 20.—Mrs. C. A. Newell, aged 83 years, died yesterday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. F. J. Parker, on Catherine street. Mrs. Newell was born in Baltimore, Md., in 1818. In 1847 she was married to William H. Newell, in Philadelphia, and in 1854 came to the Pacific Coast with her husband. In 1862 the family moved to The Dalles, where Mr. Newell founded the Mountaineer newspaper, which afterwards became the Times-Mountaineer. Mr. Newell moved to Walla Walla in 1865, and purchased the Statesman, which he owned until his death in 1878. Mrs. Newell is the mother of Mrs. F. J. Parker, whose husband owned the Statesman since 1878 until about a year ago. Mrs. Newell leaves three children: Charles Newell, of Washington, D. C.; William Newell, of Buffalo, N. Y.; and Mrs. F. J. Parker, of this city. She had a large circle of friends in the Walla Walla valley.

Petrified Mitten.

TACOMA, March 20.—While out hunting several days ago, James Malm, of Tacoma, found a petrified leather mitten in a windfall at Niequally Canyon, near Eatonville. There were two mittens found, a right and a left, but the right fell to pieces when picked up. The other one is perfect and resembles a piece of dark brown bark more than anything else. Although light in weight, it is as solid as a piece of wood. In shape it is perfect, and there is no possible doubt but that it was once a leather mitten. It has been donated to the Ferry Museum.

Ask For Subsidy.

VICTORIA, B. C., March 20.—At a large public meeting last night resolutions were passed asking the government to give a subsidy for the Coast-Kootenai railway to Victoria, B. C., Vancouver & Eastern company, and indorsing the Crow's Nest-Southern Railway to the head of the island. Hon. Mr. Turner spoke, saying that subsidies would be given for the lines named and that the V. V. & E., had offered to build the Coast-Kootenai line on better terms than the former proposition.

CELEBRATION PLANNED

To Commemorate the Discovery of the Columbia River by Captain Gray.

ASTORIA, March 20.—The matter of celebrating the discovery of the Columbia river by Captain Gray is now being considered in this city, and there is a strong sentiment in favor of a big demonstration. The first centennial celebration was held in May, 1892, 100 years after the ship Columbia entered the great river which bears her name. It was the first celebration of the kind ever held here, and was even more successful than was hoped for by the most sanguine. The cruisers Baltimore and Charleston were in the harbor, and thousands of people flocked to the city from all parts of the state. So dense was the crowd that it was well-nigh impossible for one to walk on the streets. The celebration lasted three days, and fully 15,000 strangers were in town. At that time the arrangement committee planned for a similar celebration every 10 years, and the matter has now been brought up. It is thought steps will be taken soon to sound sentiment as to the proposed celebration.

Preparations for the annual regatta are already under way, and a committee to have charge of the carnival will shortly be appointed by the Push Club, which annually takes hold of this matter. It is the intention to commence work on the carnival earlier than usual. With the low rates now prevailing to this city from Portland, the attendance this year should be twice as great as ever before.

Barbers at War.

SUMPTER, March 20.—The barbers have been having all kinds of trouble here of late. At a meeting of the entire fraternity some days ago it was decided to reduce the price of hair cutting to 25 cents. This reduction did not seem to meet with favor in the eyes of Barber Lavin, and he went the rest one better by making shaving 20 cents. Then there was trouble over the Sunday closing law, but all closed.

Barber Lavin had Barbers Davidson and Buffum arrested yesterday for shaving without a state license. The cases were called this morning in Judge Felix's court, and attracted a large crowd. The sidewalk even in front of his honor's office was so crowded that the city marshal and his deputies were unable to open a passage way to and from the postoffice. Lawyer McCulloch prosecuted the cases and Lawyer Shelton defended. After listening to the testimony and the arguments of the learned attorneys, the jury rendered a decision in just four minutes of not guilty.
